REFLECTION: EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY OF

ORDINARY TIME: Today’s Gospel passage reveals that God was able to take something very small. Five loaves of bread and two fish, and transform them into enough food to feed tens of thousands of people. This story is not only a miracle for the purpose of providing the necessary food for the crowd who came to listen to Jesus in a deserted place, its also a sign to us of the power of God to transform our daily offerings into exponential blessings for the world. Our goal must not be to determine what we want God to do with our offering; rather, our goal must be to make the offering of all we are and all we have and leave the transformation to God. Sometimes our offering may be small. It may seem like what we offer will have no benefit. What can God do with this? The same question could have been asked by those with the loaves and fishes. But look what Jesus did for them. Reflect today on small offering, small sacrifices and small acts of love and forgiveness. Make the offerings and leave the rest to God.

In our family life we can sometimes hear echoes of the disciples' excuses: "Five loaves and two fish are all we have here." Sometimes this echo is heard from children squabbling about the last piece of cake. Sometimes it is heard in our concern about the limits of the family's income or possessions. Sometimes this echo is heard in our complaint. Jesus understood these feelings and taught us to see beyond our limitations. Jesus modeled for us a compassion that reaches out to others, even when we would rather withdraw into ourselves. Jesus taught us that God blesses compassion offered to others with his grace. Today's Gospel reminds us that with God there is not only enough, there is an abundance! Pray that Jesus will grant us compassion and generosity like His so that we will offer whatever we have to others.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: Isaiah 55:1-3 The Lord provides for his people.

Responsorial Psalm: 145:8-9,15-18 The Lord provides for his people.

Second Reading: Romans 8:35,37-39 Nothing can separate us from the love of God.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 14:13-21 Jesus feeds the crowd with five loaves and two fish.

Today we jump ahead in our reading of Matthew's Gospel to Chapter 14. Last week we heard Jesus conclude his discourse with the crowds about the Kingdom of Heaven. In Matthew's narrative, Jesus then leaves the crowds and returns to Nazareth, where he is rejected. Matthew then recounts the story of John the Baptist's arrest and execution at the hands of Herod. Today's Gospel reading begins at this point. Upon hearing the news of the death of John the Baptist, Jesus seeks to withdraw, but the crowds follow him. Jesus reaches out to them in compassion and heals the sick. At the end of a long day, the disciples encourage Jesus to send the crowds away so that they might find provisions for themselves. Jesus again responds with compassion for the crowd. Jesus tells his disciples to provide food for the crowd. The disciples reply with a report of the meagerness of their own provisions five loaves and two fish. The result is the very familiar miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and fish. Matthew's Gospel tells us that 5,000 men were fed, and this number does not even include the women and children. Jesus' blessing brought abundance from the meager provisions of the disciples. In this action, Jesus offers us a sign of the Kingdom of Heaven. A feast results from the smallest of portions, remember the mustard seed and the yeast. In this miracle we witness an example for Christian life and ministry. Even the smallest of offerings can produce abundant results when placed in the service of the Kingdom of Heaven. The story of this miracle is an anticipation of the Eucharist in which we are fed by the abundant grace of God. The importance of the Eucharist has been a defining element of Christian Life from the beginning.
