Gabriel House Project is a ministry of Catholic Charities, located in parish communities, that serves expectant mothers and families with young children. We are seeking Family Service Volunteers to help us provide material assistance and other support to those in need, at our Sacred Heart of Mary location.

If you have a heart for service, we would love to have you! Opportunities are on Tuesdays and Saturdays from 9AM -12PM.

Due to the relational nature of our ministry, we are seeking volunteers open to making a consistent monthly (or more!) commitment.

Please contact Courtney Knipp at cknipp@ccdenver.org 720-432-3525 for a tour or further information. You can also visit our website to learn more about our mission ccdenver.org/Gabriel-house.

Other Opportunities for Gabriel House Family Service volunteers:

Sacred Relics Of The Saints: Treasures Of The Church

Nativity of Our Lord Parish
presents a teaching and exposition of Sacred Relics on Friday, July 9 at 6:30 p.m.

Father Carlos Martins of the Companions of the Cross will be here with an extraordinary Vatican collection of over 150 relics, some as old as 2000 years.

Among the treasures will be relics of St. Joseph, St. Maria Goretti, St. Therese of Lisieux (the "Little Flower"), St. Francis of Assisi, St. Anthony of Padua, St. Thomas Aquinas, and St. Faustina Kowalska. There will also be a portion of the Veil of Our Lady and one of the largest remaining pieces of the True Cross in the world.

Those in attendance will be able to examine and venerate each relic. Throughout history, many healings have been worked in the presence of relics; and thousands have been occasioned through this ministry.

Do not miss this opportunity!

You are encouraged to bring your articles of devotion (such as rosaries, holy cards, etc.) and pictures of ill friends/family members, which you will be able to touch to the reliquaries as a means of intercession.

If you would like to donate flowers for a weekend between May – August, please sign-up using the sheet on the Narthex table.

It is very helpful to bring flowers already arranged.

Thank you!

Gospel Meditation - Encouraging a Deeper Understanding of Scripture

July 4, 2021
14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

It's all so ordinary that we can easily miss it. The seagulls hunting and diving for mollusks at the beach offer a display of determination and precision as they gather their food for the day. It's simply what these creatures do. Yet, there's a magical artfulness and skill to their work that speaks volumes about the One who breathed life into their being. This is pretty much the way it is with God's presence. God comes in common ways through common things and ordinary people. Sadly, we are so engulfed in our little worlds of order and ideas to notice the beauty and wonder of it all. Many have numbed themselves to the Divine spark at the essence of all life because that's just the way it is. What's so special about it? A sunset is a sunset and a seagull is a seagull. That's precisely what they thought about Jesus too. After all, isn't he just the carpenter's son? What merit can his words possibly have?

If we're looking for God to come in an event that is so dramatic and intense that it knocks our socks off, then think again. When pondering God's relationship with His people and God's action in our lives, we have to go back to the stable and the recurring, creative, unending power of God's presence. It was a quiet, run of the mill kind of night. There was nothing spectacular or extraordinary. To the naked eye, a woman gave birth to a child and there wasn't anything extraordinary to see. We have a hard time understanding God's ordinary-ness. Jesus grew up in an ordinary town, had neighbors and did normal human things. Perhaps that's why we don't always like the Gospel. It doesn't dazzle us with extraordinary things but simply challenges us to take a different look at our ordinary stuff. That makes us uncomfortable. We prefer things as they are. Our lack of faith can even cause us to take offense at what Jesus says and does, dismissing it as folly.

God's life-giving presence continues to sustain that seagull in flight and keep all things in being regardless of whether we have the faith to see and understand this. Our personal agendas, preconceived ideas, misconceptions, and expectations can often cause us to be hardened and blinded to what God is doing or desiring to do. While God continues to do what he has done for all eternity, faith is needed for God's presence to bear fruit. The blinders we wear and the expectations we bring to life can often prevent us from seeing graced moments that radiate with God's graceful presence. They also prevent God's transforming, healing, and hope filled vision for our world from being realized. Without faith, God won't be able to do much for us either.

Socio-Pastoral Institute

"sharing our gifts for the renewal of church and society"

The Socio-Pastoral Institute (SPI) has accompanied local parishes and dioceses to adopt the spirituality of stewardship with three goals:

1. the adoption of small Christian Communities as a new way of being Church, a community of disciples transformed into a "Church of the Poor";
2. the removal of the arancel system or fixed fees for the administration of the sacraments to financially sustain the Church; and
3. the adoption of the spirituality of stewardship as a response to the call for discipleship. The Catholic Bishops Conference of the Philippines's Pastoral Statement on Stewardship, abolishing the arancel, is a definite fruit of SPI's more than 20 years of promoting stewardship as a way of life in the Church of the Philippines.

Please help SPI continue this important service in helping 78 dioceses and 3,393 parishes become self-sustaining, and more importantly become a renewed and evangelizing Church.

Please welcome Fr. Manny Catral, SPI board member and parish priest of St. Peter Thelmo in Aparri, Tuguegarao, who will speak at all the Masses for your support of SPI's important work for the Church in the Philippines.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The Prophecy of You and Me

Prophet. There's a heaviness to this word. It's weighted down with meaning. We think of prophets and we think of Charlton Heston with wild hair and a booming voice, reaching out his hand to work wonders of nature by the grace of God. We think of prophets and we think of ancient Biblical history — someone far away, someone so removed from our everyday life. A prophet is someone who knows something we don't.

When I let you in on this secret, it might scare you at first: in a way, God is calling you to be a prophet. He is calling me. He is calling anyone who hears the truth of the Gospel. However, there is no need for the megaphone and the wild locusts. This prophet gig might not be what you're thinking.

What does a prophet do? He hears and testifies to the truth, even when it's uncomfortable, even when it's unpopular, even when it results in, as Paul says, "weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions and constraints." A prophet doesn't have to be smart or rich or ordained; heck, he doesn't even have to be particularly willing.

All a prophet has to do is listen to the truth. The truth we receive from Christ, through the Gospel and the sacraments, is a mighty gift. But it is a gift that we are not meant to simply keep for ourselves. In possessing it, we are compelled to also pass it on, to share it, to let the Spirit set us on our feet.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
