St. Francis of Assisi: Sign of Contradiction

From 4PM Media and The Ministry of the Wild Goose comes a breathtaking film on the life of St. Francis of Assisi. A fool according to the standards of the world, St. Francis' life was a sign of contradiction, convicting others of the beauty of Christ and his Gospel.

Misery Meets Mercy: Saint Faustina

St. Faustina is known as the "secretary of Divine Mercy" because of the revelations of the Lord to her about His unfathomable mercy. Join Dr. Ben Akers and Fr. Mateusz as they discuss her proclamation of the message of Divine Mercy.

Praying the Rosary Like Never Before by Dr. Edward Sri

In this talk, Dr. Edward Sri discusses the main tenets of his book, The New Rosary in Scripture: Biblical Insights on Praying the Twenty Mysteries. He shares Pope St. John Paul II's practical strategies for praying the Rosary better so you can encounter Jesus more deeply in prayer.

2 de Octubre de 2022 27º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Oh, si tuviéramos fe como un granito de mostaza, la vida sería completamente diferente. Seguimos, igual que los apóstoles, preguntando a Jesús sobre el aumento de la fe. Era la misma situación entonces que ahora. “La fe comparable al grano de mostaza es una fe que no es orgullosa ni segura de sí misma, ¡no pretende ser un gran creyente haciendo el ridículo en algunas ocasiones! Es una fe en su humildad siente una gran necesidad de Dios y, en la pequeñez, se abandona con plena confianza a Él. Es la fe la que nos da la capacidad de mirar con esperanza los altibajos de la vida, la que nos ayuda a aceptar incluso las derrotas y los sufrimientos, sabiendo que el mal no tiene nunca, no tendrá nunca la última palabra” (Papa Francisco).

Crecer en la fe es cosa de dos, Dios y tú. Se crece en la fe con la oración personal, seguida de buenas obras. Seguramente, si reflexionamos en el trayecto de nuestra vida, descubriremos que muchas personas han cooperado en el crecimiento de nuestra fe. Nuestros padres, abuelos, catequistas el párroco y la comunidad de fe. El proyecto de Dios es que la fe nos lleve a servir a los demás. Para darnos cuenta, que “somos servidores no necesarios, hemos hecho lo que era nuestro deber” (Lucas 17,10). Solamente la fe y el trabajo por la paz nos dará la esperanza en este mundo tan lastimado por el odio y la venganza.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Why does God allow evil and suffering to occur? Looking around at what is happening in the world, it is tempting to get angry with God for not actively intervening. Jesus walked among the suffering and evil of his day. While he healed some things, he simply sat with the sinner, challenged the leaders, and spoke against injustice. Jesus spoke of God's kingdom and his vision for humanity. But he made it very clear that it is our responsibility to realize this vision. The disciples saw how Jesus lived and dealt with the day's circumstances. They wanted that same faith and determination. They wanted his fortitude and courage. Mostly, they wanted Jesus' confidence and patience that God's vision would someday be fulfilled. In the meantime, waiting in joyful hope, we become servants who do what is necessary: love, repent of our sin, show mercy, be compassionate and fight injustice. Willingly giving witness to our faith, we expect nothing in return.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Bruno, born in 1030, is also known as Saint Bruno the Carthusian for the monastic order he founded. He studied in Reims and was ordained in Cologne in 1055. In 1057 he went back to Reims to lead the school, a post he kept for almost 20 years. He was made chancellor of the church of Reims in 1075 but left soon after in protest of the behavior of new bishop Manasses de Gournai who was finally deposed in 1080. Bruno refused the nomination to replace de Gournai as it was his intention to retire to live in solitude and prayer. He had a vision in a dream to go with Bishop (later Saint) Hugh of Grenoble. Bruno, Hugh, and five other religious settled at Chartreuse and founded the Carthusian order in 1084.

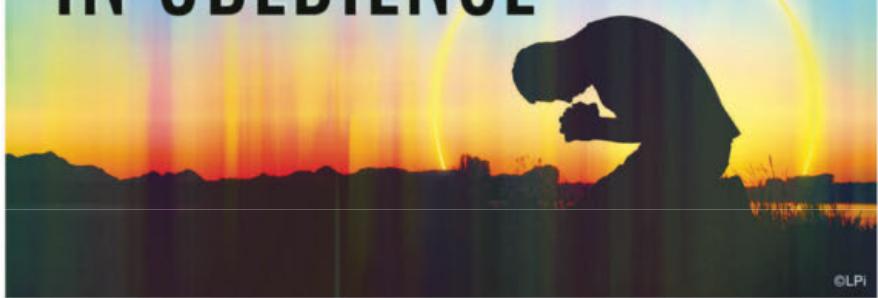

This first period of monastic life was not to last long. Bruno was called to help Urban II, a former student of his, against the antipope Guibert of Ravenna and the hostile Holy Roman Emperor Henry IV. While working with Urban II, he rejected another offer to become bishop, this time of Calabria. Eventually Bruno was allowed to return to monastic life. Count Roger of Sicily and Calabria befriended Bruno and the monks of his order, granting them the land where they founded St. Mary's at La Torre. The order was known for its strict asceticism, poverty, and prayer and its unique organization combining the life of the hermit with that of the collective life of traditional monks.

