SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI CATHOLIC CHURCH (LLC Series 221) MAY 10, 2026

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER/ SEXTO DOMINGO DE PASCUA

On this Sixth Sunday of Easter, we find ourselves in a "liminal" space—the period between the Resurrection and the Ascension. The initial shock of the empty tomb has settled, and the disciples are beginning to wonder: How do we live in a world where Jesus is no longer physically walking beside us?

In today's Gospel, Jesus provides the answer by promising the Advocate, the Holy Spirit. He uses a phrase that is both haunting and comforting: "I will not leave you orphans." Jesus connects our love for Him directly to our actions. "If you love me, you will keep my commandments." This isn't about rigid legalism; it's about a relationship. Just as we naturally want to please those we love, our obedience to Christ is the outward sign of an inward devotion. It is through this obedience that we remain "in" Him.

In the second reading, Peter tells us to "always be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope." Hope is not optimism. Optimism is a feeling that things will turn out well. Hope is a theological virtue. It is the grounded confidence that God is faithful, even when the world feels chaotic.

As Christians, our "reason for hope" is the presence of the Holy Spirit—the Paraclete who stands by our side as a defense attorney and a comforter.

This week, let us ask ourselves: Does our lives look different enough that someone would actually ask us about our hope? When we treat others with "gentleness and reverence," as Peter suggests, we become a living homily. We prove that while Jesus has ascended, He is far from absent. He lives on through the Spirit, and through us.

En este sexto domingo de Pascua, nos situamos en un tiempo de espera y maduración, habitando ese espacio sagrado entre la Resurrección y la Ascensión. Tras la conmoción inicial de la Pascua, surge en el corazón de los discípulos una inquietud profunda: ¿cómo sostener la fe cuando la presencia física del Maestro parece desvanecerse? Jesús, conociendo nuestra fragilidad, responde con una promesa transformadora: no nos dejará huérfanos, sino que enviará al Paráclito, el Espíritu de la Verdad, para que habite permanentemente en nosotros.

El Señor establece una conexión inseparable entre el afecto y la acción al decir: «Si me amáis, guardad mis mandamientos». No nos llama a una obediencia servil o temerosa, sino a una fidelidad que brota del amor. Cumplir su palabra es la manera en que permitimos que Dios haga su morada en nuestra vida cotidiana. Es esta comunión íntima la que nos permite cumplir el mandato de San Pedro: estar siempre listos para dar razón de nuestra esperanza ante el mundo.

Nuestra esperanza no es un optimismo superficial, sino la certeza de que Cristo vive y actúa a través de su Espíritu. Estamos llamados a dar este testimonio no con arrogancia, sino con la dulzura y el respeto que nacen de saberse amados. Al vivir con esa paz que el mundo no puede dar, nos convertimos en un reflejo del Resucitado, demostrando que su partida fue solo el inicio de una presencia mucho más profunda y universal.
