THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST
CORPUS CHRISTI

On this Feast of Corpus Christi, we celebrate the profound gift of the Eucharist – the Body and Blood of Christ, truly present among us. More than just a symbol, the Eucharist is a tangible, edible reality of God’s abiding love and presence in our lives. It is the very source and summit of our Christian faith, drawing us into an intimate communion with our Lord.

Think for a moment about the incredible humility of God, choosing to remain with us in such a humble form. Every time we receive Holy Communion, we are not just remembering an event; we are participating in it. We are nourished, strengthened, and transformed by Christ himself, becoming more fully His body in the world.

This feast calls us not only to adore Christ in the Eucharist but also to become Christ for others. Just as the broken bread is shared, so too are we called to share ourselves, to be agents of God's love and compassion in our homes, workplaces, and communities. The procession on Corpus Christi is a beautiful public witness to our faith, a declaration that Christ walks among us, accompanying us on our journey.

As we reflect on this incredible mystery, how does receiving the Body and Blood of Christ empower us to be living reflections of His love in the world today?

En esta Fiesta del Corpus Christi, celebramos el profundo don de la Eucaristía – el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo, verdaderamente presentes entre nosotros. Más que un simple símbolo, la Eucaristía es una realidad tangible y comestible del amor y la presencia permanente de Dios en nuestras vidas. Es la fuente y la cumbre de nuestra fe cristiana, que nos acerca a una íntima comunión con nuestro Señor.

Piensa por un momento en la increíble humildad de Dios, eligiendo permanecer con nosotros de una forma tan sencilla. Cada vez que recibimos la Sagrada Comunión, no solo estamos recordando un evento; estamos participando en él. Somos nutridos, fortalecidos y transformados por Cristo mismo, llegando a ser más plenamente Su cuerpo en el mundo.

Esta fiesta nos llama no solo a adorar a Cristo en la Eucaristía, sino también a convertirnos en Cristo para los demás. Así como el pan partido es compartido, también nosotros estamos llamados a compartirnos, a ser agentes del amor y la compasión de Dios en nuestros hogares, lugares de trabajo y comunidades. La procesión del Corpus Christi es un hermoso testimonio público de nuestra fe, una declaración de que Cristo camina entre nosotros, acompañándonos en nuestro camino.

Mientras reflexionamos sobre este increíble misterio, ¿cómo nos capacita la recepción del Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo para ser reflejos vivos de Su amor en el mundo de hoy?

REFLECTION

We all know that person, don't we? Hey, maybe we've even been that person.

"I have a great relationship with God, but I don't go to church regularly. God and I are on good terms. I can talk to Him just fine on my own."

There isn't anything false in these statements. It's important to have an intimate, even conversational prayer relationship with God. But the problem with this attitude is that it implies that churches don't matter. Community worship doesn't matter. Today, we are reminded exactly why that is so untrue. Why we need our parishes, our priests, and each other.

The Body and Blood of Christ — that's what it's all about. If it's not about that, it's not about anything. If we don't have the Eucharist, we're just like the ancient priests, making sacrifices that don't have the power to redeem anybody.

Where do we receive the Body and Blood of Christ? For most of us, it's in our parishes. The altar of sacrifice is also the table we gather in front of, as a family, to become one with Christ in the truest and realest way possible, recreating the scene in the Upper Room over and over again every time Mass is celebrated.

The disciples were commissioned by Christ to prepare the Upper Room for the Last Supper. How can we take up that work ourselves? How can we strengthen the bonds in our spiritual family?
