SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSIS CATHOLIC CHURCH (LLC Series 221) MAY 3, 2026

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER/QUINTO DOMINGO DE PASCUA

On this Fifth Sunday of Easter, the Gospel of John brings us into the intimate setting of the Last Supper. The Apostles are anxious; Jesus has spoken of his departure, and their hearts are troubled. In response to their confusion, Jesus offers one of the most profound revelations of His identity: "I am the way and the truth and the life." To the modern ear, this claim can sound exclusive or even daunting, yet Jesus is not providing a map with complex directions; He is providing Himself.

As the Way, He is the bridge between our humanity and the Father's divinity. Following Him is not about adhering to a rigid set of rules, but rather walking a path of relationship. As the Truth, He stands as the bedrock of reality in a world of shifting opinions. To know Him is to know the heart of God. As the Life, He offers more than mere existence; He offers the fullness of grace that begins now and stretches into eternity.

St. Peter reminds us in the second reading that we are "living stones," being built into a spiritual house. We are not meant to wander aimlessly. When Philip asks to "see the Father," Jesus gently points out that God has been standing right in front of them all along. As we continue our Easter journey, let us ask ourselves where our hearts are most troubled and bring those anxieties to the One who is the Way. By fixing our eyes on Him, we find that the destination is not a place, but a Person.

En este Quinto Domingo de Pascua, el Evangelio de Juan nos introduce en la intimidad de la Última Cena. Los apóstoles están inquietos; Jesús ha hablado de su partida y sus corazones están "turbados". Ante su confusión, Jesús ofrece una de las revelaciones más profundas de su identidad: "Yo soy el camino, la verdad y la vida".

Para el mundo moderno, esta afirmación puede sonar excluyente, pero Jesús no está entregando un mapa con instrucciones complejas; se está entregando a sí mismo. Como el Camino, Él es el puente entre nuestra humanidad y la divinidad del Padre. Seguirlo no consiste en cumplir reglas rígidas, sino en recorrer un sendero de relación personal. Como la Verdad, Cristo es el cimiento de la realidad en un mundo de opiniones cambiantes. Conocerlo a Él es conocer el corazón de Dios. Como la Vida, nos ofrece más que una existencia biológica; nos regala la plenitud de la gracia que comienza hoy y se extiende hasta la eternidad.

San Pedro nos recuerda en la segunda lectura que somos "piedras vivas", llamadas a construir una casa espiritual. No estamos destinados a vagar sin rumbo. Cuando Felipe pide "ver al Padre", Jesús le señala que Dios ha estado frente a ellos todo el tiempo. Al continuar nuestro camino pascual, llevemos nuestras ansiedades a Aquel que es el Camino, confiando en que el destino final no es un lugar, sino una Persona.
