"Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God."
Philippians 4:6

St. Paul reminds us that God is an abundant God - He is the ultimate giver of gifts. He promises to give us all that we need. Remember, that we are created in God's image and likeness. We too, are made to be generous with all of our gifts as well. Placing our trust in God frees us from being a slave to possessions. It allows us to gratefully and generously share ourselves and our goods with others.

FATHER'S CORNER

"The liturgy of this Sunday, known as "Gaudete" Sunday, is a special invitation to us to joyfulness, to a vigilance that is not sad but happy. St Paul wrote: "Rejoice in the Lord always" (Phil 4:4). True joy is not a fruit of [having a good time] understood as shirking the commitments of life and one's responsibilities. True joy is linked to something deeper. Of course, in the all too often frenetic pace of daily life it is important to find time for rest and relaxation, but true joy is linked to our relationship with God. Those who have encountered Christ in their own lives feel serenity and joy in their hearts that no one and no situation can take from them. St Augustine understood this very well; in his quest for truth, peace and joy, after seeking them in vain in many things he concluded with his famous words: "and our heart is restless until it rests in God" (cf. Confessions, I, 1, 1)." (Pope Benedict XVI)

We sung in the Psalm: Cry out with joy and gladness: for among you is the great and Holy One of Israel. We Catholics are blessed with the gift of the Eucharist: Jesus truly and substantially present in our midst. The Mass is our central act of worship, a foretaste of Heaven. In the Mass, Jesus' Paschal mystery is again made present. With Christ, we offer ourselves as a gift of love to the Father. The Mass is the central act of catholic worship and summit of the whole Christian life. It is a sacrifice of thanksgiving and praise offered to the Father for all creation and his gifts to us, especially for our redemption and sanctification. It is a sacrificial memorial, for it re-presents the paschal mystery of Jesus and makes it truly present as one and the same sacrifice of Calvary, where Jesus is both priest and victim.

Jesus is present in four major ways in the mass: 1) the Holy Eucharist; 2) the people gathered; 3) the priest acting in the person of Christ; 4) the proclaimed word. It is prayed in the Holy Spirit, through whose power Jesus becomes present in the Eucharist. The Mass has two parts: The Liturgy of the Word: God speaks to us, and we respond to him in faith (Lk 24:32); and the Liturgy of the Eucharist: Through the power of the Holy Spirit, Jesus is offered to the Father in an unbloody re-presentation of his sacrifice on Calvary, and we receive him in Holy Communion. Attendance at and participation in Holy Mass (Heb 10:25-29): We are obliged to participate in Mass on the Lord's Day (Sunday or Saturday vigil mass). We are obliged to actively participate through our responses, our singing, our postures, and our conscious attentiveness to the divine actions; we are not at mass merely to watch. It is desirable to attend Mass often during the week, even daily for the good of our soul. The Mass is the source of our holiness. It bring us into actual union with Christ; we are bonded to him and transformed by him. Heaven begin on earth – through the Holy Spirit we are one with Jesus and, united with him, we offer ourselves to the Father. The reception of Holy Communion makes us members of Christ body (1Cor 10:17)

CHILDREN RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

"O God, our Creator and Redeemer, mercifully hear our prayers that as we venerate Your servant, St. Lucy, for the light of faith You did bestow upon her, You would vouch safe to increase and to preserve this same light in our souls, that we may be able to avoid evil, to do good, and to abhor nothing so much as the blindness and the darkness of evil and of sin. Relying on Your goodness, O God, we humbly ask You, by the intercession of Your servant, St. Lucy, that You would give perfect vision to our eyes, that they may serve for Your greater honor and glory, and the salvation of our souls in this world, that we may come to the enjoyment of the unfailing light of the Lamb of God in paradise. St. Lucy, virgin and martyr, hear our prayers and obtain our petitions. Amen."

for the offenses against thy Heart.
Amen.

Ofrenda a Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe
Inmaculado Corazón de María, Corazón
de mi Madre, Nuestra Señora
de Guadalupe,
Me uno a tu pureza, tu santidad, tu celo y tu amor
todos mis pensamientos, palabras, actos y sufrimientos este día,

Amén.

