"KNOW YOUR FAITH"

Unlike those disciples who knew Jesus face to face, the blind man Bartimaeus has to make up his mind about who Jesus is without the benefit of seeing him. In this way Bartimaeus represents all Christians who believe in Jesus on the basis of what they have been told about him. For us, as for Bartimaeus, faith makes us whole. Faith is both a gift of God and a human response, a relationship by which one trusts and adheres to God and the content of God's revelation, which one believes.

Believing is only possible only by grace and the interior helps of the Holy Spirit. But it is no less true that believing is an authentically human act (CCC, 154). The act of faith is of its very nature a free act. Christ invited people to faith and conversion, but never coerced them (CCC, 154) --

The second collection on today is for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith and ensures the work and service of the Mission Church, as it supports priests, religious and lay leaders who offer the Lord's mercy and concrete help to the most vulnerable communities in the Pope's missions. Thank you for your generosity.

ALL SAINTS DAY / All Souls Day

Thursday, November 1 is the FEAST OF ALL SAINTS, and is a "HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION" ...meaning, we celebrate this Feast by coming to MASS.

All Souls Day is November 2. It is NOT a Holy Day of obligation; however, all are invited and welcomed to Mass to pray for the souls of all who have died.

I WANT TO SEE

You have to admire Bartimaeus for sheer dogged persistence. A blind beggar, Bartimaeus called repeatedly to Jesus and would not be hushed. He "saw" Jesus—the healer, the forgiver of sins, the son of David. Jesus healed Bartimaeus, saying "Your faith has saved you."

Blindness was common in ancient times, and people believed it was the result of sin. We do not think that nowadays, but what about the spiritual blindness that holds us back from a full Christian life? Pride, jealousy, envy, greed, and similar sins are the usual suspects. But consider also lack of trust in God, failure to really believe the good news of Christ, a weak prayer life, and reluctance to do good. And let's not forget hope. If we truly believe that sin and death are not the end, and that eternal life waits for those who love and serve God, then we cannot be blind to hope.
