THIS WEEK AT OUR PARISH

GLH

The Parish office will be closed on Monday December 27th in observance of the Christmas holiday. We will be back on Tuesday the 28th. Thank you and God Bless!

We would like to thank Charles and Shelly Muller and their family for the beautiful Christmas trees that they helped to put up at the front of the church. Thank you and God Bless.

Father Emmanuel will be leaving to his annual vacation the first week of January 2022 and will be returning in February 2022 God willing. Father is asking for your prayers and support as he embarks on this journey. There are so many security challenges and issues out there and he asks for prayers for the safe travels. While at home, Father embarks on some humanitarian projects especially by offering support to the young seminarians— our future priests, nuns, children at the orphanages and assistance with medical bills. Would you consider assisting him in this project? God Bless you.

A special note of thanks to all who contributed towards the 2021 Annual Catholic Appeal of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe. Per your kindness we were able to reach our assigned goal of $32,000. Special thanks to our parish coordinators Matthew Sena and Arthur Trujillo as well as all our parish staff and volunteers who worked so hard to accomplish this. May the good Lord richly and abundantly bless you. We want to announce that our goal for the 2022 has been reduced to $31,000. Thank goodness! I want to count once again on your support to enable us to accomplish this in the coming year. Merry Christmas and I hope you have a blissful New Year.

We would like to announce the members of the Facilitating Committee for the 2021-2023 Synod :

Arthur Trujillo	Monica Casias McKay

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph

Families can be very difficult things to negotiate. This is true not only of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our Church, our society, and our global family as well. Everything human can be found in family stories. Those stories speak of wonderful life-giving successes as well as painful spirit-robbing abuses. Our greatest joys and our greatest wounds are usually connected with the experience of family. Our needs, experiences, and unresolved baggage often color what we bring to our familiar relationships. They contribute to our level of defensiveness, how guarded and protected we become, and what prejudices we believe.

In order to break the cycle of dysfunction we have to remember that it is not only by human effort that we negotiate the difficult and challenging events of our lives. There is a Divine Effort at work as well. For sure, the human effort can create quite a mess and easily destroy lives. This is true of any family with which we are associated. Today's Feast of the Holy Family serves to help us understand that there is a Divine Story being told as well. It is a story of perseverance in the face of hardship, determination in the face of despair, healing when we see nothing but wounds, and light where there is darkness.

Do we believe that God is always working, guiding, restoring, and leading? Unless we do, we will never be free from the imperfections and wounds that bind us and never be able to understand what it really means to forgive. Pope Francis tells us that the "light which comes from the Holy Family encourages us to offer human warmth to other families." While this is most certainly true, we can only really begin to do this when we realize that we are still works in progress, not anchored to the wounds and sins of our past, and still a leading star in God's continually unfolding story of love. The Holy Family persevered and radiated warmth because they knew they were not alone. We can too.
