DEBT FREE FREEDOM

In case you did not hear the announcement on the Feast of St. Henry, our parish is currently DEBT FREE! Congratulations. Out of the almost $5,500,000 construction costs, we borrowed approximately $2,750,000 from the bank. It took us ten years of to pay off the money we borrowed, but WE DID IT. Special thanks to all who organize and participate in the annual November HOLIDAY HOUSE bazaar, as well as the Knights of Columbus whose golf tournaments, poker nights, and fish fries contributed to this success. We continue to ask for your generous support of our parish Building Fund and the various fundraisers that support our efforts to complete the construction necessary to create a complete parish campus: additional parking, catechesis classrooms, priest rectory on-site, and THE CHURCH!

This week our Chapel Sanctuary Candle burns in honor of the Presence of Christ in the Blessed sacrament in memory of:

Happy Sunday to you!

Deacon Harold here writing—and it’s hard to believe that eight weeks have passed by already. This Sunday marks my last day of work here at St. Henry in Buckeye. In just a few more weeks, I will be headed back to Denver, Colorado, where I will finish my last year of seminary. Next June, I will come back here to Phoenix, be ordained a priest, and serve here in the Phoenix diocese for the rest of my life.

My time here at St. Henry has been an enormous blessing for me. During these short eight weeks, I’ve been able to baptize kids, marry couples, bury some of our beloved parishioners who have died, bless many, many houses, share conversations over dinner, preach at many masses, and even teach a couple of classes—and that’s not even everything! But every one of these encounters has taught me something, and has helped confirm my love for ordained ministry.

There’s something strange about the list I just mentioned: they contain events of the highest highs, and lowest lows. It is especially peculiar that I did many of these things within the course of the same week, if not the same day. A priest (or even a deacon, like me) will accompany his parishioners through the most important parts of their lives; and at one moment, you’ll be mourning with one family, and later that day, rejoicing with another. As you can imagine, this is a lot; and yet, it is worth it to do it with Christ—He is the one who blesses our lives and consoles our sorrows. To partake in this work of Jesus has been humbling. Yet, I leave from Buckeye knowing that I love this life, and that it is truly what Jesus calls me to do. I relish even more to do it as a priest.

But I suppose that the main point here is to thank all of you—you have made these eight weeks easier and more pleasurable than they might have been elsewhere. There are so many good folk here in Buckeye, and it has been something quite special to be here, if only for a short while. What a blessing it has been to partake in your lives. I also thank Fr. Billy for his example and direction, as well as Fr. Kevin, too. I implore all who read this to continue following Christ, and continually convert their hearts to the Lord—or maybe if you haven’t been, to begin anew. He waits for you! I also ask that you continue to pray for me as I finish my last days of study in seminary. The ordination to the priesthood is June 4th next year, so pray for me then, too! Every ordination is a public event, so you’re welcome to come; perhaps I’ll even see you there. Blessings in Christ!

Your Tithe to St. Henry Parish

Parishioners may use their banking institution’s online Bill Pay and have money sent directly from their bank accounts at no cost to either party.

Contribution envelopes can be obtained at the parish office for those who like to give the “old-fashioned” way.

We are not using the traditional system whereby ushers collect Sunday donations during the Offertory Prayers – instead, our donation box for both the Regular Operating Account and also the Building Fund can be found at the back of the hall and donations can be deposited before or after Mass. For safety, we only use this box during weekend Masses when there are persons monitoring the collection site. During the weekdays, donations can be brought directly to the office.

LIBERTAD LIBRE DE DEUDA

En caso de que no escuchó el anuncio en la Fiesta de San Enrique, ¡nuestra parroquia está actualmente LIBRE DE DEUDAS! Felicidades. De los casi $5,500,000 costos de construcción, tomamos prestados aproximadamente $2,750,000 del banco. Nos tomó diez años pagar el dinero que pedimos prestado para construir, pero LO HICIMOS.

Un agradecimiento especial a todos los que organizan y participan en el bazar anual HOLIDAY HOUSE de noviembre, así como a los Caballeros de Colón cuyos torneos de golf, noches de póquer y pescado frito contribuyeron a este éxito. Seguimos pidiendo tu generoso apoyo de nuestro Fondo de Construcción parroquial y las diversas actividades de recaudación de fondos que apoyan nuestros esfuerzos para completar la construcción necesaria para crear un campus parroquial completo: estacionamiento adicional, aulas de catequesis, rectoría de sacerdotes en el lugar y ¡LA IGLESIA!

Los sobres de contribución se pueden obtener en la oficina parroquial para aquellos a quienes les gusta donar de la manera "antigua".

No estamos usando el sistema tradicional por el cual los acomodadores colectan las donaciones del domingo durante las Oraciones de Ofertorio; en su lugar, nuestra caja de donaciones tanto para la Cuenta de Funcionamiento Regular como para el Fondo de Construcción se puede encontrar en la parte trasera del salón y las donaciones se pueden depositar antes o después de Misa.

Por seguridad, solo usamos esta caja durante las Misas de fin de semana cuando hay personas monitoreando el sitio de colecta.

Durante los días de semana, las donaciones se pueden traer directamente a la oficina.
