REFLECTION: THIRTEENTH SUNDAY OF

ORDINARY TIME: The Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time explores the radical demands of Christian discipleship. The scriptures challenge believers to prioritize their relationship with God above all else, welcome others as if welcoming Christ, and bravely take up their cross to experience true freedom. The Gospel presents challenging words from Jesus about family ties. While honoring parents is a commandment, Jesus teaches that earthly loyalties must never take precedence over God. Discipleship requires wholehearted, undivided commitment rather than delaying faith for “something else first”. Despite the demanding cost of discipleship, the message concludes with a beautiful promise: “Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me.” Jesus elevates simple acts of kindness like offering a cup of cold water” into profound signs of divine welcome. By serving the “little ones,” we serve Christ himself.

FAMILY CONNECTION

One can tell a lot about a family by the way they welcome others into their home. Despite parental efforts to elicit the best behavior from their children, family efforts to entertain guests are sometimes difficult. Practicing a spirit of Christian hospitality within the family can be an occasion to reflect upon the importance of this virtue. A family spirit of hospitality is a sign of faith. When your family gathers, ask each person to consider the following questions about manners: What does it mean to be a good host? What does it mean to be a good guest? Invite each person to share their thoughts and experiences about being a guest or a host. Jesus tells us that as his disciples, we are to welcome others with the same spirit of love and friendship. Read aloud today's Gospel and pray today's Psalm.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: 2 Kings 4:8-11,14-16a Hospitality extended to Elisha will be rewarded.

Responsorial Psalm: 89:2-3,16-19 Sing God's praises forever.

Second Reading: Romans 6:3-4,8-11 Through Christ we are dead to sin but alive in God.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 10:37-42 Jesus outlines the costs and rewards of discipleship.

Today's Gospel is the conclusion of the instructions and consolations that we have heard Jesus offering to his disciples during the past few weeks. In this passage, Jesus summarizes both the costs of discipleship and its rewards. Once again our understanding of the Gospel is strengthened by considering the context in which it was written and the perspective of Matthew's audience. The conditions of discipleship outlined in the Gospel may appear harsh. Yet they underline for us a truth choosing anything with one's whole heart has consequences. Choosing life with Christ means that every relationship we have must be understood from a new perspective. For many in Matthew's community, this choice brought division to their family. Matthew also outlines the reward of hospitality offered to Jesus' followers. In today's Gospel, Jesus explains the difficulties of discipleship, yet reveals that those who welcome the disciples have also welcomed him. It also highlights for us the importance of hospitality in the Christian life. To welcome another in Jesus' name is to extend hospitality to Jesus himself. We have many opportunities in our daily life to reach out to others, to be a welcoming presence and a sign of God's love. As disciples of Jesus, we are to love Jesus with our whole hearts and we are to welcome, or receive, others with love, friendship, and generosity. When we choose to be loving and welcoming, we are showing our love for Jesus and for all people. Jesus says some difficult things at the beginning of this Gospel; "We cannot love any person more than Jesus; to follow Jesus means we must take up our cross." This Gospel helps us to understand that when we choose to follow Jesus we might face some crossroads.
