28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

If we are truly in love with God, then the basics are not going to be enough. That love is going to want to be expressed in going above and beyond, in leaving the comfortable and familiar, in stretching and growing, and in following a voice other than our own. St. Teresa of Calcutta rightly instructs us that for "love to be real, it must cost, it must hurt, it must empty us of self." Being in love with God requires more than just checking the boxes of the commandments. It requires a sincere and unconditional self-investment. Desiring God with our whole heart, mind, and soul means that I must also desire a relationship with my neighbor with that same degree of fervor.

Biases and prejudices usually occur when people are kept at a distance and treated as objects. We cannot truly know our neighbors, especially if they are different than us, if we keep them in boxes and do not listen to their stories. When we open ourselves to listen to another person's story, we begin to realize more how similar we are than dissimilar. Being overly attached to our possessions, ideologies, agendas, lifestyles, and personal needs are absolute barriers to achieving the type of personal investment love demands. This is why following Christ can be difficult. It is less a matter of intellect and more a matter of heart and soul. It requires that we transfer our treasure from an investment in tangible secular things and move it into the Kingdom of God. It is only the gift of wisdom and discernment that can help us decide what to do and how to do it.

Contemporaries of Jesus would know that a camel could not enter through the portal of a city weighed down with the baggage it was carrying. In order to enter, the baggage must be removed so that the animal could fit through the entry way. The same is true for us. We carry a lot of excessive baggage around with us that keeps us tethered to our past histories, wounds, myopic world views, prejudices, fears, and suspicions. To invest ourselves in the Kingdom of God, do God's work and live out our love relationship with God, we need to shed the extra weight. While it may seem that a lot of that stuff is necessary, it really is not. We are much more than the things that we think define us and more secure than we think. The more there is to hold on to and the more that we carry with us, the harder it will be to leave it all behind. Many choose not to and walk away sad because they are not ready to trust. ©LPi

28º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Hemos vivido en estos dos años experiencias inimaginables en nuestras vidas. Si hace tres años nos hubieran dicho que esto de la pandemia pasaría, no lo hubiéramos creído. Sin embargo, el tiempo de confinamiento en casa, el cuidarnos los unos a los otros, el distanciamiento y la limpieza, junto con el ser vacunados, nos ha llevado a apreciar y creer lo que escuchamos hoy en la liturgia de la Palabra. La primera lectura describe con lujo de detalle lo que es apreciar lo más importante: "Oré y me fue dada la inteligencia; supliqué, y el espíritu de sabiduría vino a mí. La preferí a los cetros y a los tronos, y estimé en nada la riqueza al lado de ella" ¿Qué nos enseña está lectura con referencia al tiempo que estamos viviendo? ¿Qué debemos de apreciar ahora? Bueno, para seguir reflexionando, Jesús en el Evangelio lo pone clarísimo con un mensaje exigente y radical, poniendo en contraste la riqueza y la sabiduría. Su mensaje: "Sólo te falta una cosa; vete, vende todo lo que tienes y reparte el dinero entre los pobres, y tendrás un tesoro en el Cielo. Después ven y sígueme" (Mateo 10:21). Más claro que el agua no puede ser. Seguir a Jesús es el siguiente paso. ¿Cómo? Dándonos unos a otros hasta que duela. Los pobres son el gran camino para el cielo y creo que durante el confinamiento que hemos vivido todos somos pobres, porque a todos nos falta de alguna manera la salud, el trabajo, y todos hemos perdido a algún ser querido durante este tiempo. ¿Qué opinas de la invitación de Jesús? ¿Crees que es actual o está pasada de moda? ©LPi

Dear St. Anthony of Padua Community: The school and parish would like to publish a cookbook for the St. Anthony of Padua community. Our goal will be to gather at least one, two, or three recipes from each parishioner over the next four weeks. Recipe forms will be available in the back of the church, along with a box to return your completed recipes. It will be very important for you to place your name and contact information on your recipe form so that we know who to contact for any needed follow-up information. Recipe forms can be turned in at any time, but are due no later than November 3rd. Not only will this be a great fundraising opportunity for us, but it will also be a wonderful joint effort between the school and parish. In addition, the cookbook will be a wonderful keepsake for our community. Thank you very much for your support and participation in this activity. ---Randy Lazar, Principal

