Gospel Meditation - Encouraging a Deeper Understanding of Scripture

July 18, 2021 - 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

There's an ordinary pine grove located on a tree farm not too far from town where life's stresses and demands seem to melt away. It is here that all that seemed so important out there no longer is and one can get lost in the rows of trees and majestic beauty. God is here and all is good. We need to connect with the Divine Source of all that is in order to understand what it is we are doing and why we are doing it. Otherwise, things stop making sense and bitterness can overcome one's spirit. It's okay to play once in a while and to discover that place of profound life and peace. People always have needs and there is constantly something to do. And while all of that is necessary and we are needed, there is also that inner solitude within that needs to be celebrated and released.

We all need a pine grove. It's that little place we can go and leave all that consumes us behind. It's a place where technology can be set aside and wonder, and awe given some time. We don't have to text, calculate, or orchestrate anything in the pine grove. It is a somewhat deserted place where all of that can be set aside and we can just be. The anger, frustration, exhaustion, discouragement, helplessness, and occasional apathy, all can fall to the ground like all of those pine needles that once held their place on the branch of a Frasier Fir. The needles can let go. We can let go. We are beings connected with Being and we all need to remember what really matters, who really matters and what life is truly all about. We need to find that place where we can rest and let go of all of the barnacles we accumulate. Rest, breathe, seek, and love.

The world will need us again when we leave the pine grove. It will all be waiting for us, beckoning for our attention. But we will have prayed and will have marveled at the silence and the beauty of goodness. We can go back, ready, and eager to listen, to help, to heal, to cry, to embrace, and attend to all that is asked of us. But, having let go of the distractions in that deserted place we will have a renewed sense of purpose. We will know better Who it is we serve and what we are meant to do. It will all be clearer now that we have been Divinely touched and refreshed.

Socio-Pastoral Institute

"sharing our gifts for the renewal of church and society"

The Socio-Pastoral Institute (SPI) has accompanied local parishes and dioceses to adopt the spirituality of stewardship with three goals:

1. the adoption of small Christian Communities as a new way of being Church, a community of disciples transformed into a "Church of the Poor";
2. the removal of the arancel system or fixed fees for the administration of the sacraments to financially sustain the Church; and
3. the adoption of the spirituality of stewardship as a response to the call for discipleship. The Catholic Bishops Conference of the Philippines's Pastoral Statement on Stewardship, abolishing the arancel, is a definite fruit of SPI's more than 20 years of promoting stewardship as a way of life in the Church of the Philippines.

Please help SPI continue this important service in helping 78 dioceses and 3,393 parishes become self-sustaining, and more importantly become a renewed and evangelizing Church.

Please welcome Fr. Manny Catral, SPI board member and parish priest of St. Peter Thelmo in Aparri, Tuguegarao, who will speak at all the Masses for your support of SPI's important work for the Church in the Philippines.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The Steward's Work Is Never Done

Woe to the shepherds who mislead and scatter the flock! When you hear these strong words from the Old Testament, you're probably thinking, thank goodness I don't have any sheep — dodged that bullet. Nobody misled here! No flock scattered on my watch! However, we are all shepherds of a kind, called to tend our own sheep: our families, our parishes, our communities.

But it's exhausting. Don't we all sometimes just want to take a break from being a steward? The excuses are so familiar: we're tired, we've done enough, we've given all we can, what more does the parish (or my spouse, or my kids, or my boss, or my friends, or my community) want? We give ourselves permission to be selfish. So, what if the flock scatters just a little?

Jesus gets that. We can just imagine him weary with exhaustion, can't we? We see him on his boat, attempting to sneak away for a quick break — maybe just a chance to eat a bite of food in peace. He is God, but he was still human, after all. Even the most dedicated shepherds need to sleep. But people couldn't leave him alone. They were hungry for him. They needed what he could offer, and they needed it now.

As tough as it is, that's the example we are tasked with imitating. Everyday Stewardship demands accountability. It demands our showing up even when we are tired. It demands that we look at our lives, our time, our energies, our talents, our hearts, our bank accounts and think: where do I still have more to give?

Confession Times
St. Martin de Porres

Following the 8:30 a.m. Daily Mass,
Monday - Friday

Wednesday 5:00 - 6:00 p.m.
during the Holy Hour

Saturday 3:30 - 4:30 p.m.

As promised, the popular Wine and Cheese (and so much more) events are back!

Mark your calendars, and join us for the first one of the season on Saturday, July 31, right after the 4:30 PM Mass.

Our theme will be "Picnic"
and Don will be making his delicious sloppy joes!

This year, they will usually be held on the LAST Saturday of the month, after the 4:30 P.M. Mass. Please join us; children are always welcome. We will be serving the food, so we will need more volunteers.

If you want to be more involved, contact Michelle Reddy at michelle_reddy@comcast.net.

You can volunteer to help host (prep, serve, or clean up), bring a yummy dish to share or an unused gift for the free raffle, or provide background entertainment with your musical talent.

No sign up is necessary to attend, just come and join the fun and fellowship. See you there!
