The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

Tragedy and disappointment are inevitable. What sees you through this? There will be challenges, changes, unexpected circumstances, interrupted plans, hurts, and injustices experienced by every human being at some point in their lives. We will be asked to adjust our plans, change course, and even encounter suffering and death. Where do we learn all of the lessons we need to live life well? Some of them we learn along the way but much of what we bring to life, positive and negative, comes from our early beginnings, our families. This is our early world and provides the blueprint for how we see the bigger, more inclusive world, which unfolds before us.

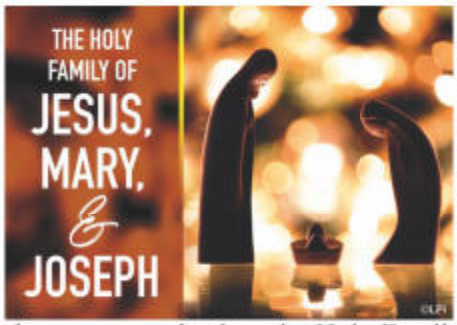
Our families of origin can be sources of grace, heartache or a combination of both. Families are intended to be pivotal in providing us with proper social structure and understanding, a support system, lessons about relationships and communication, and the unconditional acceptance and love we so desperately crave. They can also determine whether we have an accessible and healthy relationship with God. Many of life's challenges can literally bring us to our knees and require that we possess a strength of character that resides well beyond the superficialities of our world. At some point we will all need three coping gifts that can be given to us only by God: faith, hope, and love. Our families help us learn that we are not the ones responsible for their creation, but God!

Our experience of early family life colors all of our relationships and what we expect to achieve from life in general. Resolving conflicts, dealing with difficulty and suffering, celebrating accomplishments, prioritizing our needs, listening to God's call, understanding relationships, understanding disappointment, learning about the virtues and living a centered focused life are all lessons our families either succeed in teaching or do not. To succeed, as God has designed and ordered our world, is to discover his presence and then trust that Presence. The Holy Family can teach even the most dysfunctional family how to best use God's gifts of faith, hope, and love to find him and do his will. Their simple humble example is always before us, showing us the way. Jesus, Mary and Joseph, pray for us! ©LPi

La Sagrada Familia

La Navidad es familia, es calor de hogar, es pureza de corazón. La Liturgia nos ayuda a recordar la belleza de este tiempo y las miradas son puestas en torno a la Sagrada Familia. La familia es convocada, ahora más que nunca, a ser valorada y enriquecida con lazos de comunión. Debe estar cimentada en la fe. Como ejemplo de esa fe tenemos a Abraham, Simeón y Ana. Ellos supieron cumplir sus deberes de fe y confianza plena en Dios. Bendiciendo y alabando a Dios por tener la oportunidad de recibir a Jesús en sus brazos. "Ahora, Señor, ya puedes dejar que tu siervo muera en paz, como le has dicho. Porque mis ojos han visto a tu salvador". (Lucas 2:29-30)

La familia es un don de Dios. El Papa Francisco en diferentes ocasiones ha dicho lo siguiente sobre la familia: "En su camino familiar, ustedes comparten tantos momentos inolvidables: las comidas, el descanso, las tareas de la casa, la diversión, la oración, las excursiones y peregrinaciones, la solidaridad con los necesitados... Sin embargo, si falta el amor, falta la alegría, y el amor, y el amor auténtico nos lo da Jesús". Y añadió en otra de sus frases: "Cuando nos preocupamos por nuestras familias y sus necesidades, cuando entendemos sus problemas y esperanzas... cuando sostienen la familia, sus esfuerzos repercuten no sólo en beneficio de la Iglesia; también ayudan a la sociedad entera". La familia de estos tiempos es convocada a valorar y vivir una Iglesia doméstica auténtica, donde el centro sea Jesús. ¿Es tu familia como la de Nazaret? ©LPi



LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

While families come in all shapes and sizes and no two are the same, they all need a common focus and grounding. Families are intended to be pivotal in providing us with a proper social structure and understanding, a support system, lessons about relationships and communication and the unconditional acceptance and love we so desperately crave. In additional to all of these things, the axis of every family has to be centered on faith. It is here that we can learn about the virtues and discover the windows to God Himself in His gifts of faith, hope, and love. We can learn, modeling our experience after the Holy Family, how to use these as anchors in our lives so that we can live out the other virtues with greater integrity. Because our human families struggle with weakness and sin, we have to come back to the Holy Family often for inspiration and guidance. In the bond of love that they shared, they clung to the anchor of God Himself and endured challenges far greater than many we will ever face. ©LPi

