15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

We can learn a great deal from Mister Rogers. Remember him? He was the gentle soul who found his way into living rooms worldwide starting as far back as 1968. Mister Rogers' Neighborhood was a beloved program that celebrated and exalted people, especially children. He taught us that we are neighbors and that everyone has a place. Everyone matters. He had a vision, born of his relationship with God that highlighted every human life's innocence, beauty, and uniqueness. To that end, he called us to be responsible for each other, saying nothing different than what Jesus said. Viewers quickly learned that life is not just about me.

"We live in a world in which we need to share responsibility. It's easy to say, 'It's not my child, not my community, not my world, not my problem.' Then there are those who see the need and respond. I consider those people my heroes (Fred Rogers)." It is so easy to look the other way. After all, I'm not the one who needs to leave home out of fear and try to find somewhere safe. I am not the one who is hungry and without shelter or food. I am not the one who has a child being bullied or ridiculed because of the way they dress or act. I am not the one being threatened with violence or unable to find meaningful work. The distress and agony of our neighbors are our distress and agony. We cannot walk by it with an attitude of indifference, especially if we call ourselves believers. When we no longer care, we have suffocated our souls. This is a great sin.

God's law "is something very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts; you have only to carry it out." We all have a need for love and acceptance. That's why Mister Rogers' television show was so popular. It spoke to something deeper, something sacred about humanity. God didn't give us his law in a book. He wrote it on our hearts. We know what we need to do. It's a matter of choice. Love is sacred. When we love another human being, especially without regard for ourselves, it is a holy moment. These moments are often missed due to our self-serving agendas and rules.

15º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Así es, Dios nunca nos pide algo que no podamos hacer. Nuestras manos y corazón están a la medida de lo que se debe de hacer. Aunque, a veces se sienta que no se puede pasar por la experiencia que se vive, Dios da la fuerza y se avanza, muchas veces arriesgando la propia vida. En la primera lectura de este domingo, Dios alienta al pueblo en su travesía por el desierto de la siguiente manera: "Todo lo contrario, mi palabra ha llegado bien cerca de ti; ya la tienes en la boca y sabes de memoria, y solo hace falta ponerla en práctica" (Deuteronomio 30,14); asegurando su cercanía y poniendo en práctica su fe y confianza de lo aprendido de su misma experiencia del camino.

El Papa Francisco, en una de sus tantas catequesis dominicales, nos pide asegurarnos de preguntarnos lo siguiente: ¿Nuestra fe es fecunda? ¿Nuestra fe produce obras buenas? ¿O es más bien estéril, y, por tanto, está más muerta que viva? ¿Me hago prójimo o simplemente paso de largo? La última pregunta de este perfecto examen de conciencia de este domingo del buen samaritano es la siguiente: ¿Soy de aquellos que seleccionan a la gente según su propio gusto? Y, es más, el Papa Francisco recomienda que estas preguntas nos las hagamos frecuentemente, no una vez al día, sino varias veces en la jornada del día. El buen samaritano y el posadero son los ejemplos de este Evangelio. ¿Cuál deseas imitar tú?

COLOR

Read the Gospel of the week and color the image.

GOSPEL

The Good Samaritan found a beaten man along the road. He spent a lot of time and money to take care of him. In today's time, he would have called 911 and paid the ambulance and hospital. Many people are afraid to stop to help others. If you see someone who needs help, call 911 and explain who needs help and where. Trained police and paramedics will come to help. You can pray for the person.

PRAYER

Lord, let me know when it is wise to help.

PUZZLE

Circle the picture that is different. Then color in all the pictures.

MISSION

If I see someone hurt, I will stop playing to get help.
