Parish Requests

Pictures Needed!

Please help us by submitting pictures for our parish bulletin. We want to highlight all the wonderful things that happen here at SJB parish. We especially would like pictures for our bulletin cover. We ask that all pictures be taken here at SJB parish including the parish or its people. They can include ministry and parish groups, activities we have, artistic photos, etc. Use your imagination and have fun!

Please email your pictures to office@sjb-parish.org and include your first and last name and who/what is in the pic. We greatly appreciate your help!

SJB's ACTS Group

Did you know... the ACTS Ministry facilitates ACTS Retreats for SJB and the surrounding community? The purpose of the ACTS weekend retreat is to invite the retreatants into a new or deeper relationship with the Lord and with other faithful women and men through Adoration and daily prayer; Community awareness as a member of the Body of Christ; Theology encouraging more study of our faith and God's word; and promoting the virtue of Service to our Lord and one another. This three day and three night retreat, culminating in a Mass with the parish, brings the retreatants to a better understanding of God's love for them while also developing their need to share that love with others through their involvement in a faith-centered parish community. The next ACTS Retreats are being planned for 2022:

Women's ACTS Retreat: April 21-24, 2022
Men's ACTS Retreat: May 12-15, 2022

Visit https://sjb-acts.org for more information.

Knights of Columbus

Family of the Month: The Knights of Columbus Council 12181 would like to congratulate the Harke Family as the July Family of the Month. Theresa, a strong defender of the faith, is the SJB Mom's group leader and is happily married to Ross Harke. She and her boys often find time to participate in the choir. Thank you to Ross, Theresa, Johnny, Benny, and Tommy.

Volunteer Brigade

We are looking for volunteers! Our brigade members receive an email when we have a volunteer opportunity. If you can help— great! Email: jenniferkane@sjb-parish.org to join.

Twenty-first Sunday of Ordinary Time

Processional Hymn—Table of Plenty (Dan Schutte)

Refrain
Come to the feast of heaven and earth!
Come to the table of plenty!
God will provide for all that we need,
here at the table of plenty.

1. O come and sit at my table
where saints and sinners are friends.
I wait to welcome the lost and lonely
to share the cup of my love.

2. O come and eat without money;
come to drink without price.
My feast of gladness will feed your spirit with faith and fullness of life.

Penitential Act

Gloria

Reading 1— Joshua 24: 1-2a, 15-17, 18b

Joshua gathered together all the tribes of Israel at Shechem, summoning their elders, their leaders, their judges, and their officers. When they stood in ranks before God, Joshua addressed all the people: "If it does not please you to serve the Lord, decide today whom you will serve, the gods your fathers served beyond the River or the gods of the Amorites in whose country you are now dwelling. As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord."

But the people answered, "Far be it from us to forsake the Lord for the service of other gods. For it was the Lord, our God, who brought us and our fathers up out of the land of Egypt, out of a state of slavery. He performed those great miracles before our very eyes and protected us along our entire journey and among the peoples through whom we passed. Therefore we also will serve the Lord, for he is our God."

Responsorial Psalm— Psalm 34: 2-3, 16-17, 18-19, 20-21, 22-23, R v.9a

(R.) Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

I will bless the Lord at all times; his praise shall be ever in my mouth.
Let my soul glory in the Lord; the lowly will hear me and be glad.
(R.) Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

The Lord has eyes for the just, and ears for their cry.
The Lord confronts the evildoers, to destroy remembrance of them from the earth.
(R.) Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

When the just cry out, the Lord hears them, and from all their distress he rescues them.
The Lord is close to the brokenhearted;
and those who are crushed in spirit he saves.
(R.) Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

Many are the troubles of the just one,
but out of them all the Lord delivers him;
he watches over all his bones;
not one of them shall be broken.
(R.) Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

Reading 2— Ephesians 5: 2a, 25-32

Brothers and sisters:
Live in love, as Christ loved us. Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ loved the church and handed himself over for her to sanctify her, cleansing her by the bath of water with the word, that he might present to himself the church in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish. So also husbands should love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. For no one hates his own flesh but rather nourishes and cherishes it, even as Christ does the church, because we are members of his body.

For this reason a man shall leave his father and his mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh. This is a great mystery, but I speak in reference to Christ and the church.

Gospel Acclamation

(R.) Alleluia, alleluia.
Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life;
you have the words of everlasting life.
(R.) Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel—John 6: 60-69

Many of Jesus' disciples who were listening said, "This saying is hard; who can accept it?" Since Jesus knew that his disciples were murmuring about this, he said to them, "Does this shock you? What if you were to see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before? It is the spirit that gives life, while the flesh is of no avail. The words I have spoken to you are Spirit and life. But there are some of you who do not believe." Jesus knew from the beginning the ones who would not believe and the one who would betray him. And he said, "For this reason I have told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted him by my Father."

As a result of this, many of his disciples returned to their former way of life and no longer accompanied him. Jesus then said to the Twelve, "Do you also want to leave?" Simon Peter answered him, "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God."
