Announcements

"The pro-life movement is the Civil Rights Movement of our time," Alveda King writes in the upcoming issue of Day 41 magazine. "40 Days for Life's peaceful approach to ending abortion reflects the commitment to non-violence exemplified by the Civil Rights Movement."

The fall campaign of "40 Days for Life" begins September 23 and runs through November 1. There are three major locations to pray outside an abortion clinic; Denver/Stapleton 7155 E. 38th Avenue, 1130 Alpine Avenue, Boulder and 131 W. County Line Road, Littleton. Sign up for at least one hour during these 40 Days at any location by going on line 40daysforlife and choose your location. St. Augustine's will be sponsoring a day of prayer as soon as we can coordinate with Father a good day. Hopefully, we will celebrate Mass sometime on that day. Get your group, friends or family to join you. This campaign works.

POWER HOUR OF PRAYER: Thursday, September 10, at 10:30 across from Planned Parenthood Denver. Join us for just one hour.

What was formerly known as Initiative 120 has been cleverly changed to Proposition 115. Follow and support this online, Facebook, Twitter, Instagram... make your friends aware of the new name to end late term abortion in Colorado this November. #Yeson115 It has been proven that 80% of Americans are already in support to end 3rd trimester abortions.

Finally, we will be hosting a rosary rally on Saturday, October 10, at noon, location to be determined, to pray nationwide for our country, our faith and our freedom.

“Pues donde están dos o tres reunidos en mi nombre, allí estoy yo, en medio de ellos”. (Mateo 18:20). Reunirnos dos o tres o muchos más en la asamblea dominical o en oraciones en los grupos de la comunidad es garantía segura de que Jesús se hace presente. Allí, es donde puede surgir la corrección fraterna de la que también habla el Evangelio de hoy. Cuando se corrige se abre el paso a la comunión y al diálogo, abriendo el camino a la eficacia de la oración comunitaria. El pasaje del Evangelio lo expresa así. “Si escucha, has ganado a tu hermano. (Mateo 18:15)

Mateo, es protagonista de la caridad pastoral. Sabe que la Iglesia está formada por santos y pecadores tu hermano ha pecado, vete a hablar con él a solas para reprochárselo. Si te y se preocupa de que se haga justicia en la comunidad. Todos necesitamos del Pastor que busca a la oveja descarriada. La misericordia y el perdón de Dios van de la mano, libera de la esclavitud del pecado y prepara al ser humano a vivir en libertad. ¡Ah! Cuanto necesita el mundo para saber convivir y gozar de la belleza de la verdad de las obras de misericordia espirituales. Sencillas y fáciles de practicar en el vivir de cada día. Dar buen consejo al que lo necesita; corregir al que está en un error; perdonar al que ofende; pedir por los vivos y difuntos. ¿Podrías atreverte a llevar a cabo alguna de estas obras en tu familia y comunidad? ¡Eso es amar sin límite

It's all about reconciliation and conversion, not punishment. Relationships are not static adventures but wonderful gifts that continue to develop, grow, change, and mature. We are meant to be social beings, so isolating ourselves from others is rarely helpful. But, because human beings are on the one hand tremendously gifted, talented, and blessed creations, they are on the other also flawed, broken, and sinful. We all need to humbly admit that we are works in progress and not only capable of enriching each other's lives but causing deep hurts and wounds as well. Hence, we always need to be reconciled. We are always growing, changing, and expanding our knowledge of who we are and how we are meant to share life together.

Because reconciliation and conversion are always part of the mix of life, honesty is crucial. Without honesty, we can easily find ourselves living a lie and causing more harm than good. Being able to freely share our feelings, especially those involving pain and hurt, is a charism necessary to pursue and an art to learn. When we are wronged or wrong someone else, we do not enjoy the confrontation that can and needs to come. We are taught to keep our feelings to ourselves, especially when they are negative, and we tend to avoid difficult conversations. Hence, we never really learn how to confront another, successfully resolve conflict, find reconciliation, and welcome conversion. When we hurt or wrong someone, it does not mean that we are a bad or sinful person who deserves only punishment and excommunication. Quite the opposite! We are simply a human person who can make poor choices and sin and can be forgiven. We can restore and deepen the relationship that has been affected and find our way home again.

Jesus clearly wants to avoid shame because it has no purpose in achieving reconciliation and conversion. All broken relationships deserve a chance at reconciliation. Every person has room for growth and a need for conversion. We have to learn to be okay with honesty and not be afraid to hear and process what someone needs to say, even if it is difficult for us to hear. Severing a relationship, both personally or with the church community as a whole, ought to definitely be a last resort and only pursued when all else has failed.
