Bulletin Reflection for Sunday, January 16, 2022

The first reading from Isaiah prepares us wonderfully to celebrate the miracle of Cana and the sanctity of marriage "... you shall be called "My Delight," and your land "Espoused." For the Lord delights in you and makes your land his spouse. As a young man marries a virgin, your Builder shall marry you; and as a bridegroom rejoices in his bride so shall your God rejoice in you.

This clearly confirms for us that Christ is the bridegroom, and the Church is the bride. There are many scriptural references to this theme.

In the Gospel of John, Mary lets Jesus know that the wedding couple has run out of wine and Jesus says to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." This command to the servers on the part of Mary has echoed and re-echoed down through the centuries. Powerful words! Every word and action of Christ was to do the will of the Father, and so it was and is with Mary.

If we can believe Jesus turned water into wine at the wedding of Cana, why should it be difficult to believe that He can change wine into His body and blood? The day He was conceived in Mary's womb, the angel Gabriel said..." for nothing shall be impossible for God!"

When my husband experienced conversion and was told about the Eucharist, he said, "If Jesus said it, I believe it!" It should be that simple for all of us. Spend time in Adoration with the Blessed Sacrament and your faith will be strengthened.

Mrs. Peggy Brechtel, OP

a primera lectura de Isaías nos prepara maravillosamente para celebrar el milagro de Caná y la santidad del matrimonio"... serás llamado "Mi Deleite", y tu tierra "Abrazada". Porque el Señor se deleita en ti y hace de tu tierra su esposa. Cuando un joven se case con una virgen, tu Constructor se casará contigo; y así como un novio se regocija en su novia, así también tu Dios se regocijará en ti.

Esto nos confirma claramente que Cristo es el novio, y la Iglesia es la novia. Hay muchas referencias bíblicas a este tema. En el Evangelio de Juan, María le hace saber a Jesús que la pareja de novios se ha quedado sin vino y Jesús le dice: "Mujer, ¿cómo me afecta tu preocupación? Mi hora aún no ha llegado". Su madre dijo a los servidores: "Hagan lo que él les diga". Este mandato a los servidores por parte de María ha resonado y resonado a través de los siglos. ¡Palabras poderosas! Cada palabra y acción de Cristo era hacer la voluntad del Padre, y así fue y es con María.

Si podemos creer que Jesús convirtió el agua en vino en las bodas de Caná, ¿por qué debería ser difícil creer que Él puede cambiar el vino en Su cuerpo y sangre? El día que fue concebido en el vientre de María, el ángel Gabriel dijo... "¡porque nada será imposible para Dios!"

Cuando mi esposo experimentó la conversión y se le habló de la Eucaristía, dijo: "¡Si Jesús lo dijo, yo lo creo!" Debería ser así de simple para todos nosotros. Pasa tiempo en Adoración con el Santísimo Sacramento y tu fe se fortalecerá.

Sra. Peggy Brechtel, OP
