REFLECTION: PENTECOST SUNDAY: Pentecost Sunday celebrates the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles, marking the birth of the Church and empowering believers to spread Jesus' message of love. It represents a reversal of Babel, uniting diverse peoples through understanding. The Spirit offers transformation, moving believers from fear to bold witness. The Holy Spirit unites people across language and cultural barriers without removing their differences. Just as the disciples were sent out, Pentecost challenges us to move beyond our comfort zones to share our faith. The Spirit changes the apostles from hiding in fear to boldly proclaiming the Gospel, transforming our own hearts, too. While the world may feel divided, the Spirit brings a "language" of truth and love that brings people together. Pentecost is an invitation to reawaken the gifts of the Spirit within us, specifically through Baptism and Confirmation. We should ask ourselves. Do I create silence in my life to hear and obey the promptings of the Holy Spirit?

Pentecost is sometimes called the birthday of the Church. The Gospel for Pentecost reminds us that the Church begins with the command to forgive. Within the family, the domestic Church, we learn how to forgive and how to accept forgiveness. The gift of the Holy Spirit enables us to do both. Today is a fitting time to share a family celebration of reconciliation. As you gather together as a family, sit quietly for a few minutes, inviting everyone to reflect upon their need to forgive and to receive forgiveness. If there is a situation or and issue within the family that needs attention, spend some time reflecting on how your family might address it. Talk together about how Jesus gave us the gift of the Holy Spirit to help us in the work of forgiveness and to bring us peace. Share with one another a Sign of Peace.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: ACTS of the Apostles 2:1-11 The Holy Spirit descends upon the apostles gathered in Jerusalem.

Responsorial Psalm: 104:1,24,29-31,34 God's Spirit renews the earth.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7,12-13 We are all one in Christ Jesus.

Gospel Reading: John 20:19-23 Jesus appears to his disciples and gives them the gift of the Holy Spirit.

The Season of Easter concludes with today's celebration, the feast of Pentecost. On Pentecost we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the apostles gathered in the upper room in Jerusalem; this event marks the beginning of the Church. The story of Pentecost is found in the Acts of the Apostles, today's first reading. The account in today's Gospel, also recounts how Jesus gave the gift of the Holy Spirit to his disciples. Yet the event in John's Gospel takes place on Easter Sunday.

There is no need to try to reconcile these two accounts. It is enough that we know that after his death, Jesus fulfilled his promise to send to his disciples a helper, an advocate, who would enable them to be his witnesses throughout the world.

We already heard today's Gospel proclaimed on the Second Sunday of Easter. That Gospel passage, however, also included the description of Jesus' appearance to Thomas in that context, we were led to reflect on belief and unbelief. In the context of the Feast of Pentecost, the Gospel of John reminds us about the integral connection between the gifts of peace and forgiveness and the action of the Holy Spirit. Jesus greets his disciples with the gift of peace. Jesus then commissions his disciples to continue the work that he has begun, "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." He breathes the Holy Spirit upon the disciples and sends them to continue his work of reconciliation through the forgiveness of sins. Jesus' act of breathing the Holy Spirit mirrors God's act of breathing life into Adam at the time of Creation. In fact, both the Greek and Hebrew words for "spirit" can also be translated as "breath." The reconciling presence of Christ is celebrated in the Church's sacramental life.