LA ESQUINA DEL PADRE

En concreto, la liturgia de este domingo, llamado Gaudete, nos invita a la alegría, a una vigilancia no triste, sino gozosa. Escribe san Pablo—. «Alegraos siempre en el Señor» (Flp 4, 4). La verdadera alegría no es fruto del divertirse, entendido en el sentido etimológico de la palabra di-vertere, es decir, desentenderse de los compromisos de la vida y de sus responsabilidades. La verdadera alegría está vinculada a algo más profundo. Ciertamente, en los ritmos diarios, a menudo frenéticos, es importante encontrar tiempo para el descanso, para la distensión, pero la alegría verdadera está vinculada a la relación con Dios. Quien ha encontrado a Cristo en su propia vida, experimenta en el corazón una serenidad y una alegría que nadie ni ninguna situación le pueden quitar. San Agustín lo había entendido muy bien; en su búsqueda de la verdad, de la paz, de la alegría, tras haber buscado en vano en múltiples cosas, concluye con la célebre frase de que el corazón del hombre está inquieto, no encuentra serenidad y paz hasta que descansa en Dios (cf. Confesiones, I, 1, 1). (Papa Benedicto XVI)

El salmo de la liturgia de hoy proclama: Griten jubilosos, habitantes de Sión, porque el Dios de Israel ha sido grande con ustedes. Como católicos estamos bendecidos con el don de la Eucaristía: Jesús verdaderamente and substancialmente presente entre nosotros. La Misa es nuestro acto central de adoración, un anticipo del Cielo. En la Misa se vuelve a hacer presente el misterio pascual de Jesús. Con Cristo, nos ofrecemos como don de amor al Padre. La Misa es el acto central del culto católico y cumbre de toda la vida cristiana. Es un sacrificio de acción de gracias y alabanza ofrecido al Padre por toda la creación y sus dones para nosotros, especialmente por nuestra redención y santificación. Es un memorial de sacrificio, porque representa el misterio pascual de Jesús y lo hace verdaderamente presente como un solo y mismo sacrificio del Calvario, donde Jesús es sacerdote y víctima.

Jesús está presente de cuatro formas principales en la misa: 1) la Sagrada Eucaristía; 2) la asamblea reunida; 3) el sacerdote actuando en la persona de Cristo; 4) la palabra proclamada. Se reza en el Espíritu Santo, a través de cuyo poder Jesús se hace presente en la Eucaristía. La Misa tiene dos partes: La Liturgia de la Palabra: Dios nos habla y le respondemos con fe (Lc 24, 32); y la Liturgia de la Eucaristía: Por el poder del Espíritu Santo, Jesús es ofrecido al Padre en una representación incruenta de su sacrificio en el Calvario, y lo recibimos en la Sagrada Comunión. Asistencia y participación en la Santa Misa (Hebreos 10: 25-29): Estamos obligados a participar en la Misa del Día del Señor (Misa de vigilia del domingo o sábado). Estamos obligados a participar activamente a través de nuestras respuestas, nuestro canto, nuestras posturas y nuestra atención consciente a las acciones divinas; no estamos en misa simplemente para mirar. Es deseable asistir a Misa con frecuencia durante la semana, incluso todos los días por el bien de nuestra alma. La Misa es la fuente de nuestra santidad. Nos lleva a una unión real con Cristo; estamos unidos a él y transformados por él. El cielo comienza en la tierra - a través del Espíritu Santo somos uno con Jesús y, unidos a él, nos ofrecemos al Padre. La recepción de la Sagrada Comunión nos hace miembros del cuerpo de Cristo (1Cor 10:17)

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in the battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl through the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.

Oración a San Miguel Arcángel

San Miguel Arcángel, defiéndenos en la batalla. Sé nuestro amparo contra la perversidad y acechanzas del demonio. Reprímale Dios pedimos suplicantes, y tú, oh Príncipe de la Milicia Celestial arroja al infierno con el divino poder a Satanás, y a los otros espíritus malignos que andan dispersos por el mundo para la perdición de las almas.
Amen.
