News and Noteworthy

Brothers and Sisters,

Just a few days ago we celebrated the Epiphany, the manifestation of the Lord to the wise men.

Today, we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord, another manifestation of the Divinity of Christ our Savior, whose Divinity is confirmed by the voice of God the Father and by the Holy Spirit who descended from heaven, as we hear in today's Gospel.

In the first reading from the book of the Prophet Isaiah we hear: "Thus says the LORD: Here is my servant whom I uphold, my chosen one with whom I am pleased, upon whom I have put my spirit." Where Isaiah is announcing the Messiah and his salvific work.

This prophecy is fulfilled in the Baptism of the Lord, as we hear in the Gospel today: "After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened, and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased."

With His Baptism, Jesus Christ starts this salvific mission that Isaiah prophesied.

With the Baptism of the Lord, the Holy Spirit, through Jesus Christ, starts His work in us.

This is a great opportunity to remember our baptism and all the graces that we have received through the sacrament. We have been baptized not just with water, but with the Holy Spirit, who wants to work in our souls.

I invite you to celebrate your baptism date in a special way, and if you don't remember the date you received the sacrament, I encourage you to look for this date and remember all the graces you received through this sacrament of initiation that as the Catechism of the Catholic Church says, "Holy Baptism is the basis of the whole Christian life, the gateway to life in the Spirit and the door which gives access to the other sacraments. Through Baptism we are freed from sin and reborn as sons of God; we become members of Christ, are incorporated into the Church and made sharers in her mission: "Baptism is the sacrament of regeneration through water in the word."

I also invite you to bring to mind these graces when you enter a Catholic Church and make a sign of the Cross with Holy Water, this is a good way to remind us of this sacrament.

As we remember the graces we received, I also invite you to not forget the responsibilities we acquired as baptized Christians, as the Catechism tells us: "By Baptism they share in the priesthood of Christ, in his prophetic and royal mission."

So, let us exercise these in the way we pray, serve and evangelize others.

Deacon Alex Díaz OFM Cap.

SAINT KATERI TEKAKWITHA PRAYER

O Saint Kateri, Lily of the Mohawks, Your love for Jesus, so strong, so steadfast, grant that we may become like you. Your short and painful life showed us your strength and humility. Grant that we may become forever humble like you. Like the bright and shining stars at night, we pray that your light may forever shine down upon us, giving light, hope, peacefulness and serenity in our darkest moments. Fill our hearts, Saint Kateri Tekakwitha with your same love for Jesus and grant us your strength and courage to become one like you in Heaven. Amen.
