I am David Vallier and I have been a seminarian for one year at the Nazareth House. I would like to share some thoughts that were very eye-opening for me over the past year that might be helpful if you are longing for something deeper in the Faith.

Just a few weeks ago, when I was applying for Saint John Vianney seminary in Denver, they asked me this question during the interview: "What is your relationship with Jesus like?" It is something we never ask others, and that no one ever asks us. You might be more ready to answer: "What is your relationship with your parents, spouse, or children like?" But Jesus? To answer the question, it will likely take a good bit of reflection and prayer. Here are some questions I invite you to consider.

When was the last time you talked to Jesus? How did it go? Have you ever visited Jesus? Has He ever visited you? Do you ever go over to His Father's house when Jesus invites you? They celebrate something every week! Do you invite Jesus over to your house? Do you let Him sleep over or does He live there permanently? Is He there so much that He has become a part of your family?

I'll go further.

Have you ever met His Mom? What is she like? Do you have her phone number? If not, its: 1-800-ROSARY. Do you call her once a week... everyday? Does she ever get to visit? Do you let her love you as if you were her own child? Have you let her adopt you? Have you ever met His Dads? Both of them? Have you ever met any of Jesus' siblings? They are all adopted!

Even further.

Have you known Jesus for a while? How did the two of you meet? Is it still early on in the relationship or are things getting serious? Have you ever hurt Him? When you apologized, how did He respond? Are there any difficulties? How do you work them out? Have you fallen in love with Him? Last time I talked to Him He was dying to see you. I think He loves you.

My brothers and sister in Christ, Jesus is God made man. He is fully divine, but He is also fully human, and wants to enter into a real relationship with you.

He loves you –personally. Everything He did, He did just for you. How do you respond to Him who loves you so much, especially when you feel unworthy or even unable to love Him back. Then in peace and simplicity say: "Jesus I have nothing to offer you. I can only tell you how much I want to love you."

From the Old Testament Book of Tobit; Chapter 4:14-19

"Be careful, my child, in all you do, well-disciplined in all your behavior. Do to no one what you would not want done to you. Give your bread to those who are hungry, and your clothes to those who are naked. Whatever you own in plenty, devote a proportion to almsgiving. Bless the Lord God in everything; beg him to guide your ways and bring your paths and purposes to their end."

Yo soy David Vallier y soy seminarista durante un año en la Casa Nazaret. Me gustaría compartir algunos pensamientos que me abrieron los ojos durante el año pasado y que podrían ser útiles si anhela algo más profundo en la Fe.

Hace apenas unas semanas, cuando estaba solicitando admisión al seminario Saint John Vianney en Denver, me hicieron esta pregunta durante la entrevista: "¿Cómo es tu relación con Jesús?" Es algo que nunca les preguntamos a los demás y que nadie nos pregunta nunca. Es posible que esté más preparado para responder: "¿Cómo es su relación con sus padres, cónyuge o hijos?" ¿Pero Jesús? Para responder a la pregunta, probablemente se necesitará un poco de reflexión y oración. Aquí hay algunas preguntas que los invito a considerar.

¿Cuándo fue la última vez que habló con Jesús? ¿Como le fue? ¿Has visitado alguna vez a Jesús? ¿Te ha visitado alguna vez? ¿Alguna vez vas a la casa de Su Padre cuando Jesús te invita? ¡Celebran algo cada semana! ¿Invitas a Jesús a tu casa? ¿Lo dejas dormir o vive allí permanentemente? ¿Te visita tan seguido que se ha convertido en parte de tu familia?

Iré más lejos.

¿Alguna vez conociste a su mamá? ¿Cómo es ella? ¿Tienes su número de teléfono? Si no es así, es: 1-800-ROSARY. ¿La llamas una vez a la semana... todos los días? ¿Alguna vez llega a visitarnos? ¿Dejas que te ame como si fueras su propio hijo? ¿Has dejado que te adopte? ¿Alguna vez conociste a sus papás? ¿Ambos? ¿Ha conocido a alguno de los hermanos de Jesús? ¡Todos son adoptados!

Aún más.

¿Conoces a Jesús desde hace algún tiempo? ¿Cómo fue que los dos se conocieron? ¿Es todavía temprano en la relación o las cosas se están poniendo serias? ¿Lo has lastimado alguna vez? Cuando se disculpó, ¿Cómo respondió? ¿Hay alguna dificultad? ¿Cómo los solucionas? ¿Te has enamorado de él? La última vez que hablé con Él, se moría por verte. Creo que te ama.

Mis hermanos y hermanas en Cristo, Jesús es Dios hecho hombre. Él es completamente divino, pero también es completamente humano y quiere entablar una relación real contigo.

Él te ama, personalmente. Todo lo que hizo, lo hizo solo por ti. ¿Cómo le respondes a Él que te ama tanto, especialmente cuando te sientes indigno o incluso incapaz de amarlo a Él? Luego, con paz y sencillez, di: "Jesús, no tengo nada que ofrecerte. Solo puedo decirte lo mucho que quiero amarte".

Del Libro de Tobías del Antiguo Testamento; Capítulo 4: 14-19

"Se prudente, hijo mío, en todo lo que hagas, y bien educado en tu manera de portarte. Lo que no quieras que te hagan, no se lo hagas a los demás. Comparte tu pan con el hambriento y tu ropa con el harapiento. Si te sobra algo, dalo de limosna. En toda ocasión alaba a Dios, el Señor, y pídele que te vaya bien en tus acciones y en todo lo que emprendas".
