Welcome

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

February 7, 2021

In this weekend's Gospel, we hear of the amazing works of Jesus as the very beginning of his ministry. First he heals the mother-in-law of Simon Peter. Then he cured many people from Capernaum and the surrounding villages along the Sea of Galilee. While this passage gives us a quick glimpse of the mighty works of the Son of God, we then see something extremely important. Early the next morning, Jesus rose and went to a deserted place to pray and immediately the apostles searched him out. Jesus understood the importance of doing the works of God. However, he also recognized the importance of constant dialogue with the Father.

It can be a big temptation in our day overschedule with all sorts of things, including caring for others. However, we are all at least a little guilty of not pouring our time into the most important thing, our relationship with God. There are many reasons why this is the case, but I have witnessed too many times of a dying person saying that their biggest regret was not building up their faith life more throughout their lives. They don't feel ready to see God face to face after death. Use today's Gospel as a reminder and an encouragement that if we are to be true disciples of Jesus, we must imitate him, by recognizing the need of this powerful relationship and to make it happen each day. This week, I would encourage each of you to spend just five minutes each morning with God. Give him your praise and thanksgiving, your worries, and concerns... give him YOU!

Fr. Brian Buettner, Pastor

En el Evangelio de este fin de semana, escuchamos de las increíbles obras de Jesús como el comienzo mismo de su ministerio. Primero sana a la suegra de Simón Pedro. Luego curó a mucha gente de Capernaum y las aldeas circundantes a lo largo del Mar de Galilea. Si bien este pasaje nos da una visión rápida de las poderosas obras del Hijo de Dios, entonces vemos algo extremadamente importante. Temprano a la mañana siguiente, Jesús se levantó y fue a un lugar desierto a orar e inmediatamente los apóstoles lo buscaron. Jesús comprendió la importancia de hacer las obras de Dios. Sin embargo, también reconoció la importancia de estar constantemente en diálogo con el Padre.

Puede ser una gran tentación en nuestros días sobreprogramando con todo tipo de cosas, incluyendo el cuidado de los demás. Sin embargo, todos somos al menos un poco culpables de no verter nuestro tiempo en lo más importante, nuestra relación con Dios. Hay muchas razones por las que este es el caso, pero he sido testigo demasiadas veces de una persona moribunda diciendo que su mayor pesar no fue edificar su vida de fe más a lo largo de sus vidas. No se sienten listos para ver a Dios cara a cara después de la muerte. Utilicen el Evangelio de hoy como recordatorio y como estímulo para ser verdaderos discípulos de Jesús, debemos imitarlo, reconociendo la necesidad de esta poderosa relación y haciéndola realidad cada día. Esta semana, los animo a cada uno de ustedes a pasar sólo cinco minutos cada mañana con Dios. Dale tus elogios y acción de gracias, tus preocupaciones.. ¡Dale tu mismo!

Consecration to St. Joseph

Drawing on the wealth of the Church's living tradition, Fr. Donald Calloway calls on all of us to turn to Saint Joseph, entrust ourselves, our Church, and our world to our spiritual father's loving care, and then watch for wonders when the Universal Patron of the Church opens the floodgates of Heaven to pour out graces into our lives today. Definitely a book for our time, Consecration to St. Joseph is dedicated to meeting the challenges of the present moment and restoring order to our Church and our world, all through the potent paternal intercession and care of St. Joseph. This book has everything you need to take your love and devotion to St. Joseph to a whole different level: the first comprehensive 33-day program of consecration to St. Joseph; information on the 10 wonders of St. Joseph; and prayers and devotions to St. Joseph. Accessible, motivating, this book will kick off a great movement of consecration to our spiritual father and change the world.
