Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"In a world where there is so much noise, so much bewilderment, there is a need for silent adoration of Jesus concealed in the Host. Be assiduous in the prayer of adoration and teach it to the faithful. It is a source of comfort and light, particularly to those who are suffering." ~ Pope Benedict XVI

"The best, the surest and the most effective way of establishing PEACE on the face of the earth is through the great power of Perpetual Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament." ~ Pope John Paul II

"What does the poor man do at the rich man's door, the sick man in the presence of his physician, the thirsty man at a limpid stream? What they do, I do before the Eucharistic God. I pray. I adore. I love." ~ Francis of Assisi

SJB's ACTS Group

Did you know... the ACTS Ministry facilitates ACTS Retreats for SJB and the surrounding community? The purpose of the ACTS weekend retreat is to invite the retreatants into a new or deeper relationship with the Lord and with other faithful women and men through Adoration and daily prayer; Community awareness as a member of the Body of Christ; Theology encouraging more study of our faith and God's word; and promoting the virtue of Service to our Lord and one another. This three day and three night retreat, culminating in a Mass with the parish, brings the retreatants to a better understanding of God's love for them while also developing their need to share that love with others through their involvement in a faith-centered parish community. The next ACTS Retreats are being planned for 2022:

Women's ACTS Retreat: April 21-24, 2022
Men's ACTS Retreat: May 12-15, 2022

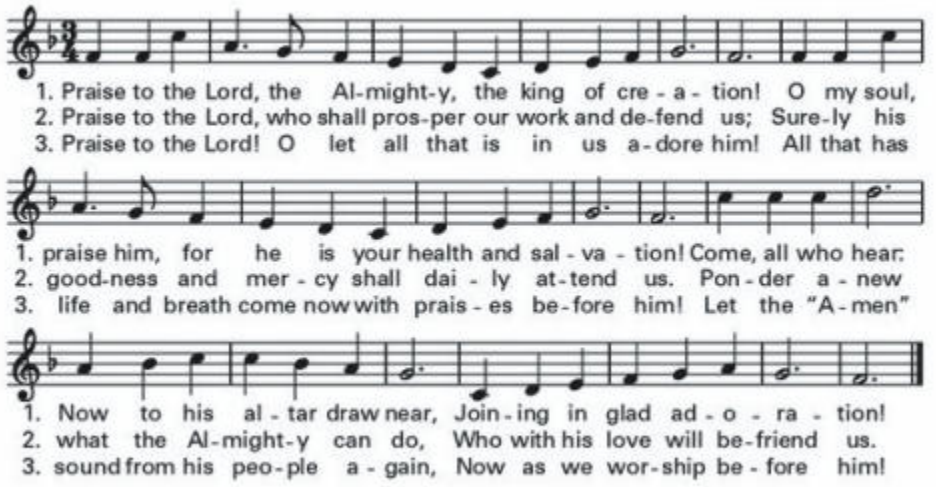
Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Entrance Hymn

Praise to the Lord

LOBE DEN HERREN



Text: 14 14 47 8; Joachim Neander, 1650-1680; tr. by Catherine Winkworth, 1827-1878, alt.
Music: Ernewerten Gesangbuch, Stralsund, 1665; adapt. The Chorale Book for England, 1863.

Penitential Act

Gloria

Reading 1— Kings 19: 4-8

Elijah went a day's journey into the desert, until he came to a broom tree and sat beneath it. He prayed for death, saying: "This is enough, O Lord! Take my life, for I am no better than my fathers." He lay down and fell asleep under the broom tree, but then an angel touched him and ordered him to get up and eat. Elijah looked and there at his head was a hearth cake and a jug of water. After he ate and drank, he lay down again, but the angel of the Lord came back a second time, touched him, and ordered, "Get up and eat, else the journey will be too long for you!" He got up, ate, and drank; then strengthened by that food, he walked forty days and forty nights to the mountain of God, Horeb.

Responsorial Psalm— Psalm 34: 2-3, 4-5, 6-7, 8-9, R v.9a

(R.) Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

I will bless the Lord at all times; his praise shall be ever in my mouth.
Let my soul glory in the Lord; the lowly will hear me and be glad.
(R.) Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

Glorify the Lord with me, let us together extol his name.
I sought the Lord, and he answered me and delivered me from all my fears.
(R.) Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

Look to him that you may be radiant with joy, and your faces may not blush with shame.
When the afflicted man called out, the Lord heard, And from all his distress he saved him.
(R.) Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

The angel of the Lord encamps around those who fear him and delivers them.
Taste and see how good the Lord is; blessed the man who takes refuge in him.
(R.) Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

Reading 2— Ephesians 4: 30-5:2

Brothers and sisters:
Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with which you were sealed for the day of redemption.

Reading 2— (cont)

All bitterness, fury, anger, shouting, and reviling must be removed from you, along with all malice. And be kind to one another, compassionate, forgiving one another as God has forgiven you in Christ. So be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love, as Christ loved us and handed himself over for us as a sacrificial offering to God for a fragrant aroma.

Gospel Acclamation

(R.) Alleluia, alleluia.
I am the living bread that came down from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live forever.
(R.) Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel—John 6: 41-51

The Jews murmured about Jesus because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven, " and they said, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph? Do we not know his father and mother? Then how can he say, 'I have come down from heaven'?" Jesus answered and said to them, "Stop murmuring among yourselves. No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draw him, and I will raise him on the last day.
It is written in the prophets:
They shall all be taught by God.
Everyone who listens to my Father and learns from him comes to me. Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father. Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert, but they died; this is the bread that comes down from heaven so that one may eat it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world."

Communion Hymn 2—Bread of Angels (Curtis Stephan)

1. Bread of angels, we receive you; with us now abide.
Precious Jesus, manna of ages, with us now reside.
Panis angélicus fit panis hóminum,
Dat panis cáelicus figúris términum.

2. Cup of Mercy overflowing, fill us with your grace;
wine of passion, O Son begotten, we flee to your embrace.
O res mirábilis mandúcat Dóminum,
Pauper, Pauper, servus, et húmilis.

3. Word incarnate, dwell within us; pierce our hardened hearts.
Tender Jesus, Love so gentle, never let us part.
Te, trina Déitas únaque, póscimus,
Sic nos tu vísita, sicut te cólimus.

4. Though unworthy, we receive you, sacrament divine.
Bread of angels, accept our praises, let your glory shine!
Per tuas sémitas duc nos quo téndimus,
lucem, Ad lucem quam inhábitas.

Closing Hymn HOLY GOD, WE PRAISE THY NAME

GROSSER GOTT

Text: 78 78 77 with repeat; Te Deum laudamus; attr. to St. Nicetas, ca. 335–414;
Grosser Gott, wir loben dich; tr. ascr. to Ignaz Franz, 1719–1790; tr. by Clarence A. Walworth, 1820–1900.