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

Si bien las familias vienen de varias formas y tamaños y no hay dos iguales, todas necesitan un enfoque y una base común. Se pretende que las familias sean fundamentales para proporcionarnos una estructura social y una comprensión adecuadas, un sistema de apoyo, lecciones sobre las relaciones y la comunicación, y la aceptación incondicional y el amor que tanto ansiamos. Además de todas estas cosas, el eje de cada familia debe centrarse en la fe. Es aquí donde podemos aprender sobre las virtudes y descubrir las ventanas a Dios mismo en sus dones de fe, esperanza y amor. Podemos aprender, modelando nuestra experiencia con la de la Sagrada Familia, cómo usarlos como anclas en nuestras vidas para que podamos vivir las otras virtudes con mayor integridad. Debido a que nuestras familias humanas luchan con la debilidad y el pecado, tenemos que volver a la Sagrada Familia a menudo en busca de inspiración y orientación. En el vínculo de amor que compartieron, se aferraron al ancla de Dios mismo y soportaron desafíos mucho mayores que muchos de los que enfrentaremos nosotros. ©LPi

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The Gift of Family: What a year it has been! How will we speak of these times a decade from now? As time goes by, our impressions of this past year will certainly change. How we feel today about dealing with a killer virus and all the chaos surrounding that is still fresh for all. I would assume that most of us right now are also holding those we love a little closer and hugging them a little harder. Hopefully, even if the fears and concerns of 2020 dissipate in the future, the way we feel toward our family should never leave us.

Stewardship is certainly about everything. God has given us so much, great and small, profound and common. One of the greatest gifts that all have received is family. Families take all shapes and sizes and some look very different than others. For some, family is a caretaker or temporary guardian. For others it is a friend when everyone else seems to have vanished. The bottom line is that, to quote a song from many years ago, "people need people."

When God gave the world His only Son, the Incarnation did not come on a cloud or with a flash of light. He was born into a family. Jesus understood the gift of family all his life. Do you think that if having a family wasn't important God would have still included this in the plan of salvation?

As this year draws to a close, remember your stewardship many days begins and ends with the people closest to you. Don't misuse or take for granted this precious gift. God gives us gifts on purpose, even to His only begotten Son. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA - RECONOCER A DIOS EN LOS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS

El Don de la Familia: ¡Que año ha sido! ¿Cómo hablaremos de estos tiempos dentro de una década? A medida que pase el tiempo, nuestras impresiones del año pasado ciertamente cambiarán. Cómo nos sentimos hoy al tratar con un virus asesino y todo el caos que lo rodea todavía está fresco para todos. Asumiría que la mayoría de nosotros en este momento también estamos uniendo más cerca a nosotros a quienes amamos y los abrazámos un poco más fuerte. Con suerte, incluso si los temores y las preocupaciones de 2020 se disipan en el futuro, la forma en que nos sentimos hacia nuestra familia nunca debería abandonarnos.

La corresponsabilidad es, ciertamente, de todo. Dios nos ha dado tanto, grande y pequeño, profundo y común. Uno de los mejores regalos que todos han recibido es la familia. Las familias tienen todas las formas y tamaños y algunas se ven muy diferentes a otras. Para algunos, la familia es un cuidador o tutor temporal. Para otros, es un amigo cuando todos los demás parecen haber desaparecido. La conclusión es que, para citar una canción de hace muchos años, "las personas necesitan personas".

Cuando Dios le dio al mundo su único Hijo, la Encarnación no vino en una nube o con un destello de luz. Él nació en una familia. Jesús entendió el regalo de la familia toda su vida. ¿Crees que, si tener una familia no fuera importante, Dios todavía habría incluido esto en el plan de salvación?

A medida que este año llega a su fin, recuerda que tu corresponsabilidad muchos días comienza y termina con las personas más cercanas a ti. No hagas mal uso ni des por hecho este precioso regalo. Dios nos da dones a propósito, incluso a su Hijo unigénito. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi
