MESSAGE FROM FR. MIKE

Howdy,

It is hard to believe that Christmas is over... Wait, we are Catholics and Christmas is season until the feast of the Baptism of the Lord. This year that is Sunday, January 9. So keep celebrating!!

Today is the feast of the Holy Family; it is important to remember that the Holy Family is not simply Jesus, Mary and Joseph. God is our Father, Mary is our Mother, and Jesus is our brother... we are also part of the Holy Family by adoption.

As we look back on last year, do you think our Father is happy with the way we have acted? Is our Mother proud of us? Jesus, our brother, has taught us how our "parents" want us to live and what they expect of us. Have we listened, not just on Sunday but every day?

Let us be sure that "Mom and Dad" are proud of us this coming year.

Merry Christmas,

Fr. Mike

Dear Fr. Mike,

We are very thankful for the support from St. Bernard of Clairvaux.

Many unborn children will have a first
Christmas this year
because of your support.

Anointing of the Sick

Who receives this Sacrament?

The Sacrament is NOT for those only who are at the point of death. Hence, as soon as anyone of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for them to receive this Sacrament has certainly arrived (SC 73).

If a sick person who received this anointing recovers their health, they can in the case of another grave illness receive this Sacrament again. It is fitting to receive the Anointing of the Sick just prior to a serious operation. The same hold for elderly whose frailty becomes more pronounced (CCC1515)

Eucharistic Adoration

You are invited to spend time with the Lord every Wednesday of the month for Eucharistic Adoration and Benediction.

Walking with Moms in Need

At the beginning of March 2021, the Diocese of Phoenix joined the nationwide effort, Walking with Moms In Need: A Year of Service, from March 25, 2021 to March 25, 2022. Inspired by St. John Paul II's call to maximize our charitable efforts in building a culture of life, the intention of the Year of Service is to increase the Church's outreach and assistance to pregnant and parenting women in need.

After several meetings and in consultation with key parish leaders, the Walking with Moms Task Force discerned that one of the most practical ways to respond to mothers in need at St. Bernard of Clairvaux is by providing a ministry that creates a sense of family by formally recognizing babies on the way and introducing mom and baby to our parish community. We would like to provide a non-threatening way for relationship building. Participants may be ministered to by the team and develop a personal path forward in their own spiritual journey. The ministry's ultimate goal is to accompany moms in need – offer spiritual resources, offer a Meal Train for the expectant mother, offer babysitting (if family is comfortable), direct them to other Diocesan approved counseling services, and most importantly, help them develop a deeper relationship with Christ. If you would like to apply to be a mentor, please contact Ryan Ayala at rayala@stboc.org or visit our website at www.stboc.org

A MESSAGE FROM FR. SIMON

We have been asked to help facilitate a roundtable discussion for the 2021-2022 Synod requested by Pope Francis. Bishop Olmsted is also asking all parishes to participate in this synodal journey. In short, we invite you to participate in a roundtable discussion in January to discuss different matters of the Church; Topics will range from the joys we experience of being Catholic to what are the areas for change for our Church and what steps can be taken. He will then present this document to Bishop Olmsted and he will then present it to the Holy Father.

We will have this roundtable discussion in January. It is a one-night event. We will also provide food and drinks. We just ask that you come with an open mind and open heart and be ready to share your discussion, please contact Ryan Ayala at rayala@stboc.org.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Families can be very difficult things to negotiate. This is true not only of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our Church, our society, and our global family as well. Everything human can be found in family stories. Those stories speak of wonderful life-giving successes as well as painful spirit-robbing abuses. Our greatest joys and our greatest wounds are usually connected with the experience of family. Our needs, experiences, and unresolved baggage often color what we bring to our familiar relationships. They contribute to our level of defensiveness, how guarded and protected we become, and what prejudices we believe.

In order to break the cycle of dysfunction we have to remember that it is not only by human effort that we negotiate the difficult and challenging events of our lives. There is a Divine Effort at work as well. For sure, the human effort can create quite a mess and easily destroy lives. This is true of any family with which we are associated. Today's Feast of the Holy Family serves to help us understand that there is a Divine Story being told as well. It is a story of perseverance in the face of hardship, determination in the face of despair, healing when we see nothing but wounds, and light where there is darkness.

Do we believe that God is always working, guiding, restoring, and leading? Unless we do, we will never be free from the imperfections and wounds that bind us and never be able to understand what it really means to forgive. Pope Francis tells us that the "light which comes from the Holy Family encourages us to offer human warmth to other families." While this is most certainly true, we can only really begin to do this when we realize that we are still works in progress, not anchored to the wounds and sins of our past, and still a leading star in God's continually unfolding story of love. The Holy Family persevered and radiated warmth because they knew they were not alone. We can too.

He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart. And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and favor before God and man.
