Marshall Fire

May God continue to protect the first responders fighting the fires and comfort all who have been affected by them. -Archbishop Aquila

Father Jonathan, Father Emmanuel, Deacon Jim and the entire staff at Sacred Heart of Mary extend our deepest prayers and support to everyone within our Parish Community, along with those in Louisville, Superior and unincorporated Boulder County, whose homes were destroyed or damaged in the Marshall Fire.

Please keep them, firefighters and other support organizations in your thoughts and prayers.

The Archdiocese of Denver has established the Marshall Fire Recovery Assistance Fund and a 2nd collection will be taken January 8 - 9 for this purpose.

If you would like to donate online visit:
https://secure2.convio.net/cfnc/site/Donation2?df_id=3220&3220.donation=form1&mfc_pref=T

Online donations for Sacred Heart of Mary parishioners affected by the fire can be made at:
www.sacredheartofmary.org/giving
(please note Marshall Fire in the memo section)

Please contact Dc. Jim through this web page if you were directly affected by the fire:

St. Sebastian | January 20

Not much is known about the life of St. Sebastian (256 – 287), except that he was a Roman martyr whose name has been mentioned throughout history since early 350.

We see St. Sebastian many times in art, especially from iconic paintings from Guido Reni, Andrea Mantegna and Hendrick ter Brugghen. Historical scholars now agree that a spiritual story has the beloved saint entering the Roman army because only there could he assist Christian martyrs without arousing suspicion on himself. Eventually he was found out, brought before Emperor Diocletian and delivered to Mauritanian archers to be shot to death. Pierced with arrows, he was left for dead, but managed to survive. He recovered from his wounds but still refused to leave.

One day, St. Sebastian took up a position near where the emperor was to pass. He confronted the emperor, condemning him for his cruelty to Christians. This time the sentence of death was carried out, and St. Sebastian was beaten to death with clubs. Today he is the patron saint of athletes.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

It Takes All Kinds

"If every flower wanted to be a rose," wrote St. Therese of Lisieux, "spring would lose its loveliness."

Who is God asking you to be today? There is an obvious answer that springs to mind right out of the gate. God wants me to be a good person (a good father, a good husband) today; today, God wants me to be a saint.

But this answer fails to get to the heart of the question. We are all striving today to serve the same Spirit, but we are given different gifts to do so. The one who has the gift of knowledge may fail if today he decides he wants to be a healer. The one who has the gift of "varieties of tongues" might falter in the expression of wisdom.

Think about the wedding at Cana and the players in the scene: the servers, the guests, the bride and groom. They all have a unique role to play, and though it is to the servers that Mary gives the instruction, "Do whatever he tells you," her words apply to all.

Today, are we called to be the servers — do we wait on God's instruction and carry it out, no matter how foolish or impossible it may seem to our human ears? Are we asked to be the disciples, to bear witness to a miracle and to give our testimony? Are we called to imitate the Blessed Mother herself and give encouragement to follow God's word?

Let us examine our gifts and listen in the silence of our hearts to the direction of the Spirit. Then and only then, let us do whatever He tells us.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MT

Wine and Cheese

Please join us on Saturday, January 29th, after the 4:30 PM Mass!

Help us celebrate St. Valentine's Day!

Do you miss the joy and innocence of children?

Would you like to partake in the wonder of truth, beauty and goodness of our Catholic culture as we pass this on to the next generation?

We have a unique opportunity for YOU to learn and have fun with children this Spring!

Seat of Wisdom Scholé is an authentically Catholic, classical education, homeschool hybrid community that meets at Sacred Heart of Mary on Tuesdays and Thursdays. We have had a glorious and joyful first semester at SHM Church! This semester has been so successful, in fact, that the word is getting out and we find ourselves in need of more help on Thursdays. We are willing to work with whatever time commitment you might be able to offer. Working with these children has been a delight for one grandparent already, and other classroom aides have said they have regularly enjoyed their time in the classroom. Classroom Aide duties would be simply to help the main tutor in the classroom. Be the extra pair of hands and eyes needed to keep these little ones (K-4th) from harm and keep the class going as efficiently as possible. You may need to take Safe Environment training from the Archdiocese to work with the kiddos, but we are setting up a class in January now since there are others who need to take this class as well.

We could use classroom aides anytime on Thursdays from 9:00-2:00pm.

We can work with any schedule!

If interested or have questions, contact Julie Medearis, 720-840-0974.

Gospel Meditation - Encouraging a Deeper Understanding of Scripture

January 16, 2022 - 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

God delights in you. How do you feel when you hear that? Delight usually comes with an exuberant flow of joy that seemingly arises from one's toes with the expression of great glee. Reflecting upon the deep measure of joy God has in us can be a source of joy for ourselves. Delight is infectious. A very young brother and sister were playing on the beach when the all too familiar ice cream truck made its daily rounds. The boy shook with excitement and delight as he took his sister's hand and exclaimed, "The ice cream man is here, isn't it great!" As they ran off toward the truck, one could hear the girl reply, "Yeah, I can't wait!" The experience of a child's delight in something so simple as ice cream, lifts our spirits from our burdens and transports us to the lighter, more innocent side of life.

Life is not meant to be a burden. Believe it or not, God actually wants us to be happy! In fact, the wedding feast at Cana shows us that God even puts His blessing on our happiness. It is okay to celebrate the wonder of ourselves and others. Life is good. It is always interesting to note that Jesus saves the good wine until last. You would think it would be the other way around. The superb quality of Jesus' wine points to the superior quality of life we find in Christ. It is not a life of burdens but a life of wonder and delight! In Christ, we are lifted from the superficial and mundane to a life of purpose, hope, and love.

God is with us through the long haul, through the challenges and sorrows as well as the successes and accomplishments. In spite of the fact that we often wander from the path, God's celebratory delight in us remains. As spouses are asked to remain faithful to each other through whatever life brings, God remains faithful too. This promise remains through this life and into the next. All we have to do is take the advice of Jesus' mother to heart when she says, "Listen to him." This wisdom saves us from foolishly giving in to the illusion that we can make better wine than Jesus.
