Calling grandparents, mothers of older school-aged children, or others who love children:

Do you miss the joy and innocence of children?
Would you like to partake in the wonder of truth, beauty and goodness of our Catholic culture as we pass this on to the next generation?

We have a unique opportunity for YOU to learn and have fun with children this Spring!

Seat of Wisdom Scholé is an authentically Catholic, classical education, homeschool hybrid community that meets at Sacred Heart of Mary on Tuesdays and Thursdays. We have had a glorious and joyful first semester at SHM Church! This semester has been so successful, in fact, that the word is getting out and we find ourselves in need of more help on Thursdays. We are willing to work with whatever time commitment you might be able to offer. Working with these children has been a delight for one grandparent already, and other classroom aides have said they have regularly enjoyed their time in the classroom. Classroom Aide duties would be simply to help the main tutor in the classroom. Be the extra pair of hands and eyes needed to keep these little ones (K-4th) from harm and keep the class going as efficiently as possible. You may need to take Safe Environment training from the Archdiocese to work with the kiddos, but we are setting up a class in January now since there are others who need to take this class as well.

We could use classroom aides anytime on Thursdays from 9:00-2:00pm.

We can work with any schedule!

If interested or have questions, contact Julie Medearis, 720-840-0974.

January 9, 2022 - The Baptism of the Lord

“We are called to live our baptism every day, as new creatures, clothed in Christ.”— Pope Francis

What reference point do you use when making decisions? Many times, impulse takes control and decisions are made based solely on emotion and desire. We all know that these types of decisions can often get us into trouble. When a person has a confident sense of who they are and a real understanding of what is important and of value, the likelihood of kneejerk impulsive choices diminishes. Baptism gives us what we need to make well informed and purposeful decisions. By this simple gesture, God claims us as His own and provides us with the identity and purpose we need to properly live life.

It is tremendously reassuring, when we truly embrace this revelation and realize that we no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. The answer of who we are in God has been given to us. We no longer have to fumble around, trip over ourselves or walk aimlessly about. Issues surrounding the sacredness of life, the meaning of death, the protection of those most vulnerable, care for the weak and the poor, offering hospitality to those in search of a home, the purpose and proper place of work, how to create a just social order, caring for creation, and understanding our roles as heralds and stewards are just a few of the wonderful gifts baptism brings. When we make decisions based on things such as these core Gospel truths we really act as Christ himself, revealing to others the new creations that we are. This is how we live our baptism.

It is difficult to walk against the tide. Yet, that is precisely what baptism calls us to do. Although we are sinners, in need of mercy and far from perfection we are called to order our life and make decisions based upon the wisdom and guidance of Almighty God. He alone is the one who can claim us as His sons and daughters. Standing up for our principles will not make us popular. But who ever said Christianity is a popularity contest? Baptism calls us to stand up for that which goes against the grain of secularism. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor to steady us in the tempests of life and God is very pleased. Forge ahead. There is nothing to fear.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

I Hope I Am Like Him

"Who is this Christ? Is he like you?"

Perhaps you've heard this story, often attributed to the life of St. Teresa of Calcutta. A sick man asked her this question, as he marveled at her tireless service to himself and others in the name of someone named Jesus Christ.

"He is nothing like me," the saint is said to have answered. "But I hope I am like him."

Though the authenticity of this exchange cannot be verified, its message rings perfectly true: all the value of our stewardship lies in its relativity to the one whose name we perform it.

Consider the figure of John the Baptist — a magnificent, towering character even purely from a literary or historical perspective. A martyr who fed on wild locusts and boldly spoke truth to power — a man so great some mistook him for the Messiah.

But why is he great? Because he prepared the way. All his accomplishments and escapades mean nothing if they are taken out of the context of salvation history. He only makes sense relative to Christ — and this is exactly as he wanted it. "One worthier than I is coming," he insists. And because of that humility and that total embrace of God's will, he is given one of the greatest honors in the New Testament — he baptizes the Son of God.

Let's examine our lives in the light of their relativity to Christ. How do we prepare the way? When Christ comes to us, what do we do? How do we leave ourselves open to be actors in God's plan?