Saint Bruno wrote several commentaries on the psalms and on St. Paul's epistles. He died on October 6, 1101, and was never formally canonized because his order renounces all public honors. However, Pope Leo X gave permission for Carthusians to celebrate his feast in 1514 and his name was added to the Roman calendar in 1623.

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

FIND FREEDOM IN OBEDIENCE

FIRST READING

The rash one has no integrity;
but the just one, because of his faith,
shall live. (Hab 2:4)

PSALM

If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts. (Ps 95)

SECOND READING

For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice
but rather of power and love and self-control.

So do not be ashamed of your testimony to our Lord. (2 Tm 1:7-8)

GOSPEL

"If you have faith the size of a mustard
seed,
you would say to this mulberry tree,
'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,'
and it would obey you." (Lk 17: 6)

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

As adults, unless we are dealing with children, "obedience" is not a word we typically like to hear. It often brings connotations of military protocols, deference to superiors at work, or conforming to laws and practices. In a culture that has learned to challenge authority, being obedient is understood more as something I "have" to do, not "want" to do. Do you ever see merit in wanting to be obedient? Encouraged to develop independent, self-sufficient egos and personas, we learn to focus on our own wills and merits as we strive for success and achieve a sense of well-being. Giving ourselves over to the will of another, especially when done blindly, can sometimes carry more risk than we are willing to take. Also, blindly following orders without any deference to ethics or morality can lead to atrocious crimes and violence against humanity.

St. Ignatius of Loyola states, "There are three sorts of obedience; the first, obedience when a strict obligation is imposed upon us, and this is good; the second when the simple word of the superior, without any strict command, suffices for us, and this is better; the third, when a thing is done without waiting for an express command, from a knowledge that it will be pleasing to the superior, and this is the best of all." St. Ignatius sees obedience as an act of love. When the person we are obeying genuinely has our best interest in mind, acting themselves with love and integrity, then what St. Ignatius says makes excellent sense. When mutual trust and a bond of love and respect are present, obedience can lead to freedom and truth.

We ask God to increase our faith. In other words, increase our trust that God knows best how to live and act in this world. We desire the same confidence, determination, and patience Jesus had that the fulfillment of God's vision would one day come. Nurturing a deep love of God and trusting in his providence, we obediently do what we know is pleasing to God: love, repent of sin, show mercy, be compassionate and fight injustice. As we willingly give witness to our faith, we do only what we are obliged to do, expecting nothing in return. Spared from the task of having to figure it all out for ourselves, we discover freedom.

Ministry of the Servant of the Heart for People Living with Different Abilities

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,
I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Father John and the Staff in being part of the family of the Cathedral Basilica of St. Francis of Assisi and to serve you as the People of the Parish as your Deacon.

Under my direction the Cathedral will be undertaking the Ministry for Servant of the Heart for People Living with Different Abilities. In the near future I will be in search for volunteers to assist to share your time, talents and treasures. Most of all I need you as People of the Parish to become Prayer Warriors for the Servant of the Heart to be a fruitful ministry.

Let's recite the following prayer to invoke Saint André Bessette who is the patron saint for people living with different abilities with the following prayer:

Prayer for Inclusion

Creator God, we are your people. We look to the future with optimism and with faith in You, as we pursue our call to provide justice and fullness of life for all people with disabilities.

We pray that every man, woman and child may develop their potential and meet You in themselves and in one another.

May we enjoy a totally welcoming community, with You as our center, joined hand in hand with our sisters and brothers. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen

Ecumenical Pet Blessing
in The Stations of the Cross Prayer Garden

Each year on the Feast St. Francis of Assisi (our Archdiocesan Patron Saint - Oct. 4) Archbishop Wester recognizes great lay leadership in the parishes of our Archdiocese. He asks each pastor to nominate people who have shown great love and care of their parish community, Fr. John is pleased to announce this year's recipient of the award is Simon Reed.

Simon Reed has been a faithful member of the Cathedral Basilica parish for many years and serves in ministry with Cathedral Basilica Knights of Columbus. Simon is a dedicated member of the Cathedral docents, hospitality ministry, and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion. He always serves with an abundant heart and smile on his face whenever he is asked to help. Simon embodies the spirit of Jesus' ministry of loving service to the community and beyond. He goes above and beyond to serve his beloved Cathedral parish in any and all capacities. Although Simon experiences many health issues, he continues to serve our parish with a positive attitude and joy that inspires all who are in ministry with him. He is a true witness and example for all who enter ministry in service to their community. We are deeply grateful for the generosity with which Simon Reed serves the Cathedral Community.
