REFLECTION: THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST:

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, often known as Corpus Christi, is a profound celebration of the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. It is a time for Catholics to move beyond a merely symbolic understanding of the bread and wine, recognizing them as truly transformed into the body, blood, soul, and divinity of Jesus. The feast emphasizes that Christ is not merely remembered, but present, whole and entire in the Eucharist. The Eucharist is described as the “source and summit of the Christian life,” the heart of Catholic faith and worship. Jesus said, “Anyone who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life,” indicating that the Eucharist is not just a future hope, but a present communion with God, bringing heaven to earth. Jesus took bread, blessed it, and broke it, offering his life for the world. This is not just a past event, but a present reality offered at every Mass. The feast is also a reminder to also take time in Eucharistic Adoration.

FAMILY CONNECTION

Our faith teaches us that when we gather to celebrate Mass, Jesus is present to us. The bread and wine truly become the Body and Blood of Christ. This is what we mean by the word transubstantiation: Jesus makes himself present to all who receive the Body and Blood of Christ. If there are children in your family who have already celebrated their First Holy Communion, invite them to share their memories of this special day. If there are family photos taken on this occasion, bring them out and share them together. Recall that every time we receive the Eucharist, Jesus keeps the promise he made in today’s Gospel, those who eat his flesh and drink his blood will remain forever connected to him. Family members can share what it means for them to receive Jesus in the Eucharist. Together thank God for this Gift of Holy Communion.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Deuteronomy 8:2-3,14b-16a Moses tells the people to remember how God delivered them slavery in Egypt.
Responsorial Psalm: 147:512-15,19-20 Praise God, Jerusalem!

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 10:16-17 Though many, we are one body when we partake of the Body and Blood of Christ.

Gospel Reading: John 6:51-58 Jesus says, “I am the living bread.”

This Sunday we celebrate a second solemnity during this period of Ordinary Time in the Liturgical calendar. Today is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. This day was once called Corpus Christi, which is Latin for “Body of Christ.” In the revised Lectionary the name for this day is expanded to reflect more completely our Eucharistic theology. Today’s Gospel is taken from the Gospel according to John. The reading is part of a discourse between Jesus and a crowd of Jews. The discourse comes shortly after the miracle of Jesus’ multiplication of the loaves and fishes. In John’s Gospel, miracles such as this are identified as “signs” through which people come to believe that Jesus is the Son of God. These signs are followed by dialogue, or discourse that interprets and explains the miracle. In John’s Gospel, Jesus’ multiplication of the loaves is said to have occurred near Passover, thus linking it to the Exodus story and God’s saving action toward the Israelites. Having seen Jesus multiply the loaves and fishes, the crowd pursues him. Perhaps seeking more food but also looking for another sign. Jesus tells the crowd that he is the bread of life. He explains that just as God gave the Israelites manna to sustain them in the desert, so now God has sent new manna that will give eternal life. It is in this context that Jesus repeats those words in today’s Gospel and tells them again that he is the living bread that came down from heaven. This is the mystery that is at the heart of our Eucharist theology. In the elements of bread and wine, Jesus’ Body and Blood are truly present. When we share in the Body and Blood of Christ, Jesus himself comes to dwell within us.
