FOOD FOR FAITH LIVING FROM THE DESK OF FR. MARK

Today's readings invite reflection, soul-searching, honesty and the gratitude resulting when we grasp a meaning and fulfill a purpose as God desires us to freely do. God neither commands nor coerces, but asks for trust in heeding God's Words of life, love, mercy, compassion, justice, reconciliation, forgiveness and peace. Such trust is faith realized, lived and the source of our hope in facing the realities of daily life which often contradict, reject and threaten life, the violences which refuse God's invitation to fulfillment, harmony, unity and life-unending peace.

Each generation is faced with this freedom to choose. In Scripture, every message and messenger of God arouses people to not be afraid to heed God. In Joshua (1st. rd.) he voices his intent to be faithful to God as many listeners bickered and complained about conditions. Reminded of God's great acts in their lives, they resolve, "We will serve the Lord, for He is our God." This response will be ours when we sincerely and honestly reflect of God's Love for and to us.

It all centers on understanding the life-giving power of love and its genuine expression is in blessing others with this capacity we possess. St Paul (2nd rd.) goes to the heart of this truth reminding us of our treasure found in loving each other in relationships of great value. Marriage and family is where the greater majority find this truth which deepens their conviction to believe in God Who loves us unconditionally and faithfully. God's Truth means we will fulfill our lives by giving ourselves to each other, a risk, which hindsight, proves to be true. Hoarding life for self is another choice many make. These cannot build community or establish a healthy society. There is neither a desirer nor concern for the well-being of others of seeking the common good of all. It is as simple and sad, demanding and challenging, as finding out the true meaning of freedom is a truth which sets us free!

It is the truth of Jesus, "I am the Bread of Life," which many found hard to accept and follow like many other life-giving Words He offered to us. Our response is personal, private and intimate. May it be the same as the Twelve express (Gospel today), "You (Jesus) have the words of eternal life. We believe You are the Holy One of God!" an inner joy and peace comes to us when we freely live what we proclaim to believe!

2022 MASS BOOK OPENS SEPTEMBER 13TH Due to the high volume of Masses requested in 2021, we have to ask that you keep your Masses to 6 (six) per year. Please put your parents or families together for one Mass. Also, the donation, if possible, should be received in the office in order to honor your intentions. We ask that you take one Saturday and/ or one Sunday and the rest of your Masses during the week. We have a lot of funerals and we need to have Mass Intentions for people who desire them. We also ask that if you have an intention for a loved one, that you try to be here for that Mass, if you are able.

Novena Prayer to St. Rocco

O Great St. Rocco, deliver us, we beseech thee, from contagious diseases, through thy intercession, preserve our bodies from illness, and our souls from the contagion of sin. Obtain for us salubrious air; but, above all, purity of heart. Assist us to make good use of health, to bear suffering with patience; and, after thy example, to live in the practice of penance and charity, that we may one day enjoy the happiness which thou has merited by thy virtues.
St. Rocco, pray for us (say three times)

Saint Rocco or Roch was a Catholic saint, a confessor whose death is commemorated on August 16, he is specially invoked against the plague.

Pray the Novena to St. Rocco 3 times
