God challenges Job not to question His power over creation.
Have you ever challenged or questioned God in prayer?

Paul speaks of believers in Christ as a "new creation." In what ways do you sense something new in your life as a Christian?

The disciples feared for their lives while caught in a violent storm

Jesus helped calm your fears? ©LPi

Time

12th Sunday in Ordinary

Right now, you and I are only worried about one of only two things: wind or water. Bear with me. This week we hear the account of the terrified disciples waking Jesus in a sea-storm. He chastises them for their lack of faith, and then, "rebuking the wind, he said to the sea, 'Quiet, be still!'" He rebukes the wind and stills the water. In the Bible wind and water represent the two most fundamental poles of our experience of creation. Wind means heaven, spirit, that which gives identity, unity, order, light. Water stands for earth, variation, potential, that which can be drawn into identity, darkness, chaos.

Too much "wind" is when things get way too rigid, abstract and ideological — when we face oppressive leaders and tyrants, when we get addicted to our own way of doing things, when our attention is too narrowly focused on one thing. Too much "water" is excessive novelty, passivity, indifference, and chaos — when our attention is too broadly diffused on many things, when things seem to be crumbling without direction into the dark abyss. We know both terrifying experiences all too well.

The point of the miracle is that God in Christ is the One who brings final cosmic harmony between these two vital but threatening forces. He ultimately does so from the wood of the cross, when he breathes forth the wind of his spirit and pours forth the water from his side to establish a new creation, filled with harmonious peace. When the wind and water are out of control, trust him. — Father John Muir ©LPi

Baptism

The parents and godparents must be registered, active in a parish, and receiving the sacraments. Parents are to call the Parish Office to make an appointment with the pastor to make arrangements for baptism. The date of baptism, class, and godparents will be discussed with the pastor during the appointment.

Marriage

Marriage preparation requires a minimum of 6 months during which the couples participates in a pre-marriage class, an inventory, attends an introduction to Natural Family Planning class, and completes a marriage file with the pastor. Dates for weddings will be set after a meeting with the pastor and the freedom to marry has been established. Call the Parish Office to make an appointment with the pastor.

Funerals

Always call the pastor for guidance about your loved one's Catholic funeral and to inquire about dates and times available in the parish before making arrangements at a funeral home. Funeral services must take place as soon as possible after death and should not be delayed out of respect for the deceased person. Rosaries/Vigils take place on the evening prior to the day of the Funeral Mass according to the long custom of the Church. The burial at a cemetery must take place on the same day as the Funeral Mass unless the body is to be cremated. Cremated remains of a body must be buried immediately after the cremation takes place.
