Our Mission: To Build Up the Kingdom of God “...Thy Kingdom Come, Thy will be done on Earth...”
Dear SJB Parishioners

Here is the updated mass schedule while we need to practice social distancing and have a limited number of congregants, currently set at 20.

Monday - 9 am
Tuesday, Wednesday & Thursday - 9 am and 7 pm
Friday - 9 am
Saturday - 4 pm and 6 pm
Sunday - 8 am, 10 am, 12 pm, 2 pm, and 4 pm

While we are at a limited number of congregants (think less than 200), you will need to go to https://sjb-parish.weshareonline.org/ResumingMassOptIn (or look under Latest News section of the SJB-parish.org website for a link) to be part of the random lottery to be scheduled to come to Mass.

NOTE: Please leave the email boxes in the Your Contact Information section blank. Only enter the email at the top of the form.

Masses will continue to be live-streamed daily at 9 am on weekdays and 10 am for Sunday.

Drive Thru Confessions and blessings will be available Tuesdays and Thursdays, and Sundays from 530 pm to 630 pm to accommodate the new mass schedule, or by appointment if needed.

The Sunday obligation is still dispensed. If you do not feel safe congregating at the moment, please join us for our livestream celebrations! It’s okay.

Unfortunately, the Church will no longer be open to the public on Sundays since we will have limited-congregation masses during the day. If anything changes, we will adapt accordingly and as soon as we can. Guys, we have to be prudent. I know a lot of us want things to go back to how they were immediately, however, we still need to act towards the common good.

Thank you for your patience and understanding.
Yours in Christ.

ACTS 6: 1-7

As the number of disciples continued to grow, the Hellenists complained against the Hebrews because their widows were being neglected in the daily distribution. So the Twelve called together the community of the disciples and said, “It is not right for us to neglect the word of God to serve at table. Brothers, select from among you seven reputable men, filled with the Spirit and wisdom, whom we shall appoint to this task, whereas we shall devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word.”

The proposal was acceptable to the whole community, so they chose Stephen, a man filled with faith and the Holy Spirit, also Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicholas of Antioch, a convert to Judaism. They presented these men to the apostles who prayed and laid hands on them. The word of God continued to spread, and the number of the disciples in Jerusalem increased greatly; even a large group of priests were becoming obedient to the faith.

Responsorial Psalm
Psalm 33: 1-2, 4-5, 18-19

R. (22) Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

Exult, you just, in the LORD; praise from the upright is fitting. Give thanks to the LORD on the harp; with the ten-stringed lyre chant his praises. R. Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

Upright is the word of the LORD, and all his works are trustworthy. He loves justice and right; of the kindness of the LORD the earth is full. R. Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

1 Peter 2: 4-9

Beloved: Come to him, a living stone, rejected by human beings but chosen and precious in the sight of God, and, like living stones, let yourselves be built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. For it says in Scripture:

Behold, I am laying a stone in Zion, a cornerstone, chosen and precious, and whoever believes in it shall not be put to shame.

Therefore, its value is for you who have faith, but for those without faith:

The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone, and a stone that will make people stumble, and a rock that will make them fall.

They stumble by disobeying the word, as is their destiny. You are “a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people of his own, so that you may announce the praises” of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light.

See, the eyes of the LORD are upon those who fear him, upon those who hope for his kindness, To deliver them from death and preserve them in spite of famine. R. Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.
Fifth Sunday of Easter—Gospel

John 14: 1-12

Jesus said to his disciples:
“Do not let your hearts be troubled.
You have faith in God; have faith also in me.
In my Father’s house there are many dwelling places.
If there were not,
would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you?
And if I go and prepare a place for you,
I will come back again and take you to myself,
so that where I am you also may be.
Where I am going you know the way.”
Thomas said to him,
“Master, we do not know where you are going;
how can we know the way?”
Jesus said to him, “I am the way and the truth and the life.
No one comes to the Father except through me.
If you know me, then you will also know my Father.
From now on you do know him and have seen him.”
Philip said to him,

“Master, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us.”
Jesus said to him, “Have I been with you for so long a time and you still do not know me, Philip?
Whoever has seen me has seen the Father.
How can you say, ‘Show us the Father’?
Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me?
The words that I speak to you I do not speak on my own.
The Father who dwells in me is doing his works.
Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me,
or else, believe because of the works themselves.
Amen, amen, I say to you,
whoever believes in me will do the works that I do,
and will do greater ones than these,
because I am going to the Father.”
PRAYER FOR MOTHERS

Heavenly Father, from the beginning you have chosen to entrust the human person to mothers in a special way.

We thank and praise you for the gift of mothers; for their tenderness, care, and compassion, for their intuition and encouragement, for commitment and sacrifice. Bless all mothers this day. Keep, strengthen, and refresh them in your loving care. May they be blessed by our open-hearted love and gratitude.

Amen.
