Annual Catholic Appeal

The Annual Catholic Appeal Foundation is NOT part of the Chapter 11 filing. ACA is separately incorporated and funding is not available for legal claims. ACA remains a significant source of funding for the ministries and services of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe throughout this process and beyond. Christ's loving work must endure through this. Thank you for continuing to support these efforts.

Our Parish goal is $36,000. As of today, we have received $28,193.85 in pledges and have $18,503.85 paid toward our goal. We have a short fall of $9,690.00. For your convenience, ACA pledge cards can be found in either of the churches or in the parish office. Please return the pledge cards to the office. Thank you.

Adult Spirituality Program

Visiting Priest, Fr. Raymond Ritari, will be having three new opportunities for adult spiritual growth at Our Lady of Guadalupe. These opportunities include Catholic Prayer/ Meditation, Monthly Movies With Meaning, and Parish Spirituality Book Club. More information about each of these opportunities and what they have to offer have been put on our parish website. We are currently working on a schedule to be put in place for this program, so that everyone has an opportunity to join and be a part of it. There will be morning and evening sessions available for each of these. We are hoping to get more parishioners involved by bringing new and different forms of fellowship to our parish community.

The Catholic Prayer/ Meditation is a six week course, This 6 week presentation will be on Thursdays from 7 PM-8:30 PM beginning September 12. If you are unable to attend in the evenings, please come to the same presentation after morning Mass beginning on Friday, September 13. This six week series introduces you to the basic practices of meditation. Topics such as (1) Meditation in the Christian Tradition, (2) The Way of the Mantra (Sacred Word), (3) Fruits of Meditation and more will be presented. This will hopefully lead to the formation of a weekly parish meditation group that will meet on Thursdays beginning October 24 in the evening or after morning Mass on October 25. Register in the Parish Office. There is no cost!

Music gives joy to the soul, and St. Augustine once said that "he who sings well prays twice". We are still in search of a person who can play the key board, organ or piano to help boost our choir. Please contact the parish office if you know of anyone. And we are asking for interested parishioners who enjoy singing too. Please join one of the choirs we have in the parish. We need more volunteers in this ministry and may God bless you as you do this. Contact the parish office if you feel called to the music ministry. Thank you.

We need all families to help maintain their family plot in our cemetery. Please make sure to take the measures needed to have your family plots looking their best. If you have any questions regarding the cemetery guidelines, please contact the parish office.

Letters were sent out to all ministers of our parish for the Abuse Awareness Training. Every volunteer involved in all, and any ministry in the Archdiocese of Santa Fe must attend training before joining any ministry, regardless whether you work with youth or not. This training use to be once and done, but now this training is to be taken every five years. Dates for training are attached or you may do this training online. If you do not have access to a computer, and would like to do it online, call the Faith Formation Office. Your attention to this matter is of great importance. Thank you.

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Can you imagine if Jesus threw a party? From the wedding feast at Cana, we know he wouldn't let the wine run out. From this Sunday's Gospel, we know there would be quite a lively array of guests! We also knew who the most important people would be - everyone. Jesus advises throwing a party that turns everything upside down. Everyone should assume they're the least important attendee, and the guest list shouldn't include the neighborhood "who's who." Rather, we should go looking for "the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind" and hope they RSVP. Jesus describes a particular posture towards our own hospitality. Parties are about the other people. "Do not recline at table in the place of honor." How often can small talk become a one-upmanship of job promotions, home renovations, and our children's achievements? We've all been to parties where being the most interesting guest is the highest achievement. Yet so often, we know the best party guests are the ones who listen well to our stories. Whether we are guests or hosts, we have the opportunity to look on others with humility and awe.

Parties are opportunities to serve. Jesus advises us to be careful who we invite "in case they might invite you back and you have repayment."

Does Jesus literally mean we shouldn't invite our friends over? Of course not! But he does invite us to special consideration when we offer hospitality. When we invite people over to our home, what motivates us? Who we want to spend time with? Who we'd like to impress? These ultimately have only ourselves in mind. How about asking: Who could use some extra care right now? Who could benefit from a fun evening out? In other words, who can I serve?

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Give Graciously

I love the verse in Sirach where it says, "My child, conduct your affairs with humility, and you will be loved more than a giver of gifts." This is an interesting concept for those of us who think a stewardship way of life is all about the giving of gifts. When we start to think that all we are called to do is give for the sake of giving, we have missed the point.

We are called to be gracious givers. We are called to allow the Jesus in us to encounter the Jesus in others. Humility does not mean that we hide away after we give, but we give in a way that has less to do with us and more to do with the one in whose name we give. Our world needs philanthropy and generosity, but it needs Jesus even more. We want to be good examples to others of how to be generous, not because we want them to be like us but like Jesus.

Give all things with a gracious heart and disposition. Do not take any credit for that generosity but instead let it point to Jesus. After all, it is Jesus who calls us to a mature faith where we answer the call every day regardless of the cost. Without that maturity and answering the call, would we really be driven to be generous givers? Knowing that left to our own devices we would probably not be very successful as a giver of gifts should make us very humble anyway.
