Visiting Priest This Weekend

Fr. Patrick Schafer, OFM will be visiting from The Franciscan Province of Our Lady of Guadalupe.

A second collection will be passed for to support the Franciscans work with the Navajo, Pueblo, and Hispanic missions in the Southwest.

Please give him a warm St John the Baptist Welcome.

Thank you for your generosity to the second collection.
Dear St. John the Baptist parishioners,

Thank you so much for the warm welcome I have received over my first couple of weeks at St. John the Baptist. I have been overwhelmed by your generosity and your gratitude.

As I mentioned the first weekend, I would like to have a Parish Pastoral Council in place by January 2020.

These are a couple of fundamental questions that I would like to receive your input on:
- How big should our council be?
- Which organizations should have a representative member?

Please provide answers to these questions and other ideas/advice that you may feel would be productive in forming our council. I would like to have all feedback and ideas by September 18.

Please email me at FrSTilley@dioslc.org or drop a note for me at the office.

Listen, Learn, Love.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Tilley

Dear Parishioners,

I want to offer my heartfelt thanks to Fr. Tilley, the SJB parish staff and our dedicated volunteers for a wonderful celebration of our 20th anniversary last weekend. It was such a heart-warming event and brought back so many pleasant memories of our ministry here at St. John’s.

The Quilt you presented me I will truly treasure and will be a constant reminder to me of your graciousness and kindness. I will hang it up on a wall in my condo. The endowment you established in my name for the parish future needs is a great testament to your love for our parish. Thanks for the lovely Certificate of Appreciation which I will cherish and remind me of your kindness.

May the Lord continue to bless and renew us as we continue to answer His call to love and care for each other under the leadership of our inspiring pastor, Fr. Tilley.

I will be offering some masses for all of your intentions.

Gratefully Yours in Our Lord Jesus,

Msgr. Terry Moore.
