REFLECTION: NINETEENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME:

Today’s Gospel centers on overcoming fear and trusting in God amidst life’s violent storms. The readings challenge us to recognize Christ’s reassuring presence in our darkest moments and to step out in faith when He calls us. It is easy to look for God in grand, loud, or spectacular moments. However, just like Elijah, we are often meant to look for Him in the quiet, gentle promptings of our conscience and prayer. Peter’s initial courage in stepping out of the boat shows a deep desire to be close to Jesus. When we feel overwhelmed by the “winds and waves” of our own lives, whether that means financial struggles, health worries, or personal loss, we are called to keep our eyes on Christ rather than the storm. When Peter took his eyes off Jesus and began to sink, he did not rely on his own pride, he simply prayed, “Lord, save me!” This reminds us that it is okay to ask for help when we are struggling to stay afloat. Jesus is always reaching out to steady us.

The mission of the Church is to continue the work of Jesus. The family, the domestic church, participates in this mission too. Talk about how your family participates in the mission of the Church. Discuss ways in which you seek to reach out to your neighbors and people in need through acts of kindness, mercy, and justice. Then read together today's Gospel. Talk about how Peter wanted to be like Jesus, to walk on water like Jesus did. Note that Peter was successful for a time, but then he doubted Jesus, and he began to sink into the water. Talk about how your family's acts of mercy and justice are rooted in your faith in Jesus. Pray together that Jesus will continue to work through your family to prepare the Kingdom of Heaven. Pray together the Lord's Prayer.

SUNDAY GOSPEL REFLECTION

First Reading: 1 Kings 19:9a,11-13a The Lord appears to Elijah in a whisper.

Responsorial Psalm: 85:9-14 The Lord is the source of salvation.

Second Reading: Romans 9:1-5 Paul speaks of the blessings that have come to the Israelites.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 14:22-33 Jesus walks on water, and the disciples acknowledge him as the Son of God. Today's Gospel directly follows last week's account of Jesus feeding a crowd of more than 5,000 people with just five loaves of bread and two fish. For the sake of the crowds, Jesus has postponed his time of solitude. Now, at last, Jesus finds some time for quiet and prayer. He sends his disciples ahead of him by boat, dismisses the crowds, and then withdraws to the mountain to pray. The disciples struggle to weather the wind and waves, making little progress in their journey. We are reminded of a previous story, when Jesus calms the seas. This time, Jesus does not calm the seas, and the disciples do not express fear until they see Jesus walking toward them on the water. In this story it is not the storm that is feared but the sight of Jesus before them, whom they mistake for a ghost. Clues like these suggest that this story is about the disciples' growing understanding of the identity of Jesus. Last week's Gospel highlights the feeding of the multitude, today's Gospel is also about what the disciples' faith in Jesus will enable them to do. In last week's Gospel, when the disciples see the crowds, they ask Jesus to send the crowds away. Jesus turns the situation around, telling the disciples to feed the crowd with the provisions that they have. Both of these Gospels tell us much about ministry. Jesus calls to the disciples and calms their fears. He is not a ghost. The impulsive Peter seeks proof that the person is indeed Jesus. He asks Jesus to call him out onto the water, and Jesus grants this request. Peter's fear and doubt overtake him, however, once he is walking on the water. Jesus reaches out to Peter and saves him. When Jesus and Peter enter the boat, Matthew reports that the wind ceases, and the disciples confess that Jesus is the Son of God.
