FROM FR. BRIAN

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

In this weekend's Gospel, we are introduced to a family that were close friends of Our Lord, Martha and Mary. We also see the reality of sibling relationships as Mary sits at the feet of the Lord, while Martha is busy trying to entertain and show hospitality for their guest. Yet, her hospitality was not really done out of love, but rather obligation. Every time this Gospel comes up in the lectionary, I am always immediately reminded of my personal tendencies to be like Martha. I see the needs of those around me and do everything I can to care for them, which ends up leading to a lot of stress and anxiety. Thankfully, the Lord uses this moment to pierce through the situation to the heart of what it means to be a follower of Jesus.

How is God calling you to purify the things on your plate to care for your family members, your friends, fellow parishioners, or even strangers? In what ways is God calling you to refocus your intention to know the Lord in a deeper way? The reality is that each of us are called as disciples to find a healthy balance between work and prayer.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Brian

FROM THE ABBEY

Register today for Hearken Continually: A Primer on Discernment of God's Will presented by Dr. Alex Schimpf at St. Gregory's Abbey on July 23rd.

This day of reflection will offer an introduction to the practice of discerning God's will, a regular part of Christian discipleship. Special attention will be paid to the virtue of holy indifference, to key spiritual practices that aid in discernment, and to various ways of testing whether a proposed course of action conforms to the will of God.

Cost is $30 ($35 if paid at the door) and lunch is included. Pre-registration is required. The day begins with Mass at 8:30am and ends after adoration around 3:00pm. To register, email retreats@monksok.org, call (405) 878-5656 or register and pay online at www.monksok.org/news/days-of-reflection.
