GOSPEL MEDITATION
ENCOURAGE DEEPER
UNDERSTANDING OF THE SCRIPTURE

January 16, 2022 — 2nd Sunday of Ordinary Time

God delights in you. How do you feel when you hear that? Delight usually comes with an exuberant flow of joy that seemingly arises from one's toes with the expression of great glee. Reflecting upon the deep measure of joy God has in us can be a source of joy for ourselves. Delight is infectious. A very young brother and sister were playing on the beach when the all too familiar ice cream truck made its daily rounds. The boy shook with excitement and delight as he took his sister's hand and exclaimed, "The ice cream man is here, isn't it great!" As they ran off toward the truck, one could hear the girl reply, "Yeah, I can't wait!" The experience of a child's delight in something so simple as ice cream, lifts our spirits from our burdens and transports us to the lighter, more innocent side of life.

Life is not meant to be a burden. Believe it or not, God actually wants us to be happy! In fact, the wedding feast at Cana shows us that God even puts His blessing on our happiness. It is okay to celebrate the wonder of ourselves and others. Life is good. It is always interesting to note that Jesus saves the good wine until last. You would think it would be the other way around. The superb quality of Jesus' wine points to the superior quality of life we find in Christ. It is not a life of burdens but a life of wonder and delight! In Christ, we are lifted from the superficial and mundane to a life of purpose, hope, and love.

God is with us through the long haul, through the challenges and sorrows as well as the successes and accomplishments. In spite of the fact that we often wander from the path, God's celebratory delight in us remains. As spouses are asked to remain faithful to each other through whatever life brings, God remains faithful too. This promise remains through this life and into the next. All we have to do is take the advice of Jesus' mother to heart when she says, "Listen to him." This wisdom saves us from foolishly giving in to the illusion that we can make better wine than Jesus. ©LPI

PICK OF THE WEEK: Movie: Freedom

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Relationships are hard to clarify. Determining whether people in our lives are simply acquaintances and associates or a deeper level of friend is a journey that takes time. Identifying and celebrating those people who really care about us is a lifelong adventure that involves both moments of intense elation and heartache. Some relationships are more easily definable than others. Two people who are in love must decide whether the love they share has the freedom and depth necessary for lifelong commitments. Other relationships may look like friendship but may harbor grave dysfunction and toxicity. Discernment is needed on all fronts. Our relationship with God also needs definition and discernment. God has taken creation as His spouse and human beings as His children. God delights in us and all that He has made. The wedding feast at Cana demonstrates God's investment in all of this, especially our happiness. Life is a time for celebration and great rejoicing!

2022 Week of Prayer & Pilgrimage & Christian Unity
January 18-25, 2022

Let us be the mystical body of Christ, visible and vibrant, as we walk and pray for Unity. Design your week: Set an intention. Plan a route. Walk alone or with a group. Spend holy time in holy places. Join a virtual pilgrim community in: Opening/Closing Services of Worship with Christian leaders and pilgrim friends. Daily video devotions from Roman Catholic, Orthodox, Protestant and Evangelical Christians. Mid-week Check-in for prayer and support. Printed Daily Prayers (Spanish and English). It's all on the website...where you register... nmpilgrimage.org Each year, Christians around the world joyfully recall Jesus' prayer in John 17:21: "That they all may be one." This theme was selected and developed by the Middle East Council of Churches and originates from Churches in Lebanon. Present times are extremely difficult and economically disastrous in Lebanon. Combined with the effects of COVID the situation is quite stressful. Prayer and pilgrimage in solidarity with those who suffer is a demonstration of Christian Unity and a sign of communion.

Sponsored by New Mexico Pilgrimage for Unity, a program of the Ecumenical Institute for Ministry with leadership from the Archdiocese of Santa Fe and the New Mexico Conference of Churches

REST IN PEACE

Please remember the following in your prayers.

† Dolores "Dodi" Romero & Christina Kear

As they died with Christ, May they also share in his Resurrection.

HOW CAN WE PRAY FOR THE DEAD THROUGHOUT THE YEAR?

Answer: We commemorate the faithful departed on November 2nd each year. However, we can and should continue to pray for the dead. Our growth in Christian perfection takes a long time. At the time of our death, many of us might not be saints yet. But God, in His mercy, allows for those who love Him to experience purification after death. Our word for that state is Purgatory. It's the antechamber of heaven, so to speak. We know we're getting in the house, but we're not quite ready to go all the way in. There's rain to shake off our coats and dirt that's clogging our shoes. Here on earth, we can pray for the souls in Purgatory. One way is to request that your parish offer a Mass for the intention of a specific loved one. We can also remember the departed in our daily prayers. Just as we have special intentions for family and friends here on earth, we can pray for those who have died. It's also a good act of Christian charity to pray for the forgotten, those who have no one else to pray for them. God knows who they are!

If you are needing a 2021 end of year contribution statement contact the Parish Office and it will be sent out to you.
