Dear St. John the Baptist parishioners,

Thank you so much for the warm welcome I have received over my first couple of weeks at St John the Baptist. I have been overwhelmed by your generosity and your gratitude.

As I mentioned the first weekend, I would like to have a Parish Pastoral Council in place by January 2020. I would like to offer these reference points concerning the formation of our council.

What does Canon Law say about Parish Councils?

Canon 536:
§1 If, after consulting the council of priests, the diocesan Bishop considers it opportune, a pastoral council is to be established in each parish. In this council, which is presided over by the parish priest, Christ’s faithful, together with those who by virtue of their office are engaged in pastoral care in the parish, give their help in fostering pastoral action.

§2 The pastoral council has only a consultative vote, and it is regulated by the norms laid down by the diocesan Bishop.

What do the Pastoral Directives in our diocese say about Parish Pastoral Councils?

Each parish in the diocese is to have a parish pastoral council according to Canon law #536, 1-2. The council is consultative and advises the pastor or administrator. The role and obligation of the pastor or other administrator is to consider seriously the wisdom of the council and to ensure that its deliberations and recommendations are in accord with the good order of the Church.

Membership on the parish pastoral council
a. Members of the council are usually members of the parish.
b. The number of persons on the council is related to parish size.
c. Membership will consist of elected members, representative members (from parish groups and organizations); ex officio members (e.g., pastor or administrator, DRE, etc); and appointed members.
d. The term of office for most members should be more than one year, with staggered elections for the sake of membership continuity.

I would like to encourage some brainstorming from the community about how we would like to initially form our council. However, I do not intend on having any elections for the council for at least two or three years. I would like to give the council a chance to establish itself in the community, and also give the council a chance to brainstorm and form the best way to incorporate elections going forward.

These are a couple of fundamental questions that I would like to receive your input on:
• How big should our council be?
• Which organizations should have a representative member?

Please provide other ideas/advice that you may feel would be productive in forming our council.

Please email me at FrSTilley@dioslc.org or drop a note for me at the office.

Listen, Learn, Love.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Tilley
