FROM THE DESK OF FATHER JIM

This has seemed to me like a very long goodbye. Of course, the move was announced at the end of April, so, in fact, we've had time to mull it over.

Between my three years at OU Law, 2004-2007, and my twelve years here at STM, 2010-2022, I have lived half of my priesthood here in Norman. My years as your pastor have been a rare, true blessing for me. I hope you know what a great honor it has been for me to serve here.

We built shrines together; renovated the six-plex apartment building into an educational building; and, of course, built a church together. As a crowning act, we refurbished an historic pipe organ. We have proven to be a "can do" community undaunted by financial challenges.

You were exceedingly kind to my dog, Frasier, who had bounced around from owner to owner before he came to me. At STM, he came into his own. You've also been kind and patient with Laddie Boy (rough and loud Laddie may test the patience of my new parish). Nova, the parish cat, goes with me to mouse the offices and classrooms at St. Eugene.

I have long been humbled and inspired by your care for the poor and the suffering. Such compassion is part of the character of this parish, and I hope to carry that flame with me wherever I go in life.

The staff is amazing and talented and so much fun. I will miss them tremendously. They work very hard for you because they believe in STM as a community of grace. Please continue to encourage them.

In priestly culture, it is often observed that most priests are given their "Camelot," the parish where everything is blessed. STM has been my Camelot, and I will be forever grateful for my time here.

I ask for your prayers as I move to St. Eugene Parish. Know that I will pray for you often. Come visit when you can. I know you will keep an open heart for your new pastor. Please support him, and don't be surprised if he asks you to build a proper rectory. While I have loved the little house here, in order to one day have an Associate Pastor, STM will need to invest in a new rectory. When the time comes, I will donate to it. I promise.

Finally, as you know, I have developed a deep devotion to St. Joseph during my years here. Without his intercession, the new church would not have been built. Please honor him and ask him to continue to bless the parish!!

Love,

Fr. Jim
