REFLECTION: THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY:

The Most Holy Trinity is celebrated the Sunday after Pentecost, is not merely an intellectual challenge, but the celebration of the core mystery of the Christian faith: that God is a perfect communion of love; Father, Son and Holy Spirit. It is a day to move from trying to “solve” God to experiencing and resting in the divine love that defines God’s very essence. St. John Paul II described the Trinity as a family, as God is not a solitary being, but a community of persons Fatherhood, Sonship and Love. The doctrine teaches that the Father eternally loves the Son, the Son loves the Father, and the Holy Spirit is the mutual love between them, a perfect, unbroken bond of unity. The Church defines this mystery as one God in three distinct Persons, who are co-eternal and consubstantial (sharing the same substance). Because God is infinite, the Trinity cannot be fully grasped by human intellect. It is a “preacher’s nightmare” and a “theologian’s dream,” designed for contemplative prayer.

FAMILY CONNECTION

Whenever we make the Sign of the Cross, we are recalling a central mystery of our faith that expresses what we believe about God. We come to know who God is by what God does for us. Because of God’s great love for us, he sent his Son, Jesus, to save the world. Jesus, in turn, sent the Holy Spirit so that our faith in God and his love would be strengthened. The nurturing experiences of family life also help us to understand and have faith in God’s love. Create a family poster together showing all the ways in which your family experiences God’s great love. Use symbols, pictures, and words to show how you have seen God at work in your family life and in our history. Then read together today’s Gospel. Pray together, thanking God for his gift of love. Conclude by praying the Glory Be to the Father...

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: EXODUS 34:4b-6,8-9 Moses pleads for God’s mercy on Mt. Sinai.

Responsorial Psalm: Daniel 3:52-56 We praise God who is exalted above all forever.

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 13:1-13 Paul urges the Corinthians to live in peace with one another and with God.

Gospel Reading: John 3:16-18 God sent his Son into the world to save the world.

This week we return to the liturgical season of Ordinary Time. This Sunday and next, however, are designated as solemnities special days that call our attention to central mysteries of our faith. Today on Trinity Sunday we celebrate the mystery of the Holy Trinity, one God in three persons. Today’s Gospel is from the beginning of John’s Gospel. The passage we read follows Jesus’ conversation with a Pharisee, Nicodemus, about what it means to be born of both water and the spirit. Nicodemus approaches Jesus at night and acknowledges Jesus as a teacher from God. Jesus tells him that only those who are born from above will see the Kingdom of God. Nicodemus misunderstands and questions how a person can be born more than once. Jesus tells Nicodemus that no one can enter the Kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. Jesus is essentially explaining Baptism, which we celebrate as a sacrament today. Yet Nicodemus, we are told, still does not understand what Jesus is saying. Jesus continues by testifying to the need to be born from above so that one might have eternal life. After the dialogue with Nicodemus, the author of the Gospel offers his own explanation of Jesus’ words. This is what we read in today’s Gospel. In the context of today’s focus on the mystery of the Holy Trinity, the reading calls our attention to the action of God, who reveals himself in three persons: God the Father, Jesus the Son, and the Holy Spirit. God the Father, out of love for the world, sent his Son into the world in order to save it. Through the death and resurrection of the Son, we have been given the gift of the Holy Spirit. As three persons, God acts always as a God of love; he does not condemn the world but acts to save it.
