THE NATIVITY OF THE LORD

And the Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us,
and we saw his glory,
the glory as of the Father's only Son,
full of grace and truth.
- Jn 1:14

Y aquel que es la Palabra se hizo hombre
y habitó entre nosotros.
Hemos visto su gloria,
gloria que le corresponde como a Unigénito del Padre, lleno de gracia y de verdad.
- Jn 1, 14

MASS OBLIGATIONS

At this time, NO ONE IS OBLIGED TO RETURN TO PUBLIC MASS. Bishop Wall recognizes that public activity at this time, even worship, is a calculated risk, and he has NOT reinstated the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation. IF YOU ARE ILL, NOT FEELING WELL, OR ARE PARTICULARLY AT-RISK, we ask you to remain at home for your own good and the good of your neighbor. We continue praying for an end to this pandemic and the time when we can return to full Parish operations.

PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING VERY CAREFULLY.

We encourage the faithful to return to celebrate Mass in person. However, the dispensation for attendance at Sunday Mass continues for those who do not yet feel safe to return to public gatherings.

The most recent safety advice:

- * Vaccinated persons are free to assemble without masks or distancing.
- * Unvaccinated persons are need to wear masks and maintain safe distance from others.
- * Reminder not to come to Mass or work if one is ill.
- * Maintain good hand hygiene after exposure to public places.
- * In very crowded public locations, facial covering should be considered by all.

PLEASE WEAR A FACEMASK WHILE IN THE CHURCH AND KEEP YOUR DISTANCE IF YOU HAVE NOT BEEN VACCINATED OR ARE FEELING ILL.

Thank you, Lord, for the Holy Mass!

A papal telegram conveyed by Cardinal Pietro Parolin, Vatican secretary of state, said Pope Francis "was saddened to learn of the devastating impact of the tornadoes" in the Midwest and the South.

"He offers heartfelt prayers that almighty God will grant eternal peace to those who have died, comfort to those who mourn their loss, and strength to all those affected by this immense tragedy," it said.

"With gratitude for the tireless efforts of the rescue workers and all engaged in caring for the injured, the grieving families and those left homeless, Pope Francis invokes upon all engaged in the massive work of relief and rebuilding the Lord's gifts of strength and generous perseverance in the service of their brothers and sisters," said the telegram, which Cardinal Parolin sent to Archbishop Christophe Pierre, the apostolic nuncio in the U.S.

Archbishop José H. Gomez of Los Angeles, president of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, and Archbishop Paul S. Coakley of Oklahoma City, chairman of the USCCB's Committee on Domestic Justice and Human Development, said the destruction and devastation was "heartbreaking" and called for prayer and assistance for all those who were in the path of the storms.

"During this Advent season where we await in joyful anticipation for the birth of our Lord, we pray for those who have been injured, for those who have lost their lives, and for their grieving families and communities," said Archbishops Gomez and Coakley. "May those who have been impacted by these storms find peace, comfort and hope in our faith and in God's endless love.

"We also pray for the emergency responders and those who have begun the work of providing for the needs of the impacted in these communities in the recovery efforts," they said in a statement issued late Dec. 11. "We entrust all our brothers and sisters in harm's way to our Blessed Mother, and we ask for her continued protection and for her intercession in comforting those who are suffering."

The two prelates urged Catholics and all people of goodwill to donate to recovery efforts and financial help for tornado victims by supporting the work of Catholic Charities USA: <https://www.catholiccharities.us/campaign/ccusa-disaster-relief/c353051>.

Dear God, rest your hands on recovery efforts in the Kentucky communities. Let all people find relief and healing in you. Amen.

Celebrating the Octave of Christmas

Posted by: liturgicalyear | December 24, 2010

<https://liturgicalyear.wordpress.com/2010/12/24/celebrating-the-octave-of-christmas/>

An octave, from a musical point of view means eight notes: do-re-mi-fa-so-la-ti-do. From a Church point of view, it means eight days. Beginning on Christmas day, the Church celebrates the Octave of Christmas. Why would we celebrate an octave at Christmas time and why eight days and not seven?

In the Old Testament, circumcision was sign of the covenant between God and Abraham, and thus between God and the Jewish people. The oath of this covenant was sealed by the act and sign of circumcision. It was on the eighth day that this important event took place.

From this we extract the concept of the octave: eight days. Three primary octaves reside on the Church calendar: Christmas, Easter, and Pentecost. The earliest known celebration of an octave comes from the times of Constantine when the churches of Tyre and Jerusalem were dedicated in imitation of the dedication of the Jewish Temple which lasted eight days.

The Octave of Christmas is celebrated from Christmas day to January 1st, the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God. Many see this as "just another feast day". In fact, some grumble about it as an inconvenient feast day because it falls on New Year's day – a holy day of obligation following a night of revelry and staying up way past bedtime. But this feast day marks an important clarification of the doctrine of Christ's divinity and humanity.

The celebration of Mary, Mother of God, brought division to the Church. The Patriarch Nestorius strongly objected to her holding this title. He insisted that she was only the mother of Jesus' human nature and not His divine. The root of this disagreement wasn't so much a disagreement about Mary as it was about the nature of Christ, as is true of most Marian controversies. This disagreement gave rise to the heresy of Nestorianism: that Jesus has two divided natures, one human and one divine. A schism in the church resulted. The First Council of Ephesus in 431 and the Council of Chalcedon in 451 upheld the teaching of Mary as Theotokos, the God bearer, the Mother of God. We take for granted the hypostatic union – that Jesus is fully human and fully divine in one person – but a painful process brought the Church to this understanding which we hold today. Being that His one person embodies His two natures, and Mary as his mother gave birth to the whole, undivided person, it follows that she is indeed the mother of God. (for a succinct article about this controversy, click here.)

Therefore, the Octave of Christmas propels us forward to an important feast. It points to a Christological doctrine which affirms Christ's nature and personhood and Mary's role as Mother of God. The octave's primary observation is by celebrating daily Mass in thanksgiving for Christ, with the gospel readings centered around the incarnation and the early years of Jesus' life. The wisdom of the Church begins the octave with the birth of Jesus and ends it on the eighth day with the veneration of Mary's role in the incarnation.

I invite you, as we approach the Feast of the Nativity of Our Lord, to consider extending the feast throughout the octave by rejoicing in the Incarnation, the coming of God as man – fully human and fully divine in the person of Jesus Christ – and the role of a lowly handmaid in His plan.

May love of Jesus take deep birth in your hearts on the feast of His nativity and may God hold you and those you love in the palm of His hand, Anne

Just in case you might like to know the schedule for this year's octave. The following feasts fall within the octave:

Dec 25: Christmas
Dec 26: Feast of the Holy Family
Dec 27: Feast of St. John the Apostle and Evangelist
Dec 28: Feast of the Holy Innocents, martyrs
Jan 1: Octave day of the Nativity, Solemnity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God
