Buy Your Western Slope Elberta Peaches!

The Knights of Columbus Council #1183 is selling Western Slope Elberta Peaches again this year!

Before and after each mass on Aug. 7 & 8, and again on Aug. 14 & 15, the council, which serves Sacred Heart of Jesus, Sacred Heart of Mary, Saint Thomas Aquinas, St. Martin De Porres, and Saint Rita's mission will be taking peach orders after Masses. This year, you can pick up your peaches at Saint Martin De Porres on Aug. 28 & 29. If you'd like, we can deliver them to you for a small additional fee.

Our 20lb box contains approximately 40 delicious peaches, which we sell for $39. A half box will cost $20. You might even consider buying a box for a friend, the Homeless Shelter, or the Harvest of Hope pantry.

All the profit we generate from the sale of these peaches goes to support our parishes, selected local community charities, and our efforts to purchase a new ultrasound machine for the Boulder Pregnancy Center. Although our peaches are not organic, they do not contain any preservatives. We accept cash, check, money orders and credit cards. We need to pay the orchard when they arrive, so we'll need payment on order.

Finally - if you'd like to find out more about the Knights of Columbus and what we do, and perhaps consider joining Council #1183, just ask us when you're ordering your peaches. We need Good Catholic Men to join our council, help our parishes, our schools, and our community.

Any questions in advance, please feel free to call or text Bob Gills at (720) 838-8944 or Noah Sonne at (252) 412-4163.

St. Martin de Porres is hosting a special event to venerate the Relics of Christ's Passion, Relics of the Holy Apostles, Relics of St. Faustina and Relics of Padre Pio.

Thursday, September 9 at 6:00 p.m.

We encourage you to join us to take advantage of this special opportunity to venerate these holy relics and participate in a program that allows you to engage in a meditative experience highlighting the Passion of Our Lord and His intimate relationship with these featured saints. This program includes a set of unique meditations with accompanying music that is sure to touch your heart and connect you with the roots of your faith.

Wine and Cheese following 4:30 P.M. Mass THIS EVENING!

The theme is "Picnic"
and we are having Don's delicious sloppy joes!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Practicing Graciousness in the Desert

Looking back over my journey of parenthood, I know there were days when I traveled the extra mile for my children. I made their toast the way they like it, let them play in the park an extra ten minutes, or let them go to the movies with their friends and I finished up the chores on my own. And then, it happened: the attitude. The request for the smallest thing from one of them is met with disdain or bewilderment.

Sometimes you can be made breathless with the ingratitude of another person who takes so much and with so little shame, only to scoff at the idea that they, too, give even the smallest amount.

But if we're being honest with ourselves, we will admit that we do the exact same thing to God. Haven't we all been the Israelites in the desert at one point or another? God has parted our Red Sea in some way. He's led us out of some great trial, given us some great blessings. But then we run into a little resistance somewhere along the way and we throw up our hands. How could you do this to us, Lord? How could you ask this of us? No, I can't go any further. No, I won't do any more.

Persisting in the blindness to the many ways God continues to protect us is nothing short of a temper tantrum. It robs our Everyday Stewardship of its graciousness, of our ability to accept with joy the trials of life because we are also constantly aware of its blessings.

Gospel Meditation - Encouraging a Deeper Understanding of Scripture

August 1, 2021

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"You cannot see the forest for the trees" is a widely known saying that can bring wisdom to our understanding of our journey. Often, our sight becomes limited to what is immediately before us. We lose touch with lessons and experiences from the past and promises and hope for the future. As human beings, we have the privilege of being able to choose things. What I like and don't like, want, and don't want can be major preoccupations of our minds and hearts. Our preferences and desires begin to define us more than the simple fact of our being. Who we are matters more than what we are or what we have. If we don't move beyond the external and superficial stuff to what really is of essence, we risk becoming very unsettled, disorientated, angry, and unhappy. We fail to see the bigger picture of hope and promise that lies ahead and the Divine Presence that has sustained and carried us before.

We like it when the "now" time of our lives satisfy us. Even the people who witnessed Jesus feed the five thousand got confused and distracted. It felt good when thousands of people were able to eat. They wanted to know what they could do to get this to happen again! But Jesus quickly reminds them that this is not the point of this sign. As much as the now time of our lives is of concern, it is not what is ultimately important. We need to learn the difference between being and doing, drawing more strength from who we are and who God is rather than what is happening around us and the choices we can make. Jesus is the true bread that came down from heaven. Jesus is the very incarnate presence of God who sustains life and assures us that we will not perish. This is not easy to understand and feel. We have to practice being in the presence of ourselves, others, creation, and God. We are brought to a holy place when we encounter the sacredness of being. This is real prayer.

Then, we learn to trust. It is when we cease trusting that we start to become afraid, uncertain, apprehensive, and doubtful, and overly self-concerned. We even start to grumble. God has our back. That is the essential powerful message of the living bread come down from heaven. God, who is alpha is also omega, the beginning and the end, and has everything in between in his care as well. A woman once remarked that her most powerful God moment happened when she and her husband cuddled with their new baby for a time. Without exchanging words and using only the affection communicated through sight and touch, they rested in being with each other. This brought them to the sacred, where they realized that a greater Being was with them. It was real. They knew that they were part of something bigger, intimate, and profound. When we rest in the Living Source of life, we will find that our souls are no longer hungry or thirsty.
