REFLECTION: THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD: The Ascension of the Lord marks the completion of Jesus’ earthly mission, where he takes his human nature into the divine life, offering hope that humanity is destined for heaven. It is not an abandonment, but anew, deeper form of presence through the Holy Spirit, empowering followers to be his witnesses on earth. The Ascension is a “coming of age” for believers, moving from being accompanied by Jesus physically to acting with maturity, courage, and the power of the Holy Spirit to spread the Gospel. Jesus did not leave his human nature behind; he brought his wounds, symbols of his love and victory into the heart of the Trinity. The “Head” has gone before us, and the “Body” the Church, is called to follow in hope, realizing that our true home is in communion with God. Jesus remains present not only in the Spirit but also through the Eucharist, the Word, and in the poor, sick, and suffering. The period between the Ascension and Pentecost is a time of waiting for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

Just as Jesus sent his disciples to make disciples, our family, the domestic Church, is called to bear witness to the life of discipleship. That act of witnessing can take many forms. First, our family should call people to discipleship by the example of our love for one another. That is the beginning, our love must extend beyond the family, reaching out to others and to the world. Together with your family, identify one or more ways in which your family lives the life of Christian discipleship. Thank God for the blessing of the opportunity to be able to show God's love. Read together to identify more ways in which your family would like to do a better job bearing witness to the life of discipleship. Choose one of those ways and work together to make it happen. Pray as for the grace to be witnesses to the world of discipleship.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: ACTS of the Apostles 1:1-11 Jesus is taken up to heaven in the presence of the apostles.

Responsorial Psalm: 47:2-3,6,9 Sing praise to God as he mounts his throne.

Second Reading: Ephesians 1:17-23 God raised Jesus from the dead and seated him at his right hand.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 28:16-20 Jesus charges his disciples to make disciples of all nations and promises to be with them forever.

Today's Gospel is taken from the conclusion of the Gospel of Matthew. Matthew's Gospel quickly moves from the disciples' discovery of Jesus' empty tomb, to Jesus' appearance to Mary Magdalene and the other Mary, to the commission that Jesus gives his disciples. The final Commission, as this Gospel is sometimes called, is given on the mountaintop. Throughout Scripture, the most important events happen on the mountaintop, and Matthew has used this motif throughout his Gospel. Earlier in the Gospel, Peter, James, and John have seen Jesus transfigured on the Mountaintop. Also in the Gospel, Jesus taught the crowds from the mountaintop in what we now call the Sermon on the Mount. Here we are told that the eleven disciples go to the mountaintop in Galilee, as Jesus has instructed through Mary Magdalene and the other Mary. They see Jesus, and both worship and doubt at the same time. Jesus approaches them and commissions them to baptize and teach, "to make disciples of all nations." It is a task which Jesus had previously prepared his disciples for; recall that Jesus had sent the twelve apostles to preach the Kingdom of God and to heal. However, earlier the Twelve were sent only to the House of Israel; in this Final Commission, the eleven are told to go to "all nations." The mission of Jesus is now to be taken to all people; the task now is to baptize and to teach. Jesus commissions his disciples to baptize in the name of the Trinity. The ending of the Gospel can be understood as the beginning of the Church. Jesus commissions his disciples to teach in his name and to bring others into the community of disciples through baptism.