LIVE THE LITURGY

Presumption can be a great sin. We can easily convince ourselves that as long as we do the bare minimum or master the basics, it is sufficient. Love doesn't operate this way. If we are truly in love with God, then the basics are not going to be enough. That love is going to want to get expressed in going above and beyond, in leaving the comfortable and familiar, in stretching and growing and in following a voice other than our own. This is what those who are truly in pursuit of wisdom come to realize. Just like any human relationship worth achieving reveals, we never reach a plateau in following the Gospel or growing in wisdom and holiness. Wisdom is the rudder that guides us through all of life's attractions and options. It alone determines what is worth pursuing and what must be left behind. That is why those who are only concerned about checking the boxes and doing the least amount possible often walk away sad when offered God's gift of life eternal. They are not truly in love. ©LPi

VIVIR LA LITURGIA

La presunción puede ser un gran pecado. Podemos convencernos fácilmente de que siempre que hagamos lo mínimo o dominemos lo básico, es suficiente. El amor no opera de esta manera. Si estamos verdaderamente enamorados de Dios, entonces lo básico no será suficiente. Ese amor va a querer expresarse en ir más allá, en dejar lo cómodo y familiar, en estirar y crecer y en seguir una voz distinta a la nuestra. Esto es de lo que se dan cuenta aquellos que verdaderamente buscan la sabiduría. Tal como revela cualquier relación humana que valga la pena lograr, nunca llegamos a un estancamiento al seguir el Evangelio o en crecer en sabiduría y santidad. La sabiduría es el timón que nos guía a través de todas las atracciones y opciones de la vida. Solo ella determina lo que vale la pena perseguir y lo que debe dejarse atrás. Es por eso, que, aquellos que solo están preocupados por marcar las casillas y hacer la menor cantidad posible, a menudo se alejan tristes cuando se les ofrece el regalo de Dios de la vida eterna. No están realmente enamorados. ©LPi

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

If Heaven were like Harvard: There's no getting around it: life on earth can seem easier if you're rich. Most of the bodily and material needs a person could have are fulfilled if you've got a little bit of money behind you. So why doesn't this same theory apply to entering the kingdom of Heaven? Why isn't Heaven like an Ivy League school, where a connection and a hasty tuition check might open a lot of doors? When you think about it, the virtues required to enter Heaven — things like charity and justice and courage — should be even closer within the grasp of those who never had to worry about where their food is coming from. In theory, your capacity for good works should only increase with the resources at your disposal. The same is true for stewardship potential. Let's say I've got a lot of talent. Maybe I've got a lot of free time. On paper, it should be easier for me to give freely of these gifts, because I have the luxury that eluded the widow and her two coins: I can see my ample gift being put into action, when so many can only offer what they have and remind themselves that God sees it and appreciates it. But here we get into the mess of humanity: if we have a lot of something, it means we have a lot of something we could use any way we want. And then we hear the whisper of the serpent: Think of what this (money, time, talent) could do for you. May we pray for God to give us the heart of the widow, no matter our resources. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

RECONOCER A DIOS EN LOS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS

Si el cielo fuera como Harvard: No hay forma de evitarlo: la vida en la tierra puede parecer más fácil si eres rico. La mayoría de las necesidades corporales y materiales que una persona podría tener se satisfacen si tienes un poco de dinero detrás de ti. Entonces, ¿por qué no se aplica esta misma teoría a la entrada al reino de los cielos? ¿Por qué el cielo no es como una escuela de la Ivy League, donde una conexión y un cheque de matrícula precipitado pueden abrir muchas puertas? Cuando lo piensas, las virtudes necesarias para entrar al cielo, como la caridad, la justicia y la valentía, deberían estar aún más cerca del alcance de aquellos que nunca tuvieron que preocuparse por el origen de su comida. En teoría, tu capacidad para hacer buenas obras solo debería aumentar con los recursos a tu disposición. Lo mismo ocurre con el potencial de corresponsabilidad. Digamos que tengo mucho talento. Quizás tengo mucho tiempo libre. En papel, debería ser más fácil para mí dar libremente estos obsequios, porque tengo el lujo que eludió a la viuda y sus dos monedas: puedo ver mi generoso obsequio ponerse en práctica, cuando tantos solo pueden ofrecer lo que tienen y recordar que Dios lo ve y lo aprecia. Pero aquí nos metemos en el lío de la humanidad: si tenemos mucho de algo, significa que tenemos mucho de algo que podríamos usar de la forma que queramos. Y luego escuchamos el susurro de la serpiente: Piensa en lo que esto (dinero, tiempo, talento) podría hacer por ti. Oremos para que Dios nos dé el corazón de la viuda, sin importar nuestros recursos. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi
