Thank you for giving to help the Marshall Fire victims

The weekend of January 8-9 there was a second collection to help those impacted by the Marshall Fire. You gave over $15,000 in the collection baskets at St. John's. That total does not include what parishioners may have donated online. Your generosity will ease the challenges faced by those who have lost so much, and will help them rebuild. Thank you!

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Do you ever find yourself feeling like you are at the cusp of something remarkable? Like you are witnessing an incredible, historic, athletic, or aeronautical feat? I wonder if that's what it was like for the followers of Jesus when he began his public ministry: "News of him spread throughout the whole region. He taught in their synagogues and was praised by all." In today's Gospel, Jesus reads the words of the prophet Isaiah that are effectively a "job description" of his mission: glad tidings to the poor, liberty of captives, sight to the blind, freedom for the oppressed. What Isaiah prophesied, Jesus claims to fulfill. He thus inaugurates his public ministry with a claim that is straightforward, bold, true, and of great consequence. Today, by virtue of our baptism, we are part of the body of Christ and share in that mission. Whatever our backgrounds, abilities, or talents, we each have something to contribute to building up one another and the Church. And with the help of the Holy Spirit, we, too, can be bold in our own proclamation of Jesus Christ as Lord.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

We've heard the phrase "Don't sell yourself short." Social media aside, many of us tend to focus on our shortcomings: We may wish we could run faster, be better at our jobs, have a cleaner home, in general, "get it together!" Truth is, we're all works in progress. That's what I love about Paul's Letter to the Corinthians. He reminds us that each one of us - whatever our strengths or weaknesses - is part of the body of Christ. God loves us with our imperfections, not in spite of them. As such, each of us has indispensable value and much to contribute to the mission of the Church. As we move into the week ahead, today's readings invite us to place ourselves at the service of the Church and one another. Beyond that, we can invite others to join us by recognizing that God values the talents - and foibles - that each of us brings to his service.

PRAY Yesterday on the liturgical calendar was the Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children. As members of the body of Christ, let us join our voices with the universal Church and pray a Pro-Life Rosary each night this week. The USCCB Prayers and Devotions page is a good resource.

Meet new people, make friends, and support our parish with the Council of Catholic Women and the Sweethearts of the Knights

All women are invited to join the Council of Catholic Women or the Sweethearts of the Knights. You do not have to be related to a Knight to join the Sweethearts. We just support them in their projects.

Both CCW and Sweethearts hold fundraisers through out the year to raise money for service projects and to help others in need. Come and check out one or both of these very worthwhile groups.

The Knight of Columbus are always looking for more help with the Sunday morning breakfasts. If you would be interested in helping them, stop by on Sunday morning and talk to someone about getting started.

Volunteering in the Gift Shop or helping with coffee and donuts are other ways that you can get involved, meet other parishioners, and make new friends. For information on any of these opportunities call Roberta 970-667-3802 or leave your name and number in the Gift shop and I will give you a call. Thank you for being a volunteer!

Council of Catholic Women Card Games and Dessert Party

1950'S SOCK HOP DINNER AND DANCE

Saturday, February 26 in the new "Bread of Life" parish hall starting at 5pm. Get out your poodle skirts, jeans, and leather jackets, and join us for a fun throwback to the 1950's! $50 ticket gets you admission to an evening of dinner and dancing. Proceeds go toward paying down the loan for the building campaign. Tickets can be purchased in the foyer after weekend Masses. Space will be limited, so get yours ASAP! Volunteers are also needed.

Live streaming help wanted

There are some in our parish community who can't attend Mass every week because they are homebound, traveling, sick, working, etc. Streaming Mass has become an outreach ministry of our parish. Recently, new equipment was installed allowing for all aspects of our live stream to be controlled from the sound booth. It's a simple set-up, but requires basic technical and computer skills. If you would like to be part of this ministry, please email Tom at communications@saintjohns.net to learn more and schedule a training. Ideally, we will have enough volunteers to get into a regular weekly rotation. Thank you!
