From The Pastors Desk

Hello friends,

We have heard the strong metaphor about how the rain and snow, falling from the sky and soaking the earth, then rise towards heaven as plants, flowers and trees. Divine inspiration is the rain and snow, our inspired lives are the blossoming plants. This image concludes the great section of Isaiah 40-55, some of the most sublime literature of the Old Testament. He has the highest of hopes for the future of humanity

This weekend we celebrate Christ the gardener, who came to sow the seed of God's word in our world. The fate of that seed depends on the type of soil where it is sown. The growth of his grace in our lives all depends on how we receive it. Adding a very hopeful note, St Paul assures us that all of creation is in a state of evolutionary growth, to become all that God wants it to be: his own flourishing "Kingdom".

Fr. Alex Ureña

Newman Community,

In case you are in the area (or come to mass), check out the updating landscaping at Casa A! My goal is to have the place more welcoming and refreshed for (whenever it is) that students are back in person. I am looking/asking if anyone is willing to donate and/or paint the exterior of the Casa A building. My Vision is to paint it white (with exterior white flat paint). If you are willing to help in any way, please email me at renee@stalbertnewmancenter.org.

Thank you!

Dearest St. Albert the Great Newman Parish YOUTH,

It has been an absolute honor to be a part of your lives this past two years. I loved witnessing your faith lives develop through Confirmation 1 into Confirmation 2 and watch you flourish at Retreat. Our times at Steubenville were unforgettable. St Albert's Youth definitely has the most spirit, easily! Youth Group, wow, we had some great discussions of the Gospel, worked together on so many projects, played together and had fun through it all. Keep shining, keep thriving. You are beautiful people; the church is in good hands.

All my love and blessings,
Ms. K, Mama K, Miss Sharon

Bulletin Update
July 11/12, 2020

Kinder – 5th Grades

Lately we've been hearing how so many people are in pain either because they are sick or because they feel like someone has wronged them. All of us at one point or another will do something that is wrong that hurts that person. Our parents teach us that we need to say we are sorry and ask for forgiveness. Sometimes it is easy but sometimes it is hard. Nonetheless, it is important that we do ask for forgiveness no matter how hard. We can think about how Jesus forgives us when we do something wrong and remember that when Jesus forgives us he does not remember what we did wrong. Jesus asks us to forgive others just like he has forgiven us.

Go to <http://childrensministry.com> and search for Pack Your Bags for an Impactful Lesson on Forgiveness. You can find the readings for this week at this link: <http://www.usccb.org/bible/readings/071220.cfm> You can find The Children's Bulletin at this link. It provides activities that center on readings for this weekend. Visit <https://thekidsbulletin.com/>.

Have a great week!
