Pentecost Sunday

Even though Pentecost is rightly celebrated in late spring, the robust experience of a New England fall can provide a profound metaphor for reflection. A full expression of fall colors is beautiful to behold. But, with all of its majesty and beauty, the observer knows the experience of death is soon to come. Creation will be dark and barren for a while. Pentecost cannot be separated from the cross. Before God's transformative, life-giving power can bear fruit, we must first die.

Pentecost is all about leaving the lifeless dead wood behind and allowing God, through the power of the Holy Spirit, to create something new. These Pentecost creations happen repeatedly over and over again. The birthing process of the Church is ongoing. God is always bringing life out of death and creating something where there was once nothing. That is why the fall is such an apropos metaphorical season for Pentecost. In order to really receive the gift of the Holy Spirit we have to die to what we once knew and what no longer works.

When fire and wind find their fullest expression, they are in no way gentle nor kind. They have the potential to level anything in their paths. We are experiencing great turmoil in our world, nation, and our Church. Whether the result of circumstance or the work of the Holy Spirit, much of what we knew to be normal and constant is changing. Common systems and institutional structures that may have worked for a time no longer do. When the old and familiar need to be left behind, God creates something new.

Change and disorder do not need to be our enemies. They always bring opportunities for something exciting and new. What we need is untiring faith, firm hope, and perfect love.

What we need is for the Holy Spirit to enlighten us to see what is important and what we must do. "O Holy Spirit, descend plentifully into my heart. Enlighten the dark corners of this neglected dwelling and scatter there Thy cheerful beams." (St. Augustine) If we experience joy, even in the midst of turbulence, then we will know we are exactly where God needs us to be. If not, then perhaps there is a lesson in the decaying leaves that graciously descend to the ground on a crisp fall day.

Domingo de Pentecostés

Con la Solemnidad de Pentecostés, concluye el tiempo de la Pascua.

Tiempo de gozo y alegría en el Señor Resucitado. Hoy, la Iglesia entera se llena de alegría con Pentecostés. Recordemos que, el Espíritu Santo es un don dado a la Iglesia por el Resucitado. "El espíritu del Señor ha llenado toda la tierra; él da unidad a todas las cosas y se hace comprender en todas las lenguas" (Sabiduría 1:7). Todos quedaron llenos del Espíritu Santo y comenzaron a hablar las maravillas de aquel acontecimiento, lo sorprendente es que todos se entendían. ¡Vaya regalo tan grande para todos nosotros, el don del Espíritu Santo!

"El Espíritu Santo es el don pascual por excelencia. Con la unción del Espíritu, la santidad de Jesucristo se imprime en nuestra humanidad y nos hace capaces de amar a los hermanos con el mismo amor con que Dios nos ama. Y, finalmente, el Espíritu envía. Jesús es el Enviado, lleno del Espíritu Santo del Padre. Ungidos por el mismo Espíritu, también nosotros somos enviados como mensajeros y testigos de paz. ¡Cuánta necesidad tiene el mundo de nosotros como mensajeros de paz, como testigos de paz!" (Papa Francisco). Señor, como tus discípulos, también nosotros deseamos tu paz, ellos estaban intranquilos por tu muerte en la cruz. Tuvieron que esperar hasta Pentecostés para encontrar la paz en sus corazones. Queremos vivir en tu paz y en tu amor. Viviendo nuestra fe aferrados a tu amor. "Ven, luz santificadora, y entra hasta el fondo del alma de todos los que te adoran. Concede a aquellos que ponen en ti su fe y su confianza tus siete sagrados dones" (Tomado de la secuencia al Espíritu Santo).

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

If you are married, I'm guessing that you know the best way to break bad news to your spouse, whether you realize it or not. Maybe it's simply that you know not to talk about the budget after your wife's football team has lost. Maybe you know your husband will take the news that your sister is coming to stay a little easier if you tell him over his favorite dinner. We do the same thing with our children, our friends, our coworkers — we have all learned the language of the people we love.

The truth is the same in every language, but it's important for us to convey that truth graciously. That's what Pentecost teaches us. The gift of being able to speak in tongues afforded the Apostles a practical skill to spread the Gospel message, but it also served as a powerful symbol of the importance of effective communication. Evangelization can only happen when you're speaking in words a person is able, ready, and willing to hear.

Let's ask ourselves: what is the language we need to speak to share the truth with the person who is standing in front of us? Is it the language of quality time? The language of concern? The language of laughter and friendship? The language of authenticity, of plain talk and frankness?

The Holy Spirit gave the Apostles the ability to speak in tongues, and it seems miraculous when we read about it in the Gospels — but only consider that we all have this same ability, in a certain way. The Holy Spirit can and will show us how to speak the truth, if we only ask.
