REFLECTION: SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY OF

ORDINARY TIME: The Seventeenth Sunday focuses on the ultimate value of God’s Kingdom. Through the Gospel parables of the hidden treasure and the pearl of great price, it challenges believers to make serving God their absolute, joyful priority, while the Responsorial Psalm reflects on delighting in His law. The merchant in the Gospel didn’t just buy a nice pearl; he liquidated his entire life’s inventory to obtain it. The reflection asks: What holds us back from giving our all to God? Like Solomon, we are given the free will to choose what we value most. True spiritual wisdom allows us to recognize the unmatched worth of God’s grace over earthly pursuits. The Sunday’s liturgy invites a reassessment of daily priorities. It encourages the faithful to focus on heavenly treasures that do not fade, trusting in God’s overarching plan as highlighted by Paul. Jesus shares the parables of the Hidden Treasure and the Pearl of Great Price. The Kingdom of Heaven is worth any sacrifice.

FAMILY CONNECTION

Like the person who found the buried treasure and the merchant who acquired the pearl of great price, we seek to find the signs of the kingdom of heaven in our lives. In fact, we even work to bring about God's kingdom in our actions and in our words. We pray that our family values reflect our pursuit of the kingdom of heaven. As Jesus' disciples, we place everything we value in the service of the pursuit of the Kingdom of God. As you gather as a family, talk about what your family values. Make a list together of those things that your family considers most important, such as family, friends, faith, trust and love. Place this list before you as you read today's Gospel. In these parables Jesus teaches us that it is worth giving up even valuable things in order to possess the kingdom of heaven.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: 1 Kings 3:5,7-12 Solomon pleases God when he asks for a wise and understanding heart to better govern the people.

Responsorial Psalm: 119:57,72,76-77,127-130 The law of the Lord is more precious than silver and gold.

Second Reading: Romans 8:28-30 God chose us to be conformed to the image of his Son.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 13:44-52 Jesus teaches about the Kingdom of Heaven.

Today's Gospel concludes three weeks of readings from the 13th Chapter of Matthew's Gospel. Throughout these three weeks we have heard Jesus teaching crowds about the kingdom of heaven, and we have heard Jesus interpret some of his teachings for the disciples. In this week's Gospel, Jesus offers three more short parables. The first two parables describe the great value of the kingdom of heaven. In the first parable, Jesus says that the kingdom of heaven is like a buried treasure that is worth possessing even if it means giving up everything else. In the second parable, Jesus proposes that the kingdom of heaven is like a pearl of great worth for which one will sell everything else to possess. These parables teach us that we are to place everything we value in the service of the pursuit of the Kingdom of God. The third parable that Jesus purposes in today's Gospel is different from the first two, but it is reminiscent of the parable of the Sower heard in last week's Gospel. The kingdom of heaven is compared to fishing with a wide net. After the fish have been collected, the good fish are kept and the bad fish are thrown away; so too, in the final judgement, will the wicked and the righteous be separated. Today's Gospel concludes with a curious statement about the scribe who understands the kingdom of heaven. Here a metaphor is offered: this scribe is like the head of a household who "brings from his storeroom both the new and the old." The scribes referred to here are experts of Mosaic law. It is possible that Jesus is here instructing the early Christian community on how to proceed in the interpretation of Jewish law with respect to Jesus' "new" teaching.
