A NOTE FROM BRIGID BRINK

To all of you who give online:

WeShare is under new management and, obviously, they are working out some rather tangled knots in the system! I have attempted to talk to them in person, but I have had no luck with my calls getting through. This suggests that many others are having difficulties as well.

I've heard from some of you that you've received an "Expired Card" message from them, when your card has not expired. I think it's best if you just go to the link they suggest (it's not a scam) and update your card. My only theory is that they pulled some old data.

I am so sorry for the mess! Trust me: With all the changes we are going through right now, I did not want to deal with this fiasco. Everything takes time, and I am quite convinced patience is the greatest virtue.
