April 4, 1999

Dear Parishioners of St. John the Baptist,

Christ has died; Christ has risen; Christ will come again! I wish all of you a most blessed and faith-filled Easter! What a wonderful paschal season this is when we remember the unbounding love of God our Father, who gave His only Son Jesus for our redemption. How truly graced we are! May you and I continue to live each day in the glorious life of our Risen Lord.

I come to you as your new pastor with a spirit of awe and reverence. How blessed I am to be called by Bishop Niederauer as your first pastor! I am aware of your devoted Christian community and I will address myself to building the Lord’s kingdom in your midst on the faithful and hope-filled work of your beloved and long time priest, Fr. Jim McHugh OSFS, and the generous ministrations of Blessed Sacrament Parish in Sandy.

Our call as people of the Lord’s kingdom is to take good spiritual and pastoral care of each other. We will share faith with each other on our life’s journey so we can become more and more in the image and likeness of Christ.

With the fine pastoral work that has already been accomplished at St. John the Baptist mission and the marvelous new facilities at the Skaggs Catholic Center, the future site of our church, we will move forward in a spirit of hope and charity to continue to build the Lord’s kingdom.

The Lord has entrusted us to each other for His work. I look forward to getting to know you over the next several months, even before I take full time residence as your pastor.

Between now and August, Fr. Jim McHugh OSFS will continue to provide pastoral care to you on weekends. We will administer St. John the Baptist parish out of the office of St. Thomas More Parish in Sandy, where I continue to be pastor through the first week of August. Until I become your fulltime pastor early in August, please feel free to call on me and the staff of St. Thomas More for any of your spiritual or pastoral needs.

Yours sincerely in our Risen Lord,

Liturgy of the Word
First Reading
A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah Isaiah 66: 18-21
Thus says the LORD:
I know their works and their thoughts,
and I come to gather nations of every language;
they shall come and see my glory.
I will set a sign among them;
from them I will send fugitives to the nations:
to Tarshish, Put and Lud, Mosoch, Tubal and Javan,
to the distant coastlands
that have never heard of my fame, or seen my glory;
and they shall proclaim my glory among the nations.
They shall bring all your brothers and sisters from all the nations
as an offering to the LORD,
on horses and in chariots, in carts, upon mules and dromedaries,
to Jerusalem, my holy mountain, says the LORD,
just as the Israelites bring their offering to the house of the LORD in clean vessels.
Some of these I will take as priests and Levites, says the LORD.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm—Psalm 117:1, 2
R. Go out to all the world and tell the Good News.
Praise the LORD all you nations;
glorify him, all you peoples!

Responsorial Psalm (cont)
Psalm 117:1, 2

R. Go out to all the world and tell the Good News.
For steadfast is his kindness toward us,
and the fidelity of the LORD endures forever.

Second Reading
A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews
Hebrews 12:5-7, 11-13
Brothers and sisters,
You have forgotten the exhortation addressed to you as children:
"My son, do not disdain the discipline of the Lord
or lose heart when reproved by him;
for whom the Lord loves, he disciplines;
he scourges every son he acknowledges."
Endure your trials as "discipline";
God treats you as sons.
For what "son" is there whom his father does not discripline?
At the time,
all discipline seems a cause not for joy but for pain,
yet later it brings the peaceful fruit of righteousness
to those who are trained by it.

So strengthen your drooping hands and your weak knees.
Make straight paths for your feet,
that what is lame may not be disjointed but healed.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Gospel
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Jesus passed through towns and villages,
teaching as he went and making his way to Jerusalem.
Someone asked him,
"Lord, will only a few people be saved?"
He answered them,
"Strive to enter through the narrow gate,
for many, I tell you, will attempt to enter
but will not be strong enough.
After the master of the house has arisen and locked the door,
then will you stand outside knocking and saying,
'Lord, open the door for us.'
He will say to you in reply,
'I do not know where you are from.
And you will say,
'We ate and drank in your company and you taught in our streets.'
Then he will say to you,
'I do not know where you are from.
Depart from me, all you evildoers!'
And there will be wailing and grinding of teeth
when you see Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God
and you yourselves cast out.
And people will come from the east and the west
and from the north and the south
and will recline at table in the kingdom of God.
For behold, some are last who will be first,
and some are first who will be last."

Homily

Presentation & Preparation of the Gifts Song
Here I Am, Lord

Profession of Faith - Nicene Creed
I believe in one God,
the Father Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
obtained, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
his suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the Prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.
