Information

A FAMILY OF FAITH This year we will be exploring the 7 Sacraments. This program is encouraged for students who have received their Sacraments of Initiation and their families, that the family may grow together living in the Grace of the Sacraments. However, this is not limited to an age specific group. All of God's children, young and old, adult and youth, parents and children, can get involved as Catechesis for the whole family is offered in A FAMILY OF FAITH. Please contact Samuel Gaona for more information.

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a process which leads adults into full communion with the Catholic Church. The process consists of weekly lessons, various rites performed at Sunday Mass, and small group discussions on the Sunday readings. This process is for non-Catholic adults/young adults as well as baptized Catholics who have not been confirmed including those who have not received their First Communion. The RCIA process can also be part of a way of having a marriage, which was performed outside of the Catholic Church, blessed and sacramentalized. Stop by the parish office to register.

LEGION OF MARY meets Wednesdays at 10:00am in the parish life center for rosary and legion prayers. Members pray and do works of mercy including visiting the sick. They assist the once a month by gathering nursing home residents for Mass. For more information please call Denise Brownell at 303 637 0970.

ADULT BIBLE STUDY: In this exciting Bible study, introduction to the Old Testament, Dr. Brant Pitre will use on a personal 'guided tour' of the essential people, places, and events in the Old Testament. Come join us every Wednesday evenings from 6:00-7:30pm in the parish life center starting September 15th. ## Parroquia San Agustín

Lo que pasó en tiempos de Jesús, sigue pasando hoy día. Muchos le abandonan por cualquier bagatela, se dejan engañar fácilmente y hablan en contra de él y de su Evangelio. Inclusive algunos piensan que seguirle es de tontos. Pues, deja decirte Señor, que yo también reacciono como Pedro ante la pregunta: "¿Quieren marcharse también ustedes?" (Juan 60:67). El lenguaje duro utilizado por Jesús los desconcertaba. Seguirte no es fácil; el camino de tus enseñanzas provoca un cambio radical con referencia a la justicia y al amor. Solo el que entienda tu lenguaje puede responder como Pedro: "Señor, ¿A quién iríamos? Tú tienes palabras de vida eterna. Nosotros creemos y sabemos que tú eres el Santo de Dios" (Juan 60:67-69).

Ahora bien, con tantas experiencias vividas en este año pasado (2020), muchas personas se han dado cuenta qué vacía y sin sentido es la vida llevada a la ligera. Nos hemos dado cuenta que la ambición de tener y vivir corriendo no vale la pena. Lo que cuenta es tener una vida unida a Ti, por la oración y la entrega a los demás, y es una gran bendición el comprenderlo y ponerlo a prueba. El ser humano se ha dado cuenta que lo que sí vale la pena es la salud para poder trabajar y llevar la comida a la mesa familiar. El Papa Francisco nos lleva aún más allá: "Qué difícil es perdonar siempre a quienes nos hieren. Qué desafiante es acoger siempre al inmigrante y al extranjero. Qué doloroso es soportar la desilusión, el rechazo, la traición" (8/26/18). Mantra para esta semana: ¡Tú tienes palabras de vida eterna!

"Far be it from us to forsake the Lord for the service of other gods." We struggle with our gods. They appear in the forms of things like money, power, prestige, popularity, privilege, and self-fulfillment. We like these "gods" because they make us feel good and ask very little of us in return. When we worship them, we worship ourselves. How can you go wrong with that? We buy into the illusion that if something can give us a comfortable life, free of want and need, then it is worth setting other things aside to pursue it. In essence, we sell our souls. Our struggle with "who is God" and to whom do we belong is a real one and one that can easily find us empty and experiencing disillusionment.

The devil tempted Jesus in the desert and promised him more. We are promised "more." But in pursuing the more and the satisfying we lose track of the cost, and the cost is great. We sacrifice our very life in pursuit of something disguised as life. We sacrifice truth for something that only "feels" true. While the true and real God certainly promises us many things, many things are also required. It is not about the warm and secure feelings and self-absorption the world wants to provide, but of giving back. There can be no lukewarm stance with regard to faith. If we are in, then faith in Jesus Christ asks us to do some difficult things: work in service of God's kingdom (not our own), love our enemies, offer no resistance to injury, that we must die to ourselves in order to find ourselves, and trust that Jesus truly gives us his flesh and blood to eat and drink. These are hard things to accept and even harder to put into practice. It is no wonder that many, who may be attracted to Jesus at first, walk away in pursuit of the more self-satisfying gods.

But truth is truth. If we cannot accept it from the lips of Jesus Christ, then where else will we find it? To whom can we go? There is only one source of truth and life, Jesus Christ. Jesus has the words of eternal life and if we do not go to him, then where else will we find this gift? But we must be faithful and buy into the whole package deal that requires sacrifice and fidelity. When we do, we find ourselves, through the Body and Blood of Christ, connected to the Source of all life and then intimately bound with our brothers and sisters. We all have to decide whether we want to stay or go and if we can accept what Jesus has to say. It's a choice we all have to make.
