MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO – ALENTAR UN ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA

Domingo de Ramos de la Pasión de Cristo

En el Domingo de Ramos, también llamado de la Pasión del Señor, la Iglesia recuerda la entrada triunfante de Cristo nuestro Señor a Jerusalén para consumir el Misterio Pascual. Hoy, se bendicen las palmas que llevamos a casa después de la Misa. Ya en casa las colocamos en un lugar especial para recordar y celebrar la Semana Santa que se avecina. También, se escuchan dos lecturas del Evangelio. La primera para la procesión de entrada y la segunda de la Pasión del Señor. La Cuaresma fue un tiempo de meditación y conversión que nos guio hasta este Domingo de Ramos.

Ahora, debemos acompañar al Señor en su Pasión, Muerte y Resurrección con la celebración del Triduo Pascual. El Papa Francisco aun en este tiempo de recuperación del sufrimiento causado por la pandemia nos da un impulso a seguir confiando en la esperanza y alegría de la Resurrección. “Jesús es nuestro amigo, nuestro hermano. Él nos ilumina en nuestro camino. Y así lo hemos acogido hoy. Esta es la primera palabra que quisiera decirles: Alegría. No sean hombres y mujeres tristes: un cristiano jamás puede serlo. Sigamos a Jesús. Nosotros acompañamos, seguimos a Jesús”. Palabras, que nos consuelan y animan en cada circunstancia de nuestra vida. ¿Qué haremos durante esta Semana Santa para acompañar a Jesús en su Pasión? ¿Cómo celebraremos la alegría de la Pascua? De cualquier forma que lo hagamos reflexionemos en la frase del Evangelio de hoy. “¡Bendito el que viene como Rey en el nombre del Señor!” (Lucas 19:38).

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

Pope St. John Paul II rightly taught, “To believe in Jesus is to accept what he says, even when it runs contrary to what others are saying. It means rejecting the lure of sin, however attractive it may be, in order to set out on a difficult path of Gospel virtues.” Acceptance, rejection, suffering, betrayal, fear, reluctance, persecution, and painful, undeserved and unjust death are all played out in dramatic fashion today. Jesus spoke of God’s unconditional love, mercy, and forgiveness. Who doesn’t like hearing about love, especially God’s? Jesus did not have backs turned on him, face intense suffering, and succumb to a horrific death because he spoke of God’s love. All of those things occurred because of the implications of actually believing in God’s love.

God’s love comes with an intimate and equal bond with love of neighbor. This moves the believer outward to truly see their brothers and sisters as equals and compels them to work for a world that mirrors God’s kingdom: a world based on justice, peace, mercy, and forgiveness. Sometimes, people want to keep God’s love to themselves and use it solely for their own benefit. When they only want to use God’s love to justify their own intentions and for their own projects, problems occur.

Sin makes something hurtful, destructive, and self-serving look very attractive and justifiable. The lure of sin creates friends who begin to believe the lie that the sin expounds. This is what happened on Calvary. When you begin actually doing what Jesus is saying and translate love into action, it inevitably will upset popular and longstanding conventions and structures. Many of these serve to protect status, foster personal gain and success, and further divide those who have from those who do not. Most people who hear the Gospel are attracted to what they hear, at first. When they realize that it means standing apart from popular opinion, even if that opinion is against the Gospel and sinful, they cower back in fear and join the throngs shouting, “Crucify him!” There is an ambivalence found in many believers as they struggle with whether their belief is strong enough “to set out on the difficult path of Gospel virtues.”

It takes a lot of courage to admit that the system is broken. It takes even more courage to point out the sin. And it takes an unbreakable love of God to then accept the consequences of doing so.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

A God Who Knows How It Feels

Christ could have spoken anything from the cross, so why did he choose to recite Psalm 22? And why is it so important that we recite that same Psalm at today's Mass?

"My God, my God, why have You abandoned me?"

We've never known the Jesus of the Gospels to doubt the will of God. We've never known him to be a defeatist or to give into feelings of despair. He's the hero who walks on water, the Savior who is welcomed to Jerusalem with a pathway of palms. And he knows how this story ends; he knows full well that his Father has absolutely not abandoned him.

So why does he say this? Jesus doesn't make offhanded comments, especially in his last hour. Today, when we repeat the words that he calls out in his darkest moment, we must remember that he wants us, very particularly, to consider them.

With his crucifixion, Jesus reminds us of his humanity. He is a man of flesh that can be torn and blood that can be shed. Somehow, in tandem with his divinity, he still possesses a heart that knows fear and pain and longing. And with this seemingly hopeless cry, he reminds us of that.

Let us never doubt that Jesus can relate to us in our brokenness. This is the week, friends. This is the week that reminds us that our God is a God who knows every pang, every trembling, and every uncertainty of human life. Our God knows what abandonment feels like. He knows what rejection feels like. He knows what it is to keep going when the strength and the will has disappeared.
