The Liturgy of Baptism Paragraphs from the Catechism of the Catholic Church Lesson 17

1235 The sign of the cross, on the threshold of the celebration, marks with the imprint of Christ the one who is going to belong to him and signifies the grace of the redemption Christ won for us by his cross.

1236 The proclamation of the Word of God enlightens the candidates and the assembly with the revealed truth and elicits the response of faith, which is inseparable from Baptism. Indeed Baptism is "the sacrament of faith" in a particular way, since it is the sacramental entry into the life of faith.

1237 Since Baptism signifies liberation from sin and from its instigator the devil, one or more exorcisms are pronounced over the candidate. The celebrant then anoints him with the oil of catechumens, or lays his hands on him, and he explicitly renounces Satan. Thus prepared, he is able to confess the faith of the Church, to which he will be "entrusted" by Baptism.

1238 The baptismal water is consecrated by a prayer of epiclesis (either at this moment or at the Easter Vigil). The Church asks God that through his Son the power of the Holy Spirit may be sent upon the water, so that those who will be baptized in it may be "born of water and the Spirit."

1239 The essential rite of the sacrament follows: Baptism properly speaking. It signifies and actually brings about death to sin and entry into the life of the Most Holy Trinity through configuration to the Paschal mystery of Christ. Baptism is performed in the most expressive way by triple immersion in the baptismal water. However, from ancient times it has also been able to be conferred by pouring the water three times over the candidate's head.

1240 In the Latin Church this triple infusion is accompanied by the minister's words: "N., I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."

1241 The anointing with sacred chrism, perfumed oil consecrated by the bishop, signifies the gift of the Holy Spirit to the newly baptized, who has become a Christian, that is, one "anointed" by the Holy Spirit, incorporated into Christ who is anointed priest, prophet, and king.

1242 In the Roman liturgy the post-baptismal anointing announces a second anointing with sacred chrism to be conferred later by the bishop Confirmation, which will as it were "confirm" and complete the baptismal anointing.

1243 The white garment symbolizes that the person baptized has "put on Christ," has risen with Christ. The candle, lit from the Easter candle, signifies that Christ has enlightened the neophyte. In him the baptized are "the light of the world." The newly baptized is now, in the only Son, a child of God entitled to say the prayer of the children of God: "Our Father."

1245 The solemn blessing concludes the celebration of Baptism. At the Baptism of newborns the blessing of the mother occupies a special place.

Adorate Deum

Ps 97 (96): 7, 8

VII

BOW down before God, * all you Angels of his. Zion has heard and is glad; and the daughters of Judah have rejoiced.

THE Lord's right hand has shown strength, * the Lord's right hand has ex-alt-ed me. I shall not die, but live; and I shall declare the works of the Lord.

GO, eat rich meat, and drink sweet wine, * and send portions to those who have prepared nothing for themselves; this is a ho-ly day in honor of the Lord; do not be sad; for the joy of the Lord is our strength.

Recessional Hymn: All Creatures of Our God and King

All creatures of our God and King. Lift up your voice and with us sing, Alleluia! Alleluia!
 Thou burning sun with golden beam, thou silver moon with softer gleam! O praise Him! O praise Him! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Weekly Questions

On the Way to Mass today

What did Jesus do in the synagogue at Nazareth?

On the way home from Mass today

Jesus taught in a way that surprised all the listeners. He told them that he was fulfilling prophecies of the Old Testament prophets right in front of them as they were hearing him speak.

During the Week

We should all try to be good listeners. We will understand people better if we listen well. We will also understand God better if we quietly listen to Him in prayer. Try spending a few minutes in a prayerful silence each day.

On the way to Mass next Sunday

What did Jesus say that made the people so angry?

Catechism

Q.946. How should we assist at Mass? We should assist at Mass with great interior recollection and piety and with every outward mark of respect and devotion.

Q.947. Which is the best manner of hearing Mass? the best manner of hearing Mass is to offer it to God with the priest for the same purpose for which it is said, to meditate on Christ's sufferings and death, and to go to Holy Communion.

Q.948. What is important for the proper and respectful hearing of Mass? For the proper and respectful hearing of Mass it is important to be in our place before the priest comes to the altar and not to leave it before the priest leaves the altar. Thus we prevent the confusion and distraction caused by late coming and too early leaving. Standing in the doorways, blocking up passages and disputing about places should, out of respect for the Holy Sacrifice, be most carefully avoided.
